DEMOCRATS VS. ABOLITIONISTS! White Men vs. Niggers! One more Rally and Mass Meeting is Dead!—The Democracy of the Fourth Ward will meet this (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Morgan House, corner of Second and Pine. Prominent Democrats from a distance will address all who are willing to hearken unto truth.

DEMOCRATS OF THE FIRST WARD, AROUSE!—There will be a grand rally of the Democracy of the First ward this (Saturday) evening, at the public house of Louis Koenig, in Paxton street, at 7 o'clock. The friends of McClellan, Woodward, Lewis and the Constitution, and all who are opposed to negro equality and Shoddy Curtis, are invited to attend. Able English and German speakers will address the meeting. Germans, turn out and help us to defeat Andrew G. Curtis, who says, "A Dutchman has two skulls, and in order to get an idea into his head you must crack one of them."

FIVE-TWENTIES.—The amount subscribed in Pennsylvania for the week ending October 3d, to the five-twenty loan, amounted to $915,850.

CONVENTUAL CASINO.—Amusements are multiplying, and in order to keep pace with the attractions of other places, an unsurpassed bill is prepared for the Continental Casino to-night, when several new performers, in addition to the established favorites, will appear. Go and be happy.

A WAR ITEM.—Thirty-six hundred coffins were sold at Pittsfield, Mass, during the past year.—"The country was never more prosperous."—Under the present war policy, the undertaker bids fair to be in future an important ally in the great work of "crushing out rebellion" according to the Abolition programme.

OHIO SOLDIERS.—The Constitution of the State of Ohio provides that her soldiers may vote in camp. Arrangements have consequently been made to open a place of voting on the 13th, at the Cotton Factory hospital in this city, where all sick and wounded Ohioans in our hospitals can vote for their State and county officers. The polls will open at 10 a. m. and close at 5 p. m.

ERRATUM.—In our notice in yesterday's paper of the Democratic mass meeting at Carlisle, we complimented the large delegation which came from "Spring Hill" township. It should have read "Silver Spring." Our imperfect acquaintance with the geography of the country surrounding Carlisle led us into the error. We ask pardon for having by the blunder cheated them of the credit for a demonstration of which any township might be proud. Old residents of the township declare that they will give over three hundred majority for the Democratic ticket. Shouldn't wonder a bit.

FELL AT CHICKAMAUGA.—A letter received from Major Charles C. Davis, of this city, now in service in the Army of the Cumberland, brings the intelligence that Capt. David May, of the Seventh Pennsylvania cavalry, Third battalion, under Gen. Rosecrans, was killed in the late battle of Chickamauga. He was standing near Major Davis at the time he fell. Capt. May was a citizen of this place, and recruited his company from this and Cumberland counties. He had many warm friends in this vicinity. As a soldier he was brave and efficient. That he stood at his post in the hour of danger is attested by the fact that he fell in the thickest of the fight. His name adds one more to the list of victims who have fallen sacrifices in this wicked rebellion. May his death not be in vain.

IMPORTANT INTERNAL REVENUE CASE.—The case of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company against the Collector and Assessor of Internal Revenue, came up on Monday, in the United States Circuit Court, at Philadelphia, before Judge Grier, for argument, on bill in equity and demurrer. The bill was filed to restrain the Collector and Assessor of the Fourth Collection District from assessing and collecting a tax upon the manufactures of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The company make extensively new cars and locomotives, and does a large amount of repairs in its own workshops. The Internal Revenue Department contend that they are liable to pay the three per cent. fixed by law upon those manufactures, as other hand, contend that as they do not make for sale, but for their own use, they are not manufacturers within the meaning of the law. An early decision may be looked for.

