Che Steamship Canada arrived at Halifax onethe 3d instant, with seven days later news from the European continent, and up to the 33d of Jane.

RONE. Up to the evening of the 21st ult no news had been received in Paris of the entry of the French troops into Rome.

Gen. Oudinot would not make a general attack before the 10th or 17th, when the news of failure of the conspiracy in France would reach that place, and would probable induce the Triumvirath to capitulate.

The London Globe, of the 22d. P. M. says it is generally thought that the Telegraph will to-morrow announce the capitulation of Rome.

The Gazette of Lyons of the 20th ult., states that a Telegraphic despatch from Marreilles has been received as they were going to press, announcing to the Perfect the entry of the French into Rome...

FRANCE. - The attempted insurrection at Paris has been followed by a more formidable resistance to the laws at Lyons. A scrious engagement took place in the streets of that city between the troops and the mobi in the course of which a considerable number of lives were lost on both sides. Barricades were thrown up which were not taken away until they had been battered down by the

The fighting commenced on the morning of the 15th and continued till a late hour in the night, but a Telepraphic despatch, dated Lyons 16th at 9 o'clock P. M., announces that the insurgents had been completely routed, the streets cleared and the city restored to tranquility. There were upwards of 50,000 troops in and around Lyons. There was no apprehension of any further disturbance.

Great excitement existed in different places, and it is evident that the conspiracy of the Paris Reds extended not only to every department of France, but to every town -Lappears to be the general opinion that the failure of the censpiracy of the 18th of June, 1849, is a grater blow to the Red Republicans than even that of June, 1848.

An attempt was made to get up a disturb nuce at Marseilles, but it totally failed. A regiment of cavalry sat all night without a blow being struck. Numors are again up in Paris that other ministerial changes are about to take place. M. Daufaure and his survivors, it is believed, are about to retire.

It is reported the Abbe Palootk, Private Secretary to the Cardinal Antoille, has arrived in Paris from Gaeta, and that he is the bearor of important despatches for the French Covernment, and also of an autagraph letter sive of his regret at the bombardment of Rome.

HUNGARY AND AUSTRIA .- The news is contradictory, some accounts giving the advantage to the Austrians. In the South two actions have happened, giving the advan-tage to the Austrians. The Hungarian General Perezel, from the fortress of Peterwardein, made an attack on some Austrian entrenchments, but was ultimately repulsed and driven with loss into Peterwardein, although the Austriaus admit that their own troops suffered severely. The other battle was fought by Baren Jellechich, and it is asserted to have been a brilliant victory: but the Austrian accounts are evidently not trustworthy-at least as regards their
