

Allentown, Pa.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1849. Circulation near 2000.

V. B. PALMER, Esq., N. W. corner of Third and Chesnut streets, Philadelphia, and 169 Nassau street, (Tribune Buildings,) New York, is our authorized Agent for receiving advertisements and subscriptions to the Lehigh Register and collecting and receipting for the same.

Our Court.

The progress of business in our Court is slow President Jones, being still engaged in the suit of the "Boatmen's Riot" at Easton, which is still progressing. The Court, however was organized, the Grand Jury sworn in, Samuel Lewis, Esq., being appointed foreman. Some six or eight bills have already been found, which will be disposed of during the week.

A Turn of Mind.

Two Ladies in Allentown, who followed the Milliner business for many years, a few days ago, received a letter post marked at Philadelphia, without a signature, containing a three dollar note, with the request that they should accept of the same, that it justly and honestly was due to them. A change of mind for the better must have overcome the sender, in the discharge of this moral obligation.

That Corn.

We have been presented with a box of the most delicious corn, that we have seen this season. It was raised by our esteemed friend Charles Witman, Esq., of Upper Saucon. He is one of the clever fellows, and one of the best farmers in Lehigh county. We return him our sincere thanks, hoping he may live one hundred years to present us with such a box every vear.

Newspaper Postage.

Not a few of our contemporaries in the princinal cities are out in favor of free postage on newspapers. We enter our humble protest against the proposition, because we believe in the first place, that it will not subserve the interest of publishers; and in the next, we are of opinion, that to receive proper attention at the Post Offices, every thing that passes through the mails should pay something towards sustaining the expenses of the department. We would suggest that the law fixing the rates of postage on newspapers, should be so amended, as to afford the citizens of the county an opportunity of receiving the papers published in their respective counties-say 30 miles in a direct or circuit route from the office of publication at half cent a sheet; and over 30 miles one cent-The low rate, if collected as at present in advance, will, we doubt not, be larger than the amount now collected from newspapers by the department.

Starting in the World.

Many an unwise parent labors hard and lives eparingly all his life for the purpose of leaving enough, to give to his children, sufficient to start in the world, as it is called. Setting a young man afloat with money, left him by his relatives, is like tving bladders under the arm of one who cannot swim: ten chances to one he will lose his bladders and go to the bottom-Teach him to swim, and he will never need the bladder. Give your child a sound education, and you have done enough for him. See to it that his morals are pure, his mind cultivalaws which govern man, and you have given what will be of more value than the wealth of the Indies. You have given him a start which no misfortune can deprive him of. The earlier you teach him to depend upon his own resources the better.

The Island of Cuba-

This island is about the size of the State of Maine. It contains a population, at the present time, of one million four hundred thousand; of which about six hundred and ten thousand are whites, one hundred and ninety thousand are. free colored, and six hundred thousand slaves Its principal harbors are the finest in the world It has one hundred and ninety-five miles of railroad completed and in successful operation and sixty one-miles in course of construction It is well watered by numerous rivers, and its surface, except in the central portion of the island, diversified with mountains. Only two fifths of its surface, are cultivated. Of the remaining three-fifths, now unused, one is probably worthless, leaving one half of its agricultural resource undeveloped. The climate is so genial, that it yields two crops a year of many of its productions.

Hungarian Meeting. There was an immense meeting of the citizens of New York, in the Park, on Monday evening last, to express their sympathies for the brave Hungarians, and every other people struggling, or who have struggled for the Rights of Man. The Governor of the State presided assisted by Ex-Governor Young; several Ex-Mayors of the city, the present and late Attorneys of the United States; Gen Avezzanni, one of the leading Italian Revolutionists-together with several of the most distinguished private gentlemen of New York-Many very eloquent speeches, in English, German, and Italian, at stands provided for each, were delivered, and most able and inspiring resolutions adopted. An immense Hungarian meeting assemble at Cincinnati, on Tuesday evening. From ten to fifteen thousand persons were present Spirited and eloquent speeches were made, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed.