MEETING OF THE U. S. GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS.—At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the United States of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held at Baltimore, Md., on the 25th of September, the principal business was reports upon appeals from grand lodges, or from parties aggrieved. The committee on finance presented a report of the estimated receipts and expenditures of the current year, as follows: Receipts $9,000, of which $5,800 will be due from grand and subordinate lodges and encampments; $2,100 from cards; $900 from the sale of books; $100 from diplomas, and $100 from odds. The estimated expenditures are $12,135, the principal items of which are $1,200 for salary of the Grand Treasurer, $7,500 for mileage and per diem of representatives, $700 for salary of messenger, $400 for postage, stationery, &c., $1,050 for printing daily and revised journal, $200 for salary of grand treasurer, and $275 for rent of grand secretary's office. A resolution accompanied the report appointing $12,135 for the purpose above named, and authorizing the grand secretary to draw his warrant for the same. The matter was laid on the table under the rule. The body then adjourned sine die.

How They Lie!—THAT MILLERSBURG MEETING.—An article appeared in the Telegraph of a recent date, giving an account of a meeting of Abolitionists which was attempted at Millersburg last week, but which proved a disheartening failure. In their envy and desperation, they procure some bulletheaded scribbler for the Kinkyhead organ to resort to the usual refuge of lies, and he endeavors by the most mendacious falsification to explain it away and conceal from the public the true cause of the wretched failure. This white-livered and black-hearted sneak charges, among other things, that the Democrats of that neighborhood, who had held a meeting there a few days previous, had caused spurious handbills to be printed at "some copperhead office," stating that the Abolition meeting had been postponed, and that those they had circulated throughout that section; also, that certain Democrats had telegraphed to the band at Newport, which had been engaged to play on the occasion, informing them that the time for the meeting had been changed. By these means, he says, the success of the meeting was defeated.—These charges are simply lies, unsubstantiated by a single fact; and the creature who wrote them lied, and he knew he lied when he wrote them. We have a letter from a responsible man in Millersburg, dated Oct. 8, which pin the charges to the counter, and we ask the many hound who is responsible for them if he don't feel that he has done a dirty trick. Dare he come out of his kennel over the way and show himself, or will he skulk there among the "whelps and curs of low degree" that snarl and snarl from behind at every person and thing? The letter says: "The whole article in the Telegraph is one base, infamous and villainous falsehood, and none but a vile wretch would pen it. We have offered one hundred dollars to any person who would produce a copy of the fraudulent handbill mentioned, and ten hundred dollars to any person who could bring proof that any person had telegraphed or written to the Newport band that the time for the meeting had been extended. The truth of the matter is, the Abolitionists knew their meeting would be a failure, and hence they sought to lay the blame upon the Democrats. The band which they say they had engaged—which assertion is also a lie—attended a Democratic meeting the same night, and could scarcely be engaged to play for the Kinkyheads at any time."

There is a chance for greenback patriots to satisfy their lust for gain by making good the charges. Step up and get your money. The whole story is of a piece with hundreds of other similar lies which appear in the "Tell-tale," and beyond a peradventure comes from some of the snut machines in that establishment. The truth is, the shoddyites are getting desperate. It begins to look black ahead, and the prospects of the "Soldier's Friend" begin to fall in pieces—somewhat like a Pennsylvania soldier's shoddy blanket on a rainy day. Their meetings in the Upper End have been sorry and ludicrous assemblies, scarcely mustering a corporal's guard. Their "eloquent and distinguished orators" have been such diminutive potatoes as Almond Clives Smith, or such gaseous polliard Don Quixotes as Cornelius Mountbank Shell, or such brave, gentle, discreet warriors as Hludmost Crawfish Allman. What a glorious trio to instruct the honest yeomanry of the Upper End in matters of principle and loyalty! Next week they will receive a "side-winder" at the polls from the people of that section that will make them see stars for "some considerable of a spell" in the future.

