

Foreign Intelligence.

Arrival of the Europa.

The Europa with news one week later from all parts of Europe, arrived at Halifax on the 24th of July.

FRANCE.—The elections to fill 35 vacancies are going forward quietly, and the results as far as ascertained, are in favour of the moderate candidates.

In Paris the ministerial candidates were all returned. In the provinces, Lamartine and a few socialists have secured their election.

Split in the Cabinet.—On Thursday there was a rumor in Paris of a difference in the Cabinet on the affairs of Rome, and it is now said that Barrot and Dufour will retire. A doubt was expressed whether England has, as previously reported, remonstrated with France on the subject of Rome.

Intervention in the affairs of Rome.—M. De Lhuys has been dispatched as Ambassador Extraordinary to the Court of St. James, with much apparent haste, with the object, as has been conjectured, to neutralize Lord Palmerston's decided or apprehended intervention in favor of the Romanans.

In regard to the London Sun, of Friday, says the Marquis of Normandy has presented a note to the French Government from Lord Palmerston demanding explicit explanation as to the intentions of France with regard to Rome, how long it is intended that the French army shall occupy the Roman territory, and whether it is resolved to support the Pope.

Restoration of the Pope.—The Legist and Jesuit Journals are setting up a cry for the absolute and unconditional restoration of the Pope, but the correspondent of the Times says upon reliable information that no such folly is intended by the French Government.

The accused Representatives.—The movements of Ledru Rollin have been at length traced out. He has until recently been sequestered in Paris, and on Wednesday reached London in the Ostend steamer, from Belgium, in Company with Martin Bernard Etienne Arago and Sergeant Boichot.

Cholera.—The present accounts of the Cholera are favorable.—The deaths have fallen to fewer than 30 per day and are daily decreasing. The total number of deaths in Paris and suburbs since the breaking out of the Cholera in January last is said, to be more than 20,000.

ITALY.—Rome Still Republican.—The Assembly in its last sitting unanimously voted the Constitution of the Republic and ordered it to be deposited in the Capitol as the expression of the unanimous wish of the Roman People. The Constitution is by a vote of the Assembly to be engraved on marble and placed in the Capitol. They also ordered a funeral to be celebrated in St. Stephen's for those who had fallen in defence of the Republic.

The last assault on Rome.—The Monitor contains a dispatch from Gen. Oudinot which gives it an elaborate and vivid description of the final assault made on the 29th June. The Romans fought most desperately, leaving 400 dead with 125 prisoners in the hands of the French including 19 officers of all ranks, none of whom are described as foreigners. The French admit only 9 killed and 110 wounded. In consequence of the surrender of Rome the orders received at Toulon for embarking reinforcements of all kinds, has been countermanded and a steamer already at sea with troops recalled.

Entry of the French.—The entrance of the French troops en masse into Rome did not take place till 7 o'clock of the evening of the 3d. A proclamation from the National Assembly announced by the French and recommended abstinence from all vengeance as useless and unworthy the dignity of Roman citizens. Gen. Oudinot and his staff were disgusted by the National guard and the Corps de Garde, at his passage, not rising and paying him the military salute due to his rank, and the barricades had to be pulled down by the French soldiers themselves, in the absolute dearth of Roman laborers. At dark the troops were consigned to their various quarters.

HUNGARIAN AND AUSTRIA.—The Hungarians continue the unequal struggle with indomitable energy and courage. Advice from Vienna of the 7th have been received.

The statements about the victory won by the Ban Jellachich at St. Thomas proved to be altogether unfounded. The Ban is still in the back country and though he has had an engagement with the Magyars the affair seems to have been of little importance.

The imperial troops on the right bank of the Danube after leaving Raab, following the retreating Hungarians and appear to have obtained some advantages at Acs, where it is said 500 Hungarians were made prisoners. The Austrian headquarters were then removed to Babalona where the Emperor was.

A Bit of a Battle.—The Hungarians appear to have retired to an entrenched camp and works, at the head of a bridge thrown from the right bank of the Danube, to Comorn, from which point they maneuvered with 20 squadrons of horse, and kept up a fire with 50 guns for 8 hours, but their infantry remained in their entrenchments.—One field battery ventured beyond the protection of the guns, in the entrenchments, and a regiment of Austrian light horse attacked and captured the battery, after cutting down the greater part of the men at their guns. The battery consisted of 6 six-pounders and 2 twelve pounders.

Russians in Transylvania.—The Russians entered Transylvania, and succeeded after an obstinate resistance, in taking Pormas Pass which was strongly fortified. The Russian troops forced their way through with the bayonet and entered Cronstadt the same day, the 20th June. Eleven cannon and one standard were the trophies of this day. The Cossacks succeeded in capturing Gen. Kiss, who was wounded, and had been handed over to the Austrians. Other accounts from Transylvania state that the other Russian corps has entered Bistritz, after a sharp action with the Hungarians.

Paskiewitch defeated.—Intelligence has been received by the Nation, a Belgian journal, to the following effect: On the 1st and 2d July Dembinski, with his own corps de armee and all the reserve of the veteran troops drawn from the army of operations now acting in Hungary, amounting to 80,000 men, attacked the Russian army, consisting of 110,000, commanded by prince Paskiewitch, in the defiles of Miskolcz and Erlau. The attack took place in flank, so as to drive the corps commanded by the prince in person into the marshes of the Theiss. We have not received any details of this important battle, but the success seems to be so complete that the same Hungarian reserves of veterans to the number of 40,000 men, marched the next day by Waitzen for Comorn, to reinforce the army of Gorgey, who from the 4th July has been able to resume the offensive against the Austrian Armies. Dembinski, with 55,000 men, was in pursuit of the remains of the army of Paskiewitch, and it is probable that immediately by the news of Dembinski's victory becomes known, the warlike population in the defiles in which the Russian Prince has imprudently engaged himself will rise en masse, to cut off his retreat through the passes.

Popular Manifesto. Messrs. Peter H. Burnett, Wm. D. Howard, Myron Norton, E. Gould Buffum, and Edw. Gilbert, a Committee appointed by the St. Francisco meeting, publish a card to the public, dated June 19, denying the right of Gen. Riley to regulate the assembling of the Convention, but for convenience sake recommend the adoption of the day for the election and the meeting of the Convention named by him.

The committee recommend their fellow citizens of the district of San Francisco, to elect five delegates to the convention; and cannot but express the opinion that their fellow-citizens of the two great mining districts of Sacramento and San Joaquin, have not had anything like justice done them by the appointment of Gen. Riley—that they are justly entitled to a greater proportion of delegates to the convention than the number mentioned in Gen. Riley's proclamation; and the committee, believing their fellow-citizens of the mining districts to have equal rights, in proportion to numbers, with the people of their districts, recommend them to elect such increased number of delegates as they in their judgement shall think just and right.
