Weekly "Patriot & Union," THE CHEAPEST PAPER PUBLISHED IN PENNSYLVANIA!

THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER PUBLISHED AT THE GREAT OF GOVERNMENT!

FORTY-FOUR COLUMNS OF READING MATTER EACH WEEK!

AT THE LOW PRICE OF ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS!

SUBSCRIBED FOR IN CLUBS OF NOT LESS THAN TEN COPIES TO ONE ADDRESS!

We have been compelled to raise the club subscription price to one dollar and fifty cents in order to save ourselves from actual loss.

When we tell our Democratic friends, candidly, that we can no longer afford to sell the Weekly Patriot and Union at one dollar a year, and must add fifty cents or stop the publication, we trust they will appreciate our position, and, instead of withdrawing their subscriptions, go to work with us to increase our list in every county in the State.

We have endeavored, and shall continue our efforts, to make the paper useful as a party organ, and welcome as a news messenger to every family. We flatter ourselves that it has not been without some influence in producing the glorious revolution in the politics of the State achieved at the late election; and if feebleness in the discharge of duty, fidelity to the principles of the party, and an anxious desire to promote its interests, with some experience and a moderate degree of ability, can be made serviceable hereafter, the Weekly Patriot and Union will not be less useful to the party or less welcome to the family circle in the future than it has been in the past.

We confidently look for increased encouragement in this great enterprise, and appeal to every influential Democrat in the State to lend us his aid in running our subscription list up to twenty or thirty thousand. The expense to each individual is trifling, the benefit to the party may be great. Believing that the Democracy of the State feel the necessity of sustaining a fearless central organ, we make every effort to secure for assistance with the fullest confidence of success.

The same reasons which induce us to raise the price of the Weekly, operate in regard to the Daily paper, the price of which is also increased. The additional cost to each subscriber will be but trifling; and, while we cannot persuade ourselves that the change necessarily made will result in any diminution of our daily circulation, yet, were we certain that such would be the consequence, we should still be compelled to make it, or suffer a ruinous loss. Under these circumstances we must throw ourselves upon the generosity, or, rather, the justice of the public, and abide their verdict, whatever it may be.

Let us hear from you. The existing war, and the approaching sessions of Congress and the State Legislature, are invested with unusual interest, and every man should have the news.

TERMS. DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION. Single copy for one year, in advance, $5.00 Single copy during the session of the Legislature, 2.00 Copies sent to agents at the rate of $1.50 per hundred.

WEEKLY PATRIOT AND UNION. Published every Thursday. Single copy on one address, in advance, $5.00 Subscriptions may commence at any time. PAY ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. We are obliged to make this imperative. In every instance cash must accompany subscription. Any person sending us a club of twenty subscribers to the Weekly will be entitled to a copy for his services. The price, even at the advanced rate is so low that we cannot offer greater inducements than this. Additions may be made at any time to a club of subscribers by remitting one dollar and fifty cents for each additional name. It is not necessary to send the names of those constituting a club, as we cannot undertake to address each paper to club subscribers separately. Specimen copies of the Weekly will be sent to all who desire it.

O. BARRETT & CO., Harrisburg, Pa. F. B.—The following Law, passed by Congress in 1860, defines the duty of Postmasters in relation to the delivery of newspapers to club subscribers: (See Letters, Brown & Co.'s edition of the Laws of 1860, page 88, chapter 151, section 1.)

"Provided, however, that where packages of new papers or periodicals are received at any post office directed to a club subscriber, the names of the subscribers to which they belong, with the postage for a quarter in advance, shall be handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver the same to their respective owners."

"It will be necessary that be furnished with the list of names composing the club, and paid a quarter's (or year's) postage in advance. The uniform courtesy of Postmasters, affords the assurance that they will cheerfully accommodate club subscribers, and the latter should take care that the postage, which is but a trifle each case, be paid in advance. Send on the clubs."

DOGS THE TYPE OF MEN.

"The laws of Nature make the whole world kin." Analogy is one of the most prominent principles in creation. Everything is a type of something else; everything represents and forecasts its next highest link.

Man is the great obvious prototype of all the animals. The character of every animal represents one particular passion; the character of every man gathers up and compounds in itself all the passions. And whatever animals approach nearest to this faculty of comprehension—this power of variety—are, of course, the nearest type of men; the further off, the more remarked their individuality.

All tigers are fierce, all lions are brave, all foxes are cunning, and "the rage of the vulture, the love of the turtle," are proverbial. Each possesses his individual quality; the only difference in quantity—more or less.

Now what is the distinguishing trait of dogs? "Why," you say, "according to the species." Exactly so, and there are varieties enough of the species to express all the qualities of a man.

Within the range of this one class of animals are comprehended the elements of all the good and all the evil, all the love and all the hatred, that ever soothed the sorrows or shook the soul of humanity.

There are plenty of reasons why this type should be considered the proximate link of the variety of his species, the sagacity of his instincts, his capacity and education, his exemption, as a rule, from servile labor. He is to be the friend, the companion, the assistant, the confidential servant of his master. Directly you degrade him to the rank of a slave, you blunt his energies and coarsen his nature. Dogs reason considerably; their instincts amount to a low degree of intellect.

The different sorts of dogs represent the different sorts of men; and the physique corresponds as well as the character. Look at the bull-dog. His strong shoulders, his great head, his enormous jaws match well with his dogged resolution, his stern, cold, implacable bravery. There is no dash or gallantry about him; he simply goes at his work the shortest way, and does it. Amongst men, you can find this sort in Yorkshire, in Lancashire, in Cornwall, and there are plenty of them among the "bonnie Scots." Whenever you see a man of hard features, prominently developed, and powerful lower jaw, you may know for certain that he is a man, not of high resolve, but of stern resolution. He will calculate chances coolly and fearlessly, he will spring to the fray with all the pluck possible to humanity; in fine, he is akin to the bull-dog.

Then comes the greyhound, a thin elegant creature, but he dashes swiftly on his prey, and bites hard; very like those light cavalry fellows, who rode down upon the Russian guns at Balaclava; very like the gallant line who scaled the highest of the Alps.

The great, large, lumbering Newfoundland finds his human development in a class of negative men, whose pursuits are active, but whose physical, not sensual men, by any means—men who are addicted to field sports and muscular exertion, though, perhaps, of indolent minds—large, heavy, thick headed, good-natured, happy-go-lucky beings. Well, these are the Newfoundlanders.

The water spaniel image the Jack Tar, with his ready usefulness, and his generous, impulsive nature. The terriers are a numerous class; so are the commercial men. Both are restless, bustling
