GRAND DENOCRATIC RALLY!-There will be final rally of the Democracy of Harrisburg this evening, to be held at the West end of the market house. The best of speakers will be on hand. Let all the Democratic clubs and organizations turn cut en masse. Let us have one more rouser.

MEETING AT GRATE.-A large meeting of the Democracy was held at Gratz borough on Friday evening. Dr. Stroub presided. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Ferguson and Ewing, of this city. The meeting was a perfect success, and the most enthusiastic feeling prevailed.

DEMOCRATS OF THE FIRST WARD, RALLY ONCE More.-The whole Democracy of the First ward are requested to meet at the public house of Mrs. Erb this (Monday) evening, at 7 o'clock precisely. to march in procession to the Democratic mass meeting to be held at the West end of the market hense.

QUERY .- Coal went up to seven dellars per ton on Saturday. Is this an electioneering scheme, got up by Mr. Thomas (Chairman of the Union County Committee) and other coal speculators, in order to induce poor men to vete for the "Union" ticket? Better vote it, poor men, or they will put it up to $10.

THE LEAGUER'S RHYME. -- Here is a slight improvement on a nursery rhyme, suitable to be sung by the wet nurses of the Shoddy bantling :

Rockaby coony on the tree top, When the wind blows your chances will rock, When election day comes your curtain will fall, And down will come Andy and Agnew and all.

THE "Telegraph" says Mr. Thomas is "invulnerable." Considering the way in which he took advantage of the necessities of the public last year. compelling poor men to pay $5 instead of $3 per ton for coal, this would seem correct-at least, so far as his heart and conscience are concerned .-Of course, poor men will not forget to vote for the ticket this "invulnerable" man is engineering.

BEWARE OF ROORBACKS !- Democrate, beware of Abolition tricks and falsehoods. The desperation of the opposition has prompted them to circulate all manner of lies, spurious circulars and false reports on the eve of election. It is by such means only that they hope to win. The very fact that these lies are put out at this late hour is sufficient evidence of their lack of truth and the weakness of the Shoddy cause.

PEACE.—There is a peace that all parties should be in favor of. It is peace on election day. Let all good citizens do all in their power to promote it. Let every Democrat, while fearlessly exercising his privileges to-morrow and insisting on his rights, have at heart the preservation of good tem. per, calmness, law and order. Move with orderly and disciplined ranks to victory. It should be the aspiration of all Democrats that the splendid victory over which they will soon rejoice shall not be marred by any occurrence at the polls unbecoming American freemen.

THE "Telegraph" says the Chairman of their County Committee is "loyal." Just so. He left the place in which he had acquired the bulk of his fortune before the late raid, and forgot to come back until the danger was all over. That's genuine greenback loyalty for you. Of course, the brave men who protected his property, and who could scarcely be restrained from leaving the trenches and gutting this loyal man's house, will vote for the party which endorses that kind of "loyalty" and bravery. They may probably keep coal from going up higher by doing so,

COURT MARTIAL -In noticing the court martial now in session in this city, over which Captain Brayton presides, we stated that the cases more recently before the court were those of Captains Lane and Dodge, and that we had understood the accounts of the for ner were the subject of investigation. while the latter was charged with treating a rebel officer and former friend with undue kindness. These statements were made upon the authority of a person who spoke confidently of the facts and vouched for their accuracy. Captain Brayton subsequently informed us that our information was incorrect—that no such charges have been made against the officers named, nor have either of them been before the court.

MEETING AT BRIDGEPORT .- A large Democratic meeting was held on Saturday evening at the publie house of Mr. Shull, in our neighboring town of Bridgeport. The number in attendance was very large. A stand for the speakers was erected in front of the hotel, which was gracefully festooned with evergreen and decorated with banners and mottos. Excellent speeches were delivered by Hamilton Alricks, Esq., Mr. Harris, of York, and John S. Rhea, Esq., of Cambria county. A squad of rowdy Abolitionists congregated on the opposite side of the street and attempted to disturb the meeting, but, upon receiving intimations from certain Democrats that that kind of thing might prove decidedly unhealthy, they spiked their guns, sung small and retired from the field.

