something more than the united torches of Russia and Austria will be required to quell this insurrection.

Active endeavors are being made to create a revolution in Gallicia, and in fact from Posen to Perth the whole country is involved, or on the brink of actual hostilities.

The important fact is stated in the London papers of the 11th inst., that a joint note, e production of the courts of Great Britain and France, has been addressed to the court of Petersburg, intinating their disapproval of the intervention of Russia in the Austrian Hungarian disputes, and insisting that such interference be withdrawn.

In Italy the advance of the French Expedition towards Rome has been checked by the resistance of the Republicans of the Roman States.

In two encounters the French were driven back with great loss, and Captain Oudinott, a relation of the General, was taken prisoner.

General Oudinott, unprepared for such a reception, has withdrawn his troops four leagues from the city, and there waits for reinforcements and further instructions from his government.

The French lost 180 in killed, and 400 wounded.

The Danish war still continues, but it is conducted on both sides in a feeble and languishing manner.

On the 7th inst., an engagement took place, in which the Danes were defeated. The loss on either side is not stated, but is expected to be heavy.

A correspondent of the Daily News, writing from Rome under date of the 30th ult., 1 states that the French did not enter Rome at all, and that all the fighting took place outside of the walls of the city. The gates of San Pancrazio Peztez and Cabalteder were the points of attack. A sortie was made by Garibaldi, as the French advanced, and the Italians are said by the correspondent to have lost six hundred killed on the spot .--There were 452 Frenchmen taken prisoners many of whom, while crossing the streets, where heard to declare that they had been tricked into the expedition by promises of being led against the Austrians.

Gen. Oudinot was nearly taken prisoner, him; and it was with great difficulty that he was rescued by his men. The Paris papers, on Thursday, gave no lish them, certain information of the entry of the French troops into Rome. All we learn is that the Neapolitans were marching upon that city, and it was thought that the French would occupy it before them,

The Constitutionel states that it was reported that the French army had made good seem to rest upon any sufficient authority.
