

Arrival of the Niagara.

A note has been drawn up by England and France of a most energetic character, which, it is thought, will have considerable weight with the Emperors of Russia and Austria. The firm language of the London papers with reference to this question is noticed by the Journal des Debats.

Prince Radzival having returned to St. Petersburg to tell his tale of disappointment to the Czar, Fund Effend, the present Commissioner in the Danubian provinces, has been sent by the Sultan to the Czar, to anticipate Prince Radzival's statement, and the attention of all Europe is anxiously directed to the North, to learn the issue of the affair. The Sultan has countermanded his voyage to Smyrna and the Archipelago.

The army of Romania is ordered to hold itself in readiness, and the local troops are being embodied.

There is no reason to doubt but that the best accord prevail between the English and French Cabinets, and it is said that a powerful French and English squadron will be ordered into the Mediterranean forthwith, to be ready for any emergency pending the issue of this absorbing question.

Austrian politics are of subordinate interest. It is positively asserted, with every probability of the truth, that the fortress of Comorn has surrendered, and thereby an effusion of blood has been avoided.

In the southern provinces the excesses of the successful soldiery has caused martial law to be proclaimed.

No single effectual step has been taken, so far as Austria is concerned, towards the settlement of the question relative to the unity of Germany.

In Prussia every thing seems quiet, and the Chambers are transacting business with decorum and regularity.

In the Dutchies the excitement is as great as ever, and it is quite evident that nothing but the existing armistice, backed by a prominent military force, keeps the people of Schleswig-Holstein from open resistance.

In Piedmont the chamber of Deputies only consented to the treaty with Austria in consequence of the hard and inexorable necessities which crush them at present.

The manifesto of the Pope has appeared in an official form, and has been received with feelings of deep disappointment, if not resentment, in all quarters. The feeling was especially participated in by French soldiers, several of whom were put under arrest for having torn down and otherwise defaced the copies of the manifesto attached to the walls.

The Amnesty in particular, was made the object of popular odium. The attitude of the French military authorities is quite expectant—it awaits orders from Paris, but disapproves de facto the measures ordered by the Papal Government, and while the Cardinals dare not walk the streets of Rome for fear of encountering the popular fury, the victims marked out by their inquisitorial decrees walk about freely.

The Pope, relying upon Austria or Spain, or upon both, and being promised funds from Russia, seems to imagine that public opinion will come over to his side, and thus shut his eyes to the most obvious consequences. The debate on the subject in the French Chamber is anxiously looked for, and should the French troops be withdrawn from the Papal States, there are strong reasons to apprehend that a fresh revolution would immediately break forth.

From Vienna there is nothing new, except that there is increased gloom and despondency on the part of the inhabitants.

From Spain we have only reports of a fresh Ministerial crisis, but not one word seems to be said of the serious attempts which have been meditated against Cuba.

FRANCE.—The Legislative Assembly resumed its sittings on the 1st inst., M. Dupin in the chair, and 486 members in attendance. The proceedings were simply of a formal character. M. de Tocqueville having demanded an additional extraordinary credit of 140,000 francs, besides the sums already voted for the expenses of the Roman intervention, until the 31st December next, the Minister did not anticipate the period when the troops might be withdrawn, but he assured the Assembly that the results already obtained, justified the hope that an occupation so glorious for the French army would be speedily terminated. The proceedings of the Assembly on Wednesday were devoid of interest.

The suspension of intercourse between France and America caused such a sensation in Paris when first announced, but a rumor having generally gained belief that England had offered her mediation, that feeling considerably subsided. As soon as the dispute is terminated, M. Marrast or M. Thiers, it is expected, will be sent to Washington, in the place of M. Pousin.

General Lamoriciere's mission to Russia has proved a complete failure. He has left St. Petersburg, on his return to Paris, without being permitted to present his credentials to the Czar, as the Ambassador of the French Republic.

General Lamoriciere therefore returns to France, without having an opportunity of speaking one word with the Emperor, on political matters, and the only memorial he will bring back of his mission, is the recollection of sundry Reviews and the splendid suit of Circassian armor presented to him by Nicholas, immediately after his arrival at the Imperial Head Quarters. Considering that the President of the Republic went so far in his endeavors to procure a favorable reception for Gen. Lamoriciere, as to banish the unfortunate Hungarian Refugees, and his determination to go heart and hand with England in resisting so preposterous a demand.

It was reported at Vienna, on the 30th ult. that Georgey, the ex-dictator of Hungary, had been shot by Count Edmund Zickley, whose brother was executed by Georgey's decree at Crepol.

Richard Rush Esq., our late Minister to France, expected to sail in the Steamer of the 20th inst., from Liverpool to the United States.

MARRIED.

On the 18th inst. in Philadelphia, by the Rev. Dr. Stevens, Mr. David J. Lehr, formerly of Allentown, to Miss Margaret A. Gardom, of Philadelphia.

On the 21st inst. by the Rev. Mr. S. K. Brobst, Mr. Peter Egner, to Miss Martha Anna Weber, both of Upper Saucon.

Circular.

To Clergymen, Post Masters, Teachers of Sabbath Schools, Book Agents, Students and Heads of Families. See's Pictorial Family Annual, an illustrated work, comprising a fine series of embellishments, with interesting descriptions, in one handsome large octavo of about 400 pages, elegantly bound in gilt, and lettered in the most finished style of modern book making. Price only Two Dollars.

This splendid volume comprises within itself a complete library of useful and Entertaining Knowledge condensed in form, familiar in style, and copious in information, embracing an extensive range of subjects. The engravings (over 200 in number) are strictly illustrative, being representations of actual Scenery, Costumes, Manners, Monuments, &c.

On examination the above work will be pronounced by every intelligent person, under whose observation it may come, as one of the most suitable presents for a father to present to his family, as regards both the quality and number of its embellishments and the pure character of its contents. In preparing every article for its pages, the greatest caution has been used, to admit nothing but of an improving and instructive character.

To man of enterprise and tact, this work alone offers an opportunity for profitable employment seldom to be met with. There is not a town in the Union where a right, honest, and well-disposed person can fail selling from 50 to 200 volumes according to the population.

All persons wishing sample copies to examine or procure subscribers with, can receive one or more, substantially bound in paper covers—the postage not exceeding 30 cents on each volume so forwarded—on the receipt of One Dollar. In this way no matter where a person resides, if only within the reach of a Post office, he can obtain a copy of the Family Annual.

Persons in the country wishing to act as agents may obtain all the requisite information, by addressing the subscriber. To secure attention to any communications, they must be post-paid. In writing, each person mention his post office County, and State.

The only kind we are allowed to forward under the Postoffice law.

ROBERT SEARS, PRINTER, 129 Nassau street, New York.

Agents wanted in every section of the U. States.

To Publishers of Newspapers throughout the United States.—A paper copying the advertisement, entire, well displayed, as above, without any alteration or abridgement, (including this notice) and giving it four insides insertions, shall receive a copy of the Annual, (subject to their order) by sending direct to the publisher, New York.