A very large meeting was held in Phil-

California Re-action.

Every letter or paper received from the gold egion goes to show that the gold fever is on the wane, that the bubble has burst, and the over-wrought excitement has now been followed by a strong reaction. We have already given enough to show this, but a late letter. from San Francisco, to the New York Tribune. gives so complete a picture of the reaction, that we cannot refrain from extracting a few sentences. The writer says:

"I wish you to advise all persons that have a good business at home, to think well on it be- ed and respected by all who know him. fore they leave all their comforts to struggle and dig for gold in California; for, believe me, gen- | Sept. 3, 1849. tlemen, gold cannot be obtained without the hardest of labor and privations."

This, we may add, is but the repetition, almost in identical terms, of the sentiments uttered by several hundred published letters from the same region, which we have noticed in the newspapers. The Tribune's correspondent continues:

"If you could only witness the many curious cenes enacted here by the hordes of vagabonds and beach-combers, in the absence of all law, you would pity the well disposed citizens of this land of gold and silver. Thieves and black legs are in abundance, and the beach combers (composed of runaway sailors from vessels here) in the absence of something better to do. prowl about the beach at night, cut away the ropes holding scows and boats, and in the course or two man their whale-boats and go across the river, tow them over here, and charge what they please for their services. The U.S. Inspectors receive for their services $4 per day, and the bargemen, who are all English, get $10 per

There are now in port four vessels from the East Indies-the ship Heber of Boston, schooner Honolulu, schooner Anglona and brig Clide. They are all discharging their cargoes here, and I assure you that the sale here for China goods is very dull, for the ladies are very scarce, and sight of one is good for sore eyes. Money and gold dust are in abundance, and scarcely a door you see open but it has a gambling table full set, with gold and silver in great plenty, surrounded by hundreds of anxious gamblers, waiting for the cards.

Land here is exceedingly high in price, and the most of the town is in the hands of a few speculators, who are trying to make the most of it. They all want to sell, with good titles, as they call them, which consists of a title from the Alcalde, and no more."

Stopping the Paper.

Lord Byron once said that, "with all his follies, he was never guilty of stopping his paper because its editor happened to displease him."

There are thousands in the world who are equally considerate and philosophical with Lord Byron in this matter, but there are thousands more who deem an erroneous opinion in the editor of a newspaper to be a crime which can only be adequately punished by the withdrawal of what they are pleased to call Patronage. Such men find in their paper an article which does meet their views. They are doubtless strong advocates for free opinion in their own case, but to tolerate it in another is a different affair. "What business has an editor to disagree with those upon whom he depends al who has differed with him in opinion, he fact that because his name was down twice on the 154.327.

The effect of these acts is frequently not quite so destructive as the mover appears to suppose. The victim in most cases survives the shock; and there are cases on record where the indignant gentleman has been the only sufferer. To tell the truth, in general these persons are heartily ashamed of the prank as soon as they get cool; but then the mischief is done, the paper is stopped, the growler has lost his right to growl by becoming a non-subscriber, and that troubles him; a sense of his own folly keens alive his indignation, and the transaction secures itself an uncomfortable place in his memory.

But there is another class if possible more incomfortable than the stoppers of papers These are those gentlemen who assume to themselves the right to criticise, although they never subscribe. They are too mean to take the paper, and in order to excuse themselves, it is necessary they should villify and abuse it When we hear of a man who is particularly outrageous at our course, we invariably take a look for his name in the subscription book. In nine cases out of ten he is not a subscriber; in the remaining one he is not a paying subscri-

New Jail in Northampton.

The Grand Jury last week again condemned our County Jail, affirming what had been done by the Grand Jury in April last. We shall now have a new prison, erected, no doubt, as soon as the Commissioners can bring it about .-Public opinion will entirely sustain the action of the Inquest in this matter, as the present building is absolutely unfit for the purpose for which it is used .- Argus.

The Secret Expedition.

