MEETING OF RETURN JUDGES .- The return judges of Bauphin county will meet at the Court House to-day, which will enable us to give the official vote for the county in our next issue. The official returns of all the counties in the State will be brought in to-day.

COUSTERFEIT TREASURY NOTES .--- A Washington letter says that a large amount of counterfeit Treasury notes, of denominations ranging from one to twenty dollars, are in circulation there. It is said they were manufactured in Pennsylvania. The detectives there have the matter in hand.

FELLINTO A WELL .-- On Monday last a little son of Christian Sinn, of Manor township, Lancaster county, accidentally fell into a well forty-three foot doop, striking on his head, fracturing his skull, causing instant death. The well was in an unfinished condition, and was dry at the bottom.

Esvious RASCAL.-Some envious rascal, writing in a New York paper, says he "thinks the 'popular divines' are to be envied. Ten thousand a year and the tour of Europe, free of expense, are not bad to take. The apostles had no such pickings." How are you, Beecher?

MATCHES IN THE POCKST .-- Among recent instances showing the danger of carrying lucifer matches loose about the person, is that of a night watchman in Jersey City, who laid down to sleep a few nights ago with a parcel of matches in his pocket. While asleep the matches became ignited, and the watchman was so badly burned that he died the following day.

JUVENILE AFFBAY.-A quarrel occurred on the afternoon of election day between a couple of boys in Lancaster, which ended in a rough-andtumble fight. During the fight, a pistol belonging to one of the belligerents accidentally exploded, shooting his opponent, named Calvin Swander, in the left hand, inflicting a serious wound. The boy

SPORTING THE WRONG ATTIRE .--- A young man (?) of vivacious manners and ready address, wearing a rather genteel suit of black casimeres, has been dashing about town for two or three days, making himself generally agreeable in bar-rooms and restaurants. Yesterday while treating a few casual acquaintances to a "smile" at Ryan's tavern, in State street, he was closely observed by officer Costello, who happened to be present, and his observations led to a suspicion of the sex of the individual. He noticed, on closer inspection, that the hair of the person suspected was not cut off but was parted behind and adroitly puffed, and carried beneath the collar, in such a manner as to present the appearance of having been cut straight around. This, with certain feminine peculiarities in feature, voice and manner, led to a subsequent arrest. When taken before the Alderman, she frankly confessed her sex, but gave no reason for the deception she had been practicing. Being somewhat the worse for the gay time she had been having, it was deemed best to commit her to the logic-up for a further hearing. We called there to see her in the afternoon, but she refused to give her name or state any facts in connection with her adventure.

This makes the third case of this nature which has been brought to light in this city within the past three months.

EXPAND THE CHEST .--- Those in easy circumstanes, or those who pursue sedentary or indcor employment, use their lungs but little, breathe but little air into the chest, and thus contract a small chest and lay the foundation for loss of health and beauty. All this can be perfectly obviated by a little attention to the manner of breathing. A medical writer says : "Recollect that the lungs are like a bladder in the construction, open to double their seize with perfect safety, giving a noble chest and perfect immunity from consumption. The agent, and the only agent we require, is the common air we breathe-supposing, however, that no obstacle exists, external to the chest, such as tying it round with stays, or having the shoulders lying upon it. On arising from your bed in the morning, place yourself in an erect position, the shoulders thrown off the chest; now inhale all the air you can, so that no more can be got in ; now hold your breath and throw your arms off behind, holding your breath as long as possible. Repeat these long breaths as much as you please. Done in a cold room is much better, because the air is much denser and will act more powerfully in expanding the chest. Exercising the chest on this manner will enlarge the capability and size of the langs."

Police Appairs.-Before Alderman Kline.-Ahasuerus Murrill, charged with stealing a pair of boots at the Buchler House, where he had been employed for a few days, was arrested by officer Campbell. Anasuerus was committed for a further hearing.

John Boney, a "cullud gemman" who has been extensively before the public in the character of an immoderate absorber of the ardent, passing sundry nights in the lock-up during the past season, turned up in a new character yesterday, and made his debut as a vagrant. He was assisted in playing that role by officer Essig, who escorted him before the magistrate, by whom he was committed for a term of twenty days.

Messrs. Patrick Finnegan, Lawrence Welsh and John M'Collum, hailing from the ancient borough of Middletown, were arrested on Wednesday night for drunkenness, by officers Costello and Kane .----After passing the night in the lock-up, they were discharged from custody.

