

James H. Smith
TIN AND STOVE SMITH, in Allentown.

Respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he continues the Tin and Stove Smithing business, in all its various branches, at his old stand, two doors east of Meyer's Allentown Hotel, in Hamilton street, in the borough of Allentown. He has on hand a very large assortment of

TIN AND IRON WARE,
Such as all kinds of Buckets, Watering Pots, Spout-heads, &c. which he also manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, and warrants them to be durable, and of the best materials.

He keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Roofing Tin, expressly manufactured for Roofing Houses, which enables him to do roofing at the shortest notice, and at moderate charges. He will undertake jobs a reasonable distance from Allentown, and will warrant them to be durable.

He also keeps on hand "Downs, Myndores & Co's Improved Revolving Stand-Pump," at the extreme low price of from $5 to $7. This is without doubt the best improvement in the way of Pumps, being very simple and takes up but very little room. They can be used in Wells or Cisterns, at a depth of over 30 feet.

He pays the highest price for old Brass, Copper, Pewter, Lead and Iron, or takes them in exchange for goods.

Call and examine his articles before purchasing elsewhere, as he is determined to sell cheap. Thankful for past favors, he hopes to continue to receive a share public patronage.

A Large and Rich Stock of Carpets, For Fall Trade.

The subscriber, in addition to his former stock, has just received, and has now in store, a large and rich assortment of New Styles English and American manufactured to order, and decidedly the handsomest goods in the market, all of which are offered for sale, on the most favorable terms.

Country Merchants and Strangers visit Philadelphia, who may be in want of Carpets, are requested to look in and examine this stock of desirable goods previous to purchasing elsewhere, as they will find all goods sold to be as represented, and at the lowest market prices.

The assortment, in part, consists of:
English Tapestry,
English and American Brussels,
" " " Three-ply Imperial,
" " " Super Ingrains, with low priced Carpetings of all descriptions, Oil Cloth, Window Shades, Rugs, Piano and Table Covers, Sheep Skins, Stair Rods, Bindings, &c.

Also, a large assortment of Rag, List and Cotton Carpets, from 12 1/2 to 50 cents per yard, at the Cheap Carpet Ware-Rooms, of R. B. WALKER, EAGLE HOTEL.

A new House and a new Landlord.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has taken the newly erected three story brick tavern of Jesse Grim, at the northwest corner of Market Square, in the borough of Allentown, called

THE EAGLE HOTEL.
The House is known as one of the most spacious and convenient in the State—none more so out of Philadelphia—and contains 44 rooms. He therefore feels assured that he can accommodate satisfactorily all who may favor him with a call.

His TABLE shall at all times be supplied with the best the season and the markets afford, and the BAR with the choicest Wines and Liquors.

The Beds and Bedding, together with all his furniture being entirely new, the patrons of this house may rely upon finding those two great essentials—cleanliness and comfort.

The Stabling is large and commodious, and he will have none but kind and attentive Ostrlers, a due regard will be had to the proper entertainment of the House as well as his master.

In short, the subscriber intends to spare neither pains nor expense to keep his house in the best manner, and he therefore respectfully invites the public to give him a call.

BOARDERS will be taken on reasonable terms, and as the rooms are spacious and well adapted to their wants, they can be accommodated in a satisfactory manner. Families from town or country accommodated with Boarding.