POCKET PICKED.—Our devil, who is somewhat of a sport and is not insensible to the pomp and allurements of this wicked world, went to see his friend Dan Rice "act up circus" on Saturday .--John was highly pleased with the performance, but his pleasure was in some degree marred by an unfortunate occurrence—his pocket was picked. In his right pocket he carried a circus ticket and in the left an assortment of Lucifer matches. The hand of the spoller reached the left pocket, and relieved the young son of Lucifer of the matches -his only stock and store. All of the "devil's" friends-and they are many-will denounce it as a scurvy act of rescality, paralleled only in meanness by that of the fellow who abstracted the postage stamps from the closed eptics of the defunct American citizen of African descent. John says he "don't know who could a done it, unless it was that feller in the 'Telegraph' that says the Chairman of the Shoddy Committee is loyal and honest, just because he makes everybody pay $7.00 for coal."

ASTOUNDING !-AN EDITOR ROBBED OF $300.-A most astounding occurrence is reported at Easton last week. Mr. L. W. Davis, editor of the Easton "Express," while absent from his office on Monday evening, had a small box, containing about $300 and valuable papers, stolen therefrom. The money is said to have been actual, real money, and to have certainly belonged to the editor. An editor with three hundred dollars! The proposition is startling; it don't bear the marks of probability on its face. We don't wish to be inquisitive, but pray tell us, brother Davis, how did you come by these $300? Until a satisfactory explanation is rendered, we must indulge a lurking devil of suspicion, or remain streng in the belief that your misfortune was a judgment sent upon you for your temerity in presuming to own $300 at one time. The money was taken by a boy employed in the office, who has since confessed the crime and designated the place where he had secreted the greenbacks. That boy will never thrive.

-We have just hit upon a fact which explains "how the milk got into the coconnut." It appears that Mr. Davis, like most other editors, was one of the "lacky cusses" who drow prizes in the late conscription. Hence the scraping together of the $300 for commutation purposes. So the astonishing circumstance of an editor having $300 in hand at one time is happily accounted for.

BIOGRAPHICAL.—An article appears in Saturday evening's "Telegraph" written in defence of the galiant and generous Chairman of the Dauphin County Union Committee." The whole performance is rich, and well calculated to excite risibility. The article bears ear marks of the boss scribbler and scavenger of that concern, who is known by the same name and belongs to the same breed as the "President's Dog," and is evidently his production. In the course of his remarks, he speaks of the "defaulters, gamblers, rues, &c., that distil their poison through the 'Tory Organ.' " This comes with a peculiar grace from a man who was fairly driven from a community in which he once resided on account of his low vices and his innate meanness, and compelled to seek his level in an establishment suited to his groveling instincts.-"Defaulters," indeed! Why, he ran away from any number of honest debts, and the whole county of Bradford abounds with evidence against him as a swindler. Many a poor but honest washerwoman now living there has cause to remember him with sorrow. Until he settles those little "unadjusted balances," we advise him to "sing small" about defaulters. And he cants about drunkards" too, this paragon of sobriety! He onght not to forget that he has again and again been taken from the gutter, and that his reputation as a drunkard can be as fully established as that of the "President's Dog." He has many a time laid upon the greensward of Bradford county and "listened to the grass growing."

In short, his whole life is an exemplar of base ingratitude, depravity and meanness. In the community in which he lived, before a cruel fortune tossed him among us, he commanded no respect; he had no friends and formed no tiesexcept upon compulsion. What a jewel of hypočřisy is he, to moralize and lecture his neighbors! He is just the man to champion a heartless adventurer who has grown rich on government patronage and the necessities of the poor. The character of such a man finds a worthy champion in the exile from Bradford county. He says, moreover, that when the proprietors of this paper wish to assail a good man, they "sneak into a corner of the local column." in order that they may, if convenient, "shuffle it off and lay it to the blame of some irresponsible scribbler." The article of which he complained was properly a local one, and was written by the local editor of this paper. The same is true of this one-so there need be no misunderstanding about the "responsibility." As to irresponsibility, we flatter ourselves that we are at least "responsible" for the bills of our washerwoman.

But we cannot pursue the subject farther. It grows rank and unpleasant the more it is stirred up. "Bah! an ounce of civet, good apothecary!"

