

Old Sapper in the Field!

NEW HAT & CAP STORE
Hiram B. Yeager,

Takes this method to inform his old friends and the public in general, that he has taken a room in the new three story brick building, of Mr. Daniel Keiper, in Hamilton street, in the Borough of Allentown, a few doors west of Weiss's Watch and Jewelry Store, where he has opened the new

PHILADELPHIA HAT STORE.

He has just received, a very large assortment of

Beaver, Castor, and other Fur Hats, ALSO, a beautiful assortment of fashionable Silk Hats, Caps, &c., of all sizes, prices and qualities.

He flatters himself to say that he will stand good for his Hats, that they will not only retain the color but that they cannot in point of durability be excelled.

Mr. Yeager trusts that through punctual attendance to his business, and reasonable prices, he will be able to obtain a liberal share of patronage, for which he will ever be thankful.

New Mercantile Firm.

Respectfully inform their friends and the public in general, that they have opened their new establishment, in the new brick building, one door next to Dr. Danowsky's Apothecary and Drug Store, in Hamilton street, in the Borough of Allentown, where they are now unpacking a very large assortment of

DRY GOODS,

Groceries,

and Earthenware, all of which they will dispose of at the very lowest prices or exchange them for country produce.

They will sell all kinds of woolen Clothes, at least $1 cheaper per yard, than before. Satinets, 25 cents, Calicoes 3 cents per yard, white red and yellow Flannels, 12 cents per yard, handsome fine Gingham and Muslin de Laines at 12 cents per yard, other goods comparatively cheap.

They have both been in the mercantile business for a number of years, and are fully satisfied that they have selected a stock of goods as cheap if not cheaper than ever before offered in Allentown, and are determined to sell them at a very small advance. They hope therefore that through strict attention to their business, they will be able to draw a large share of public patronage for which they will ever be thankful.

MERTZ & LANDIS.

REMOVAL OF THE NEW YORK STORE.

The subscribers respectfully announce to the citizens of Allentown and the surrounding country, that they have again removed to their "old stand" a few doors below Hagenbuch's Hotel, in Hamilton street, where they will be happy to supply their old customers together with Thousands of new ones, with all that is good and cheap. It is useless to say that WAGNER & HUBER have on hand, goods of every description, style and quality, also Groceries, Queensware, &c. In fact they have every article on hand that appertains to the business, all of which they will sell 25 per cent lower than any other Store in Allentown.
