

EAGLE HOTEL.

A new House and a new Landlord.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the newly erected three-story brick building at the northwest corner of Market Square, in the borough of Allentown, and has fitted it up as a first-class hotel.

THE EAGLE HOTEL.

The House is known as one of the most spacious and convenient in the State—none more so out of Philadelphia—and contains 44 rooms. He therefore feels assured that he can accommodate satisfactorily all who may favor him with a call.

The TABLE shall at all times be supplied with the best of the season and the markets afford, and the Bar with the choicest Wines and Liquors.

The Beds and Bedding, together with all his furniture being entirely new, the patrons of this house may rely upon finding those two great essentials—cleanliness and comfort.

The Stabling is large and commodious, and as he will have no kind and attentive Ostlers, a duo regard will be had to the proper entertainment of the House as well as his master.

In short, the subscriber intends to spare neither pains nor expense to keep his house in the best manner, and he therefore respectfully invites the public to give him a call.

BOARDERS will be taken on reasonable terms, and as the rooms are spacious and well adapted to their wants, they can be accommodated in a satisfactory manner. Families from town or country accommodated with Boarding.
