VOL. 6.—NO. 52. HARRISBURG, PA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1863. PRICE TWO CENTS.

SPEECH OF GOVERNOR HORATIO SEYMOUR, AT BUFFALO.

Correspondence of the N. Y. World. Buffalo, Monday Evening, Oct. 26. The Democrats of Buffalo, to the number of over six thousand, assembled at and around St. James Hall this evening, filling the hall to the number of two thousand and five hundred, and overflowing into two large meetings in the street to the number of three or four thousand.

Gov. Seymour was introduced amid continued and tremendous cheering. And when, after about five minutes, it finally stilled, somebody was yet unsatisfied, and called for "Three cheers for Governor Seymour," which were given, and more too. Governor Seymour spoke as follows:

I sincerely regret that Governor Bramlette is not here to-night to speak to you. I wished you to learn from the lips of a patriot of Kentucky that the language of those who love and mean to uphold the Constitution, and intend to preserve the Union, is alike uttered by men from the North or the South, from the East or the West. You would have found that that distinguished man, who lives in a community particularly affected by the war in which we are engaged, and who has stood up with others against the tide of secession, was in full accord and sympathy with us who meet here to-night to utter words which we hope may be calculated to preserve that Union of our land which we have so much at heart.

Let me call your attention to the history of this war. When it began, by the unanimous vote of Congress, representing all parties, it was solemnly declared that the object of this contest was to put down resistance to the laws, to maintain the dominion of the Constitution over the whole country, and to restore the Union of our fathers. At that time there was no division of sentiment in the North. All gave their contributions of men and money, and for a time the voice of party seemed to be hushed. But a little while after that we were again divided, and that was a serious matter.

MAN DARE SAY THAT THE CONTRIBUTIONS THAT NEW YORK SENT AT THAT TIME DID NOT STRENGTHEN THE HEARTS OF OUR ARMY, AND DID NOT TURN THE TIDE OF BATTLE IN FAVOR OF THE OLD FLAG? SINCE THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY LAST WE HAVE RAISED MORE THAN SIXTEEN THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS. IF YOU WILL ADD THE NUMBER THAT WE SENT IN RESPONSE TO THE CALL FOR THIRTY DAYS—AND THERE ARE TIMES WHEN THIRTY DAYS ARE MORE THAN MANY YEARS—THERE ARE TIMES WHEN MEN ARE SENT INTO THE BATTLE-FIELD AT THE VERY MOMENT WHEN THEIR SERVICES COULD NOT BE REPLACED BY A YEAR'S AFTER WORK. IF WE ADD THE NUMBER SENT IN RESPONSE TO THAT CALL, WE HAVE SENT, SINCE THE FIRST OF JANUARY, MORE THAN THIRTY-FOUR THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS TO THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY.