A letter has been received at St. Louisdated September 3d, from Round Island, midway between Mobile and New Orleans, which says that 1000 men of the Secret Expedition had arrived there, and would sail on board the steamship Taney, on the 20th of August, for an island about 100 miles distant from Vera Cruz. The writer is a member of the expedition, who thinks that Sierra Madre will be the place of destination. 20,000 men from different parts of the United States were expected to rendelphia, in favor of Hungarian Independence. | dezvouz at a point near Vera Cruz.

(Communication.)

County Commissioner. Mr. Printer.-In glancing over some of the Allentown papers, I happened to see my old friend Henry Fogelman, of Hanover township, recommended by one of our Upper Macungy farmers, for the office of County Commissioner. Allow me to inform the citizens of Lehigh county, that no one could be named that would meet with more general satisfaction than Mr. Fogelman. He is correct in all his dealings, gentlemanty in his manners, and much belov-

COMMUNICATION.

SOUTH WHITEHALL.

The Coopersburg Post Office. Mr. Editor, Sin :- Veritas has again edefied the community with a production, in which much is yielded, indeed far more is conceded, than I had anticipated from that quarter. The copying of the originals and sending of the copies merely, is all fully admitted by this gentle shepherd of the valley. This fact of itself would be sufficient to show the manner in which the "clear majority" was gotten!!! But the fact, that the name of resident of the County of Northampton was on the petition, makes it doubly certain, that the "clear majority" was not quite so clear a thing. as Veritas may have imagined.

The poor fellow feels indeed sore under the ourden of meanness, with which the removal of he Coopersburg Post Office has stigmatized him; he writhes, groans and roars like the fabled dionass," but all to no purpose; he cannot deceive by drawing over him the skin of a lion. Veritas endeavors to get out of this matter by hrowing the responsibility upon the fact, that the election was holden at the wrong place?" In the first place the election has nothing to do with the Post Office; and further, the election is holden at the right place, a clear majority having said that it should be holden where it at present is held; as soon as a majority say that it shall be held at another place, then it would be wrong to have it here. This excuse Mr. Veritas wont do. and you will have to give an other one, the one you gave to a friend of yours sometime since, will do now, since this election affair will not be swallowed as easily as was expected.

"Do you or do you not know how those seven exra ballots came into that box ?" This is the quere out by Veritas to me requesting an answer, which will give him, though ignorant of the fact of here being 7 extra ballots; if such was the case, t is easily accounted for, it might have happened through carelessness; men may have voted and their names neither written down or crossed on the duplicate. This is one way to account for at least a few extra ballots , but another way is this ; that some of the tickets for the upper end were rejected, as they were double; from which might be inferred that others of the same stamp were double when handed in, but the manner in which they were handled by the officers before taking hem out was sufficient to separate them. In one of these two ways the 7 extra ballots can be accounted for; and were I to continue and inform you or rather the public, as you undoubtedly are ware of it. of the manner in which that election was conducted, you as well as the community would agree, that if rightly holden our majority would have been still greater.

As to any one firing a "double shot" I have my price of thirty-five dollars per ton. doubts, excepting one case, by a man who after wards informed me of the fact, that he had fired posts off and pronounces the awful sentence list he must necessarily have voted twice. Now "stop my paper," with a manner that gives it sir, I am able and ready to show, that several othvalley is so full of assumption and presumption that he will assume and presume anything.

What is meant by reference to the qualities of fish-monger, I am at a loss to guess; but nevertheless, in reply thereto will dub him, not with the title of a chemist, a student of Lacon or any other of these titles to which he pretends a claim, but will give him a more suitable one, to wit, 'Teague O'Regan' who, as Veritas may know, was an applicant for membership of the philosophical society, as well as for the ministry. All that is yet necessary for Veritas to do, before he can be a Teague is, simply to find a sheep's tail, the skin of a tom-cat or a petrified herring and present them to a philosophical association; having done this he will certainly be entitled to the ognomen of Teague O'Regan, and beyond all doubt, will be proposed for membership is one of hese societies. But enough of this, as Veritas has intimated his desire to drop the controversy, in which I perfectly agree with him; it will not do for me now to take advantage of said intimation and therefore shall say no more in regard to him than will be necessary to conclude this.