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS FOR THE COUN-TY OF DAUPHIN.

The Democratic citizens of the county of Dauphin, and all others who are resolved to restore in all its integrity the Constitution of the United States, under whose protection every American citizen enjoyed as a birthright, protection of life and property, civil liberty, free thought, free speech and free action, who are opposed to extravagance, waste and corruption in the administration of the State and General Governments, and who desire the speedy re-establishment of the Union as it was, and the consequent return of our national prosperity, are requested to meet at the following places, to wit:

Harrisburg-At the West end of the Mark t House, at 7 o'clock, p. m., where a stand will be erected for the speakers.

Distinguished speakers will be in attendance at all of the above named meetings.

J. MONROE KREITER,

Ch'n County Committee. Wm. C. M'Fadden, Sec'y.

MEETING IN SUSQUEHANNA TOWNSHIP .- A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting came off at the village of Shelltown, in Susquehanna township, on Friday evening last. Henry Brightbill, Sr., presided. Messrs. Robert Reed and George Shoop were chosen Vice Presidents, and Henry Shapk and Frederick Shoop Secretaries. The meeting was first addressed by John A. Bigler, Esq., who made a stirring and convincing speech. He was followed by R. A. Lamberton, Esq., Hamilton Alricks, Esq., Hon. W. H. Miller and Cant. J. Wesley Awl, each of whom fully sustained his reputation as a canvasesr by delivering addresses full of eloquence and force. They were listened to with marked attention by the large audience assembled, and their convincing arguments fell like Greek fire in the camp of the Shoddyites. Look out for good news from Surquehanna.

THE DEAD ON GETTYSBURG BATTLE FIELD.-Mr. David Wills, agent for Pennsylvania, announces that the arrangements are nearly completed for the removal of the remains of the Union soldiers scattered over the Gettysburg battle field to the burial ground, which is being prepared by the several States interested, for their reception and proper burial.

All the dead will be disinterred and the remains placed in coffins and buried, and the graves of those marked or known will be carefully and permanently re-marked in this Soldiers' Cemetery.

If it is the intention of the friends of any deseased soldier to take his remains home for burial, they will confer a favor by immediately making known to Mr. Wills that intention.

After the bodies are removed to this Cemetery, it will be very desirable not to disarrange the order of the graves by any removals.

THE DRAFT OF LAST YEAR .- Capt. W. B. Lane, United States disbursing officer, for some time past stationed at Philadelphia, arrived in this city last week, under orders from the War Department to proceed to the various counties in the State for the purpose of settling and paying the expenses of the draft of 1862. This he will immediately proceed to do, his erders upon the subject being peremptory. This will be welcome news to the enrolling officers who were engaged in enforcing the draft last fall.

CAUTION TO OUR GRRHAN FRIENDS .- A certain Dutch musician is up in the upper part of the county slandering his own countrymen in this city, by representing them as unanimous for Curtin.-This miserable pliant tool of Harry Thomas is blowing a false trumpet. There is not a German in Harrisburg but will vote for Woodward and Lowrie. Our musical friend will play a woeful dirge on Wednesday morning next.

AROUSE FOR THE CONTEST !- Democrate, you are sure of a complete victory if you all turn out to the polls. Are you sure that your neighbor will be at the election? If not, make certain of it. Make it your especial business to see that not a sifigle Democratic vote remains at home to-mor-

AMOUNT OF COMMUTATION IN DAUPHIN COUNTY. The amount of commutation money paid by drafted men in this county amounts, we are reliably informed, to $92,400. This would indicate that 308 of those drawn have chosen that means of answering the requirements of the conscription law.

THE Continental Casino will positively re-open this evening, having for the past few days been closed for repairs. The "Revatone Troupe" will appear in conjunction with the Casino Troupel-The managers study to please, and those who go say they study to some purpose.

Fire.-Stewart's ice house, on Front street, between Walnut and Locust, was discovered to be on fire about ten o'clock on Saturday night. The engines were promptly on the ground, but owing to the straw and other combustible material in the house, the fire had got such headway that they were unable to save the building. There was no ice in the house. The fire was the work of an indiarv.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Acohoric Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the bena-ficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters. From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encycloped of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Pacent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper texte, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental rigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them