A TRIBUTE TO ENERGY.—The "Telegraph" makes frequent complimentary mention of Harry Thomas, Chairman of the "Union" County Committee, and omits no opportunity to eulogize his great energy and business tact. We are impelled, from pure admiration of those sterling qualities as displayed in Thomas, to add our humble tribute to that of the Hessian's snut machine. Mr. Thomas is perhaps the most "energetic" man in the country. He came to this country some years since a poor workman, and in a short time we find him a leader in the ranks of a party which sought to proscrib all foreigners. That's magnanimous. He came poor, and in a short time we find him a millionaire of the approved modern style, and by a happy chance controlling a greater part of the coal banks whence our city derives her supply of fuel. That's energy. But the crowning act of his energetic life remains to be told. Being possessed of that immense interest in the Lykens coal banks, he monopolized the trade, and in a single season put up the price of coal $2 to $3 per ton higher than it was. That's energy for you! We see it, and every poor man and woman in the city feels it. Thomas has taken their money, and of course all such will vote for the ticket which he is engineering. He is a man of "energy."

Mr. Thomas is also a patriotic man. Having acquired the means, he set out for New York before the rebel invasion, leaving the property which he had accumulated in our midst to be defended by his coal pensioners and the "copperheads."—When the foe were ousted he returned, and now blows about "our brave soldiers." He's patriotic, is Mr. Thomas.

The last exploit of this man of energy was to attempt, along with a set of rowdies, to break up a Democratic meeting at Hammelstown. He only didn't succeed because he wasn't able. There's "energy" for you!

So much for Mr. Thomas. We commend him and his ticket to every poor man who likes to buy high coal, to all foreigners who don't want to vote for 21 years, and to the admirers of skeddaddlers and the lovers of energy generally. Thomas is the man for them.

DISTRESSING AFFAIR.—A distressing affair occurred at the Court House last evening. An itinerant "loyal Democrat" from New Jersey named Jay, who is traveling through this section blowing the Abolition horn, was announced to speak his piece at that place, and great was the flourish of trumpets and the spread of handbills beforehand. Alas! the people didn't turn out; they don't bite any longer at the "loyal" greenback "Democratic" bait. The poor Jerseyman was compelled to harangue to empty seats. A dozen or two of the faithful attended the meeting and went through the form of listening; but it was a melancholy affair, reminding one of a coroner's jury holding an inquest on "one more unfortunate." In the audience and enthusiasm of the Abs. is evidently coming out of their finger ends and hope is dying out. But better die easy and quit kicking. Let them peg out gently, like the Republican party did, and then a happy public will pronounce over them the benediction, Requiescat in pace.

THE VOICE OF THE 84th.—The "Telegraph" announces our statement in regard to the vote of the 84th regiment P. V. to be a "wilful falsehood," upon the authority of a letter received in this city from Major Zinn, of that regiment. Our facts were derived from a letter from a member of the same regiment, (whose name, if we recollect rightly, was Oberly) addressed to some of his friends in Lebanon. The letter can be found at the office of the Lebanon Advertiser, and the writer is said to be a young man of truth. He says that 249 out of 300 votes were cast for Woodward, while Major Zinn says they were not. The public may choose between the two statements.—We made the statement upon the authority of Oberly's letter; and when the "Telegraph" man accuses us on such grounds of "wilful" falsification, he simply don't know what he is talking about.

COURT MARTIAL.—The court martial which was convened in this city some time ago is still in session. Captain Brayton, of the 10th U. S. Infantry, is Judge Advocate. The cases more recently before the court were those of Captain Lane, formerly commanding this post, and of Capt. Dodge, 8th U. S. Infantry. The accounts of the former which are said to be irregular and not satisfactorily adjusted, are probably the subject of investigation. Among the charges against the latter, we are informed, is one that he treated a rebel officer in one of the hospitals of this city, a former friend and acquaintance, with undue friendship and kindness. The court holds its sessions in a building in Strawberry alley, in the rear of the Buehler House.

DAW RICE'S CIRCUIS.—Daniel has come. He took the city yesterday, with scarcely any opposition. He met a reception worthy of a conqueror. His fame had gone before him and blown the trumpet, and his admirers flocked unto him at the sound thereof, filling all the seats in his spacious amphitheatre. Years have not told perceptibly upon Dan's ready wit and athletic attainments, and those who see and hear him readily recognize the genial humorist and gentleman of years ago. His success during the remainder of his stay may be set down as a foregone conclusion. He has pitched his tent on the lot near the Cotton Factory—not opposite the depot, as first advertised.
