A PERTINENT QUESTION .--- Some fifteen years ago last Christmas, a few fast boys hired horses from a livery stable in the town of G, and determined to have a good time generally. One of the horses never recovered from the effects of the drive, and the livery-man sued the rider fos the value of him. The lawyer of the plaintiff was an ex-judge. He was agood lawyer but fond of his toddy. He was trying to prove by one of the witnesses that all hands were drunk, and commenced by asking him:

"Where did you stop first after leaving the livery stable ?"

"At Mike N ----- 's."

"Did you take a horn there?" asked the judge.

"Yes."

"Where did you stop next ?"

- " at the Gardens..'
- "Did you take a horn there ?"

" Yes."

- "Where did you stop next ?" "At the Four-mile House."
- "Did you take a horn there ?"
- By this time the witness began to smell a rat.

"Horn !" said he: "I want to know what the h-la horn has to do with this case? I suppose because you are a drinking kind of a fellow yourself, you think that everybody else is drunk."

You ought to have heard the explosion which shook the court-room. The ex-judge did not ask the witness any more questions.

THE GENEBAL AND THE CONSCRIPT .--- A letter from the Army of the Potomac says : "That Gen. Warren is the man to make good soldiers is indisputable, and that he commands a gallant corps is undeniable. The following inci-dent is characteristic. When falling back du-ring the night after the fight at Bristow, he saw a conscript straggling along, apparently without any weapon. "To what corps do you belong ?" asked Gen. Warren. "Second corps," replied the man with a strong nasal twang, denoting his recent departure from the Eastern States, "What are you doing here without a gun?" demanded the General. The man gave an evasive reply, indicating that that was his own business. "What have you got under your coat there ?" inquired Gen. Warren. "A gun, you d-d fool!" returned the conscript, partly revealing a gun beneath the folds of his ample coat. "There's no discount on that man," remarked Gen. Warren to an aid, and passed on. Should this meet the the brave fellow's eye, he will learn that he addressed his complimentary response to Gen. Warren, and will wonder, perhaps, why he was not punished.

NOVEL MODE OF PICKLING PEACHES .- Some four or five weeks since, H. S. Gibbons, Esq., of this village, threw about two pails full of strong brine, taken from his pork barrel, upon some horse radish, growing beneath a fine peach tree in his garden, with the intention of lestroying the obnoxicus plant. The brine was poured upon the ground within about three feet of the stem of the peach tree, which soon began to exhibit signs of injury from the brine. The leaves began to fade and shrivel, and finally fell from the tree entirely, while the peaches, of which the tree contained about a peck, adhered to the branches, and matured and ripened as usual, with the exception of failing to reach the full size. Upon tasting them, however, they are found to be combattle field. Of course no one expects that this will be the last of this kind of sham patriotism; but, considering the claims for extra loyalty put forth by the "Loyal Leaguers," the people had a right to expect very different results. This failure to come up to the standard of true patriotism, demanded by the exigencies of the times, is still more manifest, since the members of the Loyal Leagues would have an opportunity to register their votes, before shouldering their muskets; as it would not be necessary for them to enter the army

. Another feature of the Convention, was the secresy that characterized the proceedings. The afternoon session of several hours' duration, was private. This course, to say the least of it, is equally un-American and anti-Republican. It indicates on the face of it, designs and purposes that were regarded by the managers, as unfit to see the light of day in the present temper of the public mind. It is a revival of the most hateful and odious feature of Know-Nothingism, which we, in common with all good citizens, hoped had been exploded for ever in this country. It taints with suspicion the Union ticket which the Convention endorsed in open meeting, and the Union candidates owe it to themselves and the people not to be found in complicity with the managers of this secret conclave. Otherwise their election may be imperilled; for it cannot be anticipated that the people of this great State can endorse a party-no matter under what name-

ADVANTAGES OF BORAX. - The washerwomen of Holland and Belguim, who get up their linen so beautifully white, use refined borax as washing powder, instead of soda, in the proportion of one large handful of borax powder to about ten gallons of boiling water .--They thus save in soap nearly half. All the washing establishments adopt the same mode. For laces, cambrics, &c., an extra quantity of the powder is used, and for crinolines (requitheir senses until the ruin is complete. The ring to be made stiff,) a strong solution is necessary. Borax being a neutral salt, does not better. Let us give the usurpers the power | in the slightest degree injure the texture of the linen; its effect is to soften the hardest water, and therefore it should be kept on every toilet table. To the tase it is rather sweet ; it is used for cleansing the hair ; it is an excellent dentrifrice, and in hot countries is employed in combination with tartaric acid and bicarbonate of soda as a cooling beverage. Good tea cannot be made with hard water ; but water may be made soft by adding a teaspoonful of borax powder to an ordinary sized kettle of water, in which it should boil. The saving in the quantity of tea used will be at least one-fifth.

OUR TIMES .- The poor man, to stifle the groans of hunger, takes a few dollars worth of the necessaries of life, and an intelligent jury, with true instinct of humanity, consigns him to the damp vapors of a dungeon ; the knave, under the garb of a "loyal" patriot and the "soldier's friend," steals thousands, and is not only safe, but is honored. The triumphant villain is the lord-honesty is a #disloyal" and vulgar weakness, and virtue the theme of ribald jest. Robespierre has risen and reigns again, and his perjured hosts of Jacobins scoff at all law and mock a long suffering people in their hour of agony and danger. Prudery has taken the place of modesty, braggadocio of bravery, and money of respectability. There is no god but Mammon, and Shoddy is his prophet. Shoddy aristocracy flourisheth like green bay tree, and men bow delightfully to the greenback calf. God help us all. May the nation see its danger and do its whole duty, lest suddenly its "fear cometh as a desolation and its destruction as a whirlwind."

Did I ever tell you, among the affecting little things one is always seeing in these stirring war times, how I saw on the Bull Run battle field, pretty, pure, delicate flowers growing out of the emptied ammunition boxes, a rose thrusting up its graceful head through the head of a Union drum, which doubtless sounded its last charge (or retreat, as the case may have been,) in the battle, and a cunning scarlet verbena peeping out of a fragment of bursted shell, in which strange cup it had been planted ? Wasn't that peace growing out of war? Even so shall the graceful and beautiful ever grow out of the horrid and terrible things that transpire in this changing but ever advancing world. Nature covers even battle grounds with verdure and bloom. Peace and plenty soon spring up in the track of devastating campaigns, and all things in nature and society shall work out the progress of mankind and harmony of God's great designs.

THE QUOTAS OF THE STATES .- The quotas of the several States under the President's proclamation calling for 300,000 volunteers have been prepared, and will without delay be forwarded to the respective Governors.
