A TEXT Award DE GRASSES .-- A colored preacher arose to announce his text, as follows: "In de fust pistol ob Clover, and two hundered and ninety-fust werse." "Hold up !" shouted one of his hearers, "You done got on de wrong book; you mean de pistol ob Timothy, I s'pose." The preacher hesitated a moment with a very profound look, and then said: "Well, I must cave in dis time; though I knowed dat de tex was some where 'mong de grasses."

A GREAT CURIOSITY .- On Saturday last, as one of the masons, at the West Harrisburg market house, was dressing one of the stones of which the building is being constructed, upon chipping off a block, he found a large petrified rattlesuake in the inside. The snake is in a most wenderful state of preservation. The scales are perfect, the back bone is clearly defined, and it is one of the most interesting specimen of petrefaction probably ever discovered. The gentlemanly superintendent of the work, Mr. Charles Swartz, has possession of the reptile at present.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.-Amanda Ditty, a young girl of abandoned character, was found dead on Sunday night in the hay loft of a stable belonging to Messrs. Bigler & Wilt, at the lewer end of town. Her death was at first attributed to foul means, but the coroner's jury found no evidence of violence, and rendered a verdict that she died from natural causes. The unfortunate weman was an orphan, was born in Lewisburg, and was brought to this place by a relative some time ago. Here she fell into abandoned habits and company, and thenceforth her path was inevitably downward, until at length she died the death of the entesst and the forsaken, and now sleeps in a pauper's grave. Her remains were buried in the | The contest was between Gen. Roumfort, Dem., poor house grave yard.

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-Andrew Boner, an hostler in the employ of Mr. B. Q. Peters, proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel, was arrested by officer Essig on Saturday, charged with assault and battery upon Frederick Weitmyer. Defendant entered bail for his appearance at Andrew Boner was also charged by Frederick Weitmyer with wantonly and cruelly beating a horse in Peter's stable on the same day. Mr. Peters became security for defendant's appearance at the next term of court.

The only occupant of the lock-up on Sunday night was John Boney, colored, arrested by officer Costello. He had a hearing yesterday morning, and was set at liberty.

OUR TIMES.—The poor man, to stifle the groans of hunger, takes a few dollars' worth of the necessaries of life, and an intelligent jury, with true instinct of humanity, consigns him to the damp vapors of a dungeon; the knave, under the garb of a "loyal" patriot and "the soldier's friend," steals thousands, and is not only safe but is honered. The triumphant villain is the lord-honesty is a "disloyal" and vulgar weakness, and virtue the thome of ribald jest. Robespierre has risen and reigns again, and his perjured host of Jacobins scoff at all law and mock a long-suffering people in their hour of agony and danger. Prudery has taken the place of modesty, braggadocio of bravery, and money of respectability. There is no god but Mammon, and Shoddy is his prophet. Shoddy aristocracy flourisheth like a green bay tree, and men bow delightedly to the greenback calf. God help us all. May the nation see its danger and do its whole duty, lest suddenly its "fear cometh as desolation and its destruction as a whirlwind."

A Teren Max .- The Abolitionists tell us that "Gov. Curtin is a tried man," but forget to complete the record-"and convicted." He stands convicted on the evidence of the Pittsburg "Gamite," the Blair County "Whig," the Pittsburg "Dispatch," the Philadelphia "Inquirer," General Cameron, Aleck Cummings, and a host of others of his political brethren. He stands convicted by his own record—convicted of robbing the State by signing away her revenues, of wronging the poor man by carrying in his pocket and refusing to sign the bill which provides for the payment of laborers in money instead of store orders, of permitting the State to be invaded by the enemy when the Constitution of the State fully provided for her speedy defence. The people will pass judgment upon this tried man, and it is highly probable that the sentence will be-banishment to the court of Spain until his health is restored, or else an indefinite exile to his old stamping ground in Centre

WAR AND DIAMONDS .- In times of war, wealth is heaped up in drifts like the snow in a storm, leaving great hollows of poverty between. Individuals secure contracts, and in a short space of time are on the list of millionaires. Most of these belong to what is known as the "shoddy aristogracy," and instantly plunge into all manner of vulgar displays and extravagances, riding in costly carriages and flashing in diamonds. The tendency of war to lead a nation into luxury is exemplified by a glance at the operations of the diamond market for the last two years. In 1861 the amount of precious stones entered at the New York custom house was but $46,513; in 1862 it was $188,821, while for the first quarter of the present year it has been $97,246—so that in the second year of the war the importation of diamonds increased four-fold on the previous year, and the third year bids fair to double on that. Of course, these figares do not represent half the amount of diamond. actually brought into this country, as the facilities are so great for smuggling such small and valuable packages that but a small portion of them pass through the custom house.