In the second communication by Veritas the reader will recollect the whole state was given me as a scope to find an other proceeding worded as ours was. Without giving myself any further trouble about the matter, I waited leisutely for some proceeding to turn up; I had not to wait long before I read a proceeding worded as ours was, to wit, the Whig county meeting. This is authority for Veritas undoubtedly, the author of those resolutions, as well as the secretary of the meeting, are both good grammarians, and yet they worded as follows "We the whige of the coun ty of Lehigh &c." Lehigh county is sufficient scope Mr. Veritas to find authority.

The communication by Veritas which I forwarded to a chemist in the city, has at last been analyzed and the result forwarded. The Professor says that "he never had a subject for analization that contained the same component parts as the one sent him by me." But let the letter from the Professor speak for itself.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27, 1849. DEAR SIR!-Some three or four weeks since I received from you a communication by "Veritas" for analization, which gave me a great deal of trouble, from the fact that the existence of the very thing you wish mostly to know, was in such neaning of the signature. The following is the only given that which has an existence, contrary o the mode of an up start chemist you have in Lehigh county, who I perceive gives not only what he does find, but also that which he would not like to find. I should have forwarded the result sooner, but desiring to be fully satisfied before doing so, caused the delay.

Yours-respectfully &c. (Signed) JNO. ESCAPULUS, Prof. of Chemistry

The controversy now being ended, I hope that t may continue so and never be brought about again by the presumption of Veritas or any one JUSTITIA.

Good advice to his Countrymen. Father Matthew, says the Boston Post, in adlressing a group at the Cathedral on Saturday last, who were on their knees, about taking the pledge, gave this good advice to his countrymen :- "Keep clear of intoxicating drink, and you will soon be in better plight. Save your money and go west, where land is cheap, and the hand of man is wanted. While you are in the habit of intemperance, you often drink up the value of an acre of ground in one night So keep sober, lay up your money, and leave this part of the country, where the labor-market is overstocked.

Alubama. - From the Mobile papers of he 22d, we learn that the Democrats have a majority of 10 in the House, and the whigs a najority of 1 in the Senate. The Huntsville Chronicle says that four of the Democrats elected are Taylor men, and will vote for Taylor candidates for the United States Senate. Mr. McMullin of Butler county, is to be pledged to give his vote to Taylor Senators. This, if is their religion, and it may be called the Magyar true, will make a tie vote on that question in he Legislature.

Expedition against Cuba .- A Washington corespondent of the Journal of Commerce, telegraphed that paper on Monday last as follows: Since I have arrived here, I have heard much more than I am willing to tell in regard to the movements in this country for the conquest of Cuba. I know the place where and the time when the offer was made to Gen. Worth to head the enterprise. I know the terms offered, &c. But I write to say, that he and others refused to go into the enterprise, unless the people of Cuba should encourage it."

Fast Work .- The Village Record says, the shingle machine of Crosby P. Morton, exhibited last week, at his mill in Chester county, cut in five minutes, by water, 275 shingles-being at the rate of 3300 per hour; and by one horse power 280 in five minutes-being at the rate of 3209. per hour. The qualities of the wood from which the shingles were cut, were chesnut, pine, black oak, white oak, and poplar.

No Republican .- President Napoleon does no it would seem, like Republicanism, for it is said he grew quite angry because, during his visit to Havre recently, the crowd cried "Vive la Republique," "Vive la Constitution." It is also said that he snubbed the Mayor of Havre in the most significant manner, because in the speech with which he prefaced the President's health he mentioned Washington.

The Muncy Luminry appears in a new and pretty dress, and considerably enlarged. The Luminary is a good paper, and should be well supported in old Lycoming.