John Martin, also highly charged with "Greek fire," was stowed in the same institution by officer Callender, probably with a view to avaid accidents. Discharged yesterday morning.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT SECRET .-- It is admitted by all physicians that the grand secret of health and long life lies in keeping the blood and various fluids of the body in a high degree of fluidity. When you feel continued pain in the head or bowels, or any continued uneasiness in any organ or other parts of the bedy, you can prevent serious sickness by taking BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Bleeding may give momentary ease, because the blood left will have more room. But as the body is made from the blood and sustained by the blood, to waste our blood is to waste our life and ruin our constitution. But Brandreth's Pills relieve the circulation as readily as bleeding by only taking away what it can well spare, and THEY NEVER BURT.

Mrs. Hooper, of Barnstable. Mass., was cured of St. Vitus Dance, General Debility, poorness of blood and costiveness of many years standing, by Brandreth's Pills. The case at length is published in the Pamphlets.

was taken to a physician, who found it necessary to amputate one of the fingers. Fast place, that "inland city." Their future politicians go into training young.

CANADA INVADED .- A deserter ran across the suspension bridge at Lewiston, New York, a few days since, closely pursued by a guard. They followed him into Queenstown, on the Canada side, and fired at him, without effect, whereupon they were arrested by the Canadian authorities and put in jail. A well known citizen went to their relief and interceded for them, and after making due apologies, the soldiers were released. The Camucks were very indignant at this invasion of Her Majesty's dominions by Yankes soldiers.

RETURN OF GRN. SCHENCK .--- The public will be pleased to learn that Major General Schenck, after several weeks absence on an electioneering tour in Ohio, during which he addressed divers Union meetings and Loyal Leagues, returned to Baltimore, the headquarters of the Middle Department, on Saturday, and has resumed his command ; also, that he returns in good health. The country will, by his permission, breathe free once more, now that the hero of Vienna has returned from his successful railroad reconnoissance into Ohio and resumed sway over the conduct and destinies of the Monumental City.

REBEL DESERTERS .- Two deserters from Moseby's rebel cavalry arrived at this place yesterday. They left him at Harper's Ferry, crossed the rive, and made their way down the Cumberland valley. They report that on Tuesday last Moseby, (who, by the way, has been killed frequently, but is now alive again-some say with one leg, others with two,) with about three hundred men, dashed into Harper's Ferry, but inflicted no great damage. From this affair probably originated the report which prevailed in town a day or two ago that Lee's army had appeared at Harper's Ferry, on the advance northward.

PROF. LEE'S KXHIBITION .- Brant's hall was well attended last night by persons eager to witness Prof. Lee's entertaining and humorous exhibition of the singular effects and properties of "laughing gas," together with the wonderful performances of Prof. Haller, the renowned magician. All present who could enjoy fun and marvel seemed satisfied. Persons suffering with low spirits, despendency, or the effects of the late election, should be on hand to-night. For ourselves, we confess that we had an attack of election returns in a mild form, approximating the first stages of the "hypos," but found great relief at Brant's Hall. We even so far forget surselves as to laugh audibly, notwithstanding the country had gone to the dogs.

VICTIMIZED .- About two o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Israel Shambrook, of Cumberland county, was relieved at the depot of his pocket book, containing one hundred and sixteen dollars. He was about getting aboard the Baltimore train, and, finding himself surrounded by a crowd, he put his hand on his pocket to make sure that his money was safe. Great was his astonishment to find that it had taken French leave, through the instrumentality of some of the light-fingered gentry,

It is clear that a large force of the prestidigitating fraternity is lurking about town. It is impossible to rid the community of these thieves. Certainly no blame can attach to the police for their presence among us, as their operations are of a nature so adroit and secret, as to defy detection. They operate chiefly after dark, and it behooves all night travelers to keep a sharp watch upon their pockets. That is the most effectual check upen pocket picking.

JUST RECEIVED .- Calicos at 16, 18 and 20 ets. ; muslins, 18, 20 and 25 cents; a large lot of flannels, at all prices; gloves and hose for ladies and children ; large assortment of hoop skirts and balmorals, shawls and cloaks, plain and plaid dress goods, cashmeres and cloth, to be sold very cheap. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Pat-ent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingre-dients and effects. in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this eity, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiedy an alcoholis mix-ture. I am indebted to my friend, Bobert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when anflaring from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had net folt for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for di recting me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN. Philadelphis, June 23, 1861.

Attention, Soldiers!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bit-ters" will cure nine-tenths of the disease induced by ex-posures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofand's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise wend be lost. The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and bospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