Expect Big News.—We may reasonably expect to-day a flood of tolegrams from all directions, manufactured for electionsering purposes. This was the programme last year. Look out for start. ling dispatches, announcing tremendous battles and Union victories. These will be circulated to inspire doubting hearts with confidence in the weak and wretched war policy of the administraton-s policy which depletes our armies for the Rike of carrying an election, thus endangering the very life of the nation. Expect all manner of sanards and absurd reports—such as that one we tes in a late "Telegraph," that the venerable Judge Wilkins and Judge Grier had declared for Cartin, when the lying writer knew that the former had by letter declared his adherence to Woodward and the Democratic cause, and that Judge Wilkins had written a letter to the Democratic meeting at Pittsburg in which he fully endorsed udge Woodward. Indeed, we need not be surwised to hear that paper report that the gallant Ser. McClellan, the "noblest Roman of them all," 285 come out for Curtin, and has joined hands with Stanton and the rest of his vile defamers. These stories will probably be spread broadcast 16-day. Of course, no man of sense will think of biting at such bait.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT .- The Democratic meeting in Market Square last night was a fitting conclusion of a well fought campaign. No larger or more enthusiastic meeting has assembled in this county during the year. Dr. A. Patterson presided, assisted by numerous Vice Presidents. The Democratic clubs of the various wards were on the ground in force. Herman Alricks, Esq., was the first to address the meeting, delivering a brief but pointed speech, which was attentively listened to and repeatedly applauded. He was followed by R. A. Lamberton, Esq., in one of his happiest efforts. Interesting as he is at all times, and justly celebrated as he is for eloquence and power in his appeals to the masses, on this occasion he surpassed himself, delivering perhaps the most powerful, eloquent and convincing speech that we have listened to during the campaign. He kept the attention of his hearers enchained throughout, and was repeatedly applauded to the echo. Mr. Lamberton was fellowed by Hon. Wm. H, Miller, who was fully equal to the occasion, prolonged applause. Other speakers followed, but we were compelled to come away at the conclusion of Mr. Miller's speech, and are therefore unable to report them. Certain it is that no such meeting as this assembled in Dauphin county last night, and certain it is that the Democrats never entered upon a day's work with stouter or more determined hearts than they do this morning.

THE "TELEGRAPH" A PROPHET!-The "Telegraph" professes great faith in the election of Cartin, indulging the pleasant illusion that the Shoddy party's professions of "loyalty" will shut the eyes of the people and save their candidate from defeat. It also bases many brilliant hopes of success upon the Abolition bombast about the "Soldier's Friend" and the vile slanders about Judge Woodwards "disloyalty." It now prophecies a fabulous majority for Curtin. It might be profitable at this time to refer back to some of its former prophecies, in order that we may determine what reliance may be placed in the "Telegraph's" vaticinations. We will take that paper of the 30th of March last, the day of our municipal election and John Till, Abolition. The far-seing writer

"Among all there is but one preference, and that points to John Till for the Mayoralty. The only question now is, as to the extent of Till's majority. The fact of his election was a foregone conclusion from the moment of his nemination by the people. Whether he shall have one or five hundred majority alone perplexes his friends. **
In our own mind, there never was a question as to the result, simply because the issue is between a loyal man and a sympathizer with treason. We have faith in the loyalty of the people of Hardburg. THAT LOYALTY WILL SECURE THE TRIUM PHANT ELECTION OF JOHN TILL."

That's just the way the "Telegraph" talks now. Gen. Roumfort was triumphantly elected. We merely reproduce its prophecy of last spring in order that a proper estimate may be placed upon those it now makes.

A LAST APPEAL.—In behalf of the energetic "Chairman of the Union County Committee," who has done so much in the coal line in this community, and who is recommended as a "generous" man even by such truthful and unselfish authority as the "Telegraph," (whose editor himself gave liberally of his substance-namely, $1-to the fund to provide an entertainment for the 127th regiment.) we would appeal to all poor men to vote Thomas' "Union" ticket from top to bottom. It will encourage the long-legged "government" at Washington, and may also have a beneficial effect upon the coal trade. By endorsing the speculatorin-chief, it would inspire him with fresh confidence and energy, and perhaps might result in stifing up the price of coal. All poor I have enjoyed the privilege of paying the extra coal tax of fifty per cent., and who desire in some degree to repay this "generous" man for the privilege bestowed, can best do so by voting the ticket which he engineers. It would be a tribute to his "energy." Unless poor men are blind to the debt they owe "our energetic and generous" Abolition Chairman, and "can't see it." they will not dare to set up a judgment contrary to that of the infallible "Telegraph," and vote for Woodward. Better "proceed the entire swinc"—long-legged "government," coal speculator, shoddy, niggers and all!

FIREMENS' TOURNAMENT AT DETROIT .- At the great firemen's tournament, which was held at Detroit last week, the prize for distance thrown was carried off by the "Neptune" company, of Pittsburg, Pa. The distance thrown by the Neptune was 221.4 feet. Among the competitors were engines from Toledo, Buffalo, and London, C. W. Everything during the two days' tournament passed off very agreeably, and the best of harmony prevailed.

The following is a list of the prizes awarded: First prize, for greatest distance, to Neptune company, of Pittaburg, $100; second prize, Eagle Hose, Buffalo; first class band engine, No. 3, of Toledo, $150; accord class, Phoenix, Loudon, $100; third class, No. 2, of Monroe, $100; for speed, Hose Company No. 2, of Buffalo, $75; champion banner to Torrent No. 1, of Port Huron.

EVERY DRAFTED Man should remember that the Disunion Abolition party are responsible for the draft. They made it necessary by their imbecile and bull-beaded mismanagement of the war, diverting it from its original purpose-that of restoring the Union-and perverting it to wretched and nonsensical partisan uses. Remember, it was not until they basely removed General McClellan from the army that loved him, and then proclaimed emancipation and a nigger war, that they drove the fighting men from enlisting, and were forced to draft. They discouraged enlistments, perverted the war, made the draft necessary, and now have the hardihood to ask your support. Drafted men, will you give it? They have their bleody hands on the throat of the nation-and they have your money. Will you vote for the murderers of your country, the robbers of your money?

ACCEPTS.—Hon. Edward Everett has notified the proper committee of his acceptance of the invitation to deliver an oration at the forthcoming consecration of the National Cemetery on the Gettysburg battle field.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, corting from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disquised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Acoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reacting why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others. in the hope take he may thus centribute to the sensition of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofand's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Bobert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not falt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