Limbility of Surcties .- Mr. N. Childs jr., was engaged in the Bank of Missouri for several successive years—his term of office, we believe expired, and was renewed annually and of course with each renewal of office, it became necessary that he should bring forward new securities. In this way, a number of our wealthy and influential citizens have at one time or another, gone security for him to the Bank. Although the time has expired for which these persons agreed to go security, yet they are not released from their obligations by this expiration-but each, from the first, who became a surety down to the last named man in the list, an extremely small portion, that I could not give is responsible, and will be considered and held it a part in the result, for it only existed in the so by the Bank .- St. Louis Union.

Old Wines.

The passion for old wine has been sometimes carried to a very ridiculous excess; for the "thick crust," the "bee's wing," and several other criteriors of the epicure, are but so many proofs of the decomposition and departure of some of the best qualities of the wine. Had the nan that first filled the celebrated Heidelberg tun, been placed as sentinel, to see that no other wine was put into it, he would have found it much better at twenty five or thirty years old, than at one hundred, or one hundred and fifty, ad he lived so long, and been permitted now and hen to taste it. At Bremen, there is a wine celar, called the Store, where five hogsheads of hasn't!" --Rhenish wine have been preserved since the year 1625.

Population of Hungary .- Dr. Kraitser, late proessor of Modern Languages in the University of neighbors. Virginia, is delivering a series of lectures in Boson, on the war in Hungary, of which that excelent paper, the Boston Traveller, is publishing well prepared extracts. From a report in that ournal of a recent lecture, we learn that the Sclavonians, of Croatians 2,200,000; Germans about 1,200,000; Bulgarians, a kind of Sclavonians, 12,000; Jews 244,000, French, 6,000, and Americans, 3,000 to 4,000, making a grand total of 12,800,000. Of this number 6,000,000 are Catholics, 2,600,000 belonging to the Greek church, who obey the Patriarch of Constantinople. The Magyars are the representatives of the nation. Too Thick .- The New York Tribune says, in 1 building, on Little Water street there have been found 200 colored people as regular occupants. In the locality known as Cow Bay, there are 400 persons in 5 houses. At the corner of Orange and Cross sts. there are 95 colored and white females, in a rear basement; and in the year of 10 and 12 Mulberry-st, there are 800 persons crowded upon two lots, 6 persons living in almost every room. The chances of these residents for leanliness, health, or decency, are obvious .-Yet the attempt to introduce arrangements by which such sacrifices of life and humanity would e prevented, are sneered at by our respectable worthirs as Agrarianism, Promiscuity, Red-Dragonism, or, worst of all, Socialism.

Arrest of an Astrologer .- C. W. Roback, a proessing astrologer, who is said to be making much money out of the credulous people of Philadelphia and its vicinity, by causing them to be "rich and happy," appeared before the Mayor, on Saturday, on a warrant issued upon the oath of one of his dures, and individual from the country, who charged him with feloniously retaining a $20 note which he swore he had given him to take $2 out of as a balance due him for writing the complainant's nativity. Slander .- It is said that Judge Birch, has prosecuted Col. In return it is asserted, that Benton has intimated his determination to institute a similar suit against Birchfor having charged Benton with being an aboliionist.

It Won't Do .- It is curious how many thousand things there are in which it won't do to do upon this cosey planet of ours, whereon we sit, sleep and get our dinner. For instance :-It won't do to plunge into a law-suit, relying wholly upon the justice of your cause and not equipped beforehand with a brimming purse. It won't do for a man, when a horse kicks him

This great scandal upon an Assembly which, it was hoped, would exibit an example of moderation to the world, has excited a great sensation, and Pierre Bonaparte is to be tried before the ordinary tribunals for the offence. The President has returned to Paris, after a visit to Rouen and Havre. An indisposition of a somewhat cholerian character threw some gloom over the termination of the visit at Havre, but his reception appears to have been very favorable, sharing, however, the general populous applause, in that district, with M. Thiers and Changarnier. The French Government, it is said, have
