The Patriot & Union. FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 30, 1863. THE CROPS OF 1862 AND 1863.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, 1863.—The following is a summary statement of the amount of the crops of 1862 and 1863, both summer and fall, of the loyal States, as returned to and estimated by the Agricultural Department, and furnished to the press generally by the Commissioner of Agriculture, in advance of his monthly report for September:

The answers returned to the circulars for September of the Agricultural Department, asking information of the condition of the crops, are given in tenths, above or below the crop of 1862. During the summer the Department made an estimate of the amount of the crops of 1862. This estimate was based on the census returns of 1860. As the crop of 1859, which was taken by the census, was below an average, and that of 1862, much above it, allowance was made for this difference, varying in its amount according as the agriculture of each State required. The general per cent increase of each State was added. One-fourth of the amount given in the census was struck off for the returns for Missouri and Kentucky, on account of the war. Thus calculated, the crops of 1862 were made the basis for estimating those of 1863, according to the tenths, increase or decrease, of each State, as reported by the correspondents of the Department.

The summer crops of wheat, rye, barley and oats, for 1862 and 1863, are as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Crop, 1862, 1863, Increase/Decrease. Wheat: 191,968,239 (1862) vs 173,354,544 (1863) - 18,613,695. Rye: 1,074,739 (1862) vs 1,020,967 (1863) - 53,772. Barley: 16,724,374 (1862) vs 17,195,233 (1863) + 470,859. Oats: 174,858,137 (1862) vs 162,920,967 (1863) - 11,937,170.

The fall crops of corn, buckwheat, and potatoes for 1862 and 1863 are as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Crop, 1862, 1863, Increase/Decrease. Total 1862: 119,833,133 (1862) vs 119,833,133 (1863). Corn: 119,833,133 (1862) vs 119,833,133 (1863). Buckwheat: 119,833,133 (1862) vs 119,833,133 (1863). Potatoes: 119,833,133 (1862) vs 119,833,133 (1863).

The monthly report of the Department in September shows that the amount of wheat and flour exported to all countries, in the year ending September 1st, 1863, is 40,686,308 bushels, and of corn, 11,686,343 bushels. The domestic consumption, then is as follows:

Domestic consumption of wheat, 186,993,298 bushels; of corn, 186,993,298 bushels. The exports of domestic consumption exhibit the relative magnitude of the foreign and domestic markets.

The report examines the probable foreign demand for breadstuffs during 1864, and shows that the principal portion of our exports of breadstuffs are purchased in the English markets; that the average annual importations of all grains with Great Britain and Ireland are 94,278,949 American bushels, and in 1860 the importation was 125,386,434 American bushels; and in 1861, 142,529,106 American bushels; that it was as great in 1862, but not so large in 1863; that from the present condition of the crops in England, the demand for 1864 would return to the general average; rather than to the great amount since 1859; that the demand for 1860 would be at least equal to that for 1863, and that the condition of the currency would remain as favorable as it now is; that hence the amounts of wheat and corn for 1864 would be as follows:

Who is it that desires to prolong the war beyond the hour when the insurgent people, and the rebel States, offer to strike the flag of the rebellion, and come in under the old standard of the Union? The answer is, the Republican leaders who profit by the war. They, and they only!—Albany Argus.

REPUBLICANS HAVE BROUGHT UPON US CIVIL WAR.—Douglas said so; Pugh said so; Crittenden said so; Everett said so. They would not compromise, but were in favor of bloodletting. Chandler says so; Brough says so; Wade says so—all say so. They are not in favor of the Union as it was.

Butler says so; Greeley says so; the Chicago Tribune says "it is a thing of the past, hated by every patriot, and destined never to blot the page of history again;" Bingham says it is a scandal, and Stevens says "God forbid it." They spit upon "the Constitution as it is."

Webster said it was all he asked for, while Beecher calls it a "sheepskin parchment," and Garrison "a league with death."

Beecher and Garrison, and Stevens, and Greeley, and the Chicago Tribune all support the administration.—Dubuque Herald.

HEAR WHAT ANDREW JOHNSON SAYS.—Andy, Johnson, the military Governor appointed by President Lincoln for Tennessee, bears witness as to the policy of the administration, party as follows: "There are two parties in existence who want dissolution. Slavery and a Southern Confederacy is the hobby. Sumner wants to break up the government, and so do the Abolitionists generally. They hold that if slavery survives, the Union cannot exist. Secessionists argue that if the Union continues, slavery is lost. Abolitionists want no compromise; but they regard peaceable secession as a humbug. The two occupy the same ground. Why? Abolition is dissolution: dissolution is secession: one is the other.—Both are striving to accomplish the same object. One thing it will destroy, the other save, slavery."

THE DRAFT OF MEN AND MONEY.—The whole number of fighting men called for (by the President since the beginning of the war) is as follows: First Call..... 75,000 Second Call..... 600,000 Third Call..... 800,000 Fourth Call..... 800,000 Fifth Call..... 800,000 Sixth Call..... 800,000 Total..... 1,775,000

The totals have all been honored; and will be so long as the country calls. The call for money has rolled up a debt of $3,000,000,000, all of which is not yet funded; and which is aggregating at accelerated motion.

ENORMOUS MAIL.—Postmaster Lindley informs us that on yesterday morning over forty thousand letters were sent north from this office. We challenge the postoffice of London, St. Petersburg, Constantinople or Timbuctoo to surpass this. One may well suppose that the position of a clerk in the Nashville post office is by no means a sinecure.—Nashville Union, 14th.
