Revolutionary Soldiers LOOK HERE!

The subscriber offers to the public in general, his services for the prosecution of all manner of claims against the general government, and in particular in the following cases: Viz:—

Suspended and subjected claims under all Pension laws. Applications for increase of pension, under any of the Pension laws, where the pensioners are dissatisfied with their present allowance. For all those widows who received, or who are entitled to receive, the ten years pension due on the 4th of March, 1848, under the acts of July 7th 1838, March 3d 1843, and June 17th 1844, being those who were married before the 1st of January 1791, he will undertake to establish, under the act of February 2d 1848, their claims to a pension for life, commencing on the 4th of March, 1848, when their pensions under the foregoing acts terminated. For all those widows of Revolutionary officers or soldiers, who were married after 1793, but before January 2d 1800, he will undertake to establish their claims to pension for life, commencing on the 4th of March, 1848, under the act of July 29th 1848.—For all those widows of Revolutionary pensioners, whose claims have been rejected or suspended for want of proof of service; or those who are in the receipt of a pension less than that received by their husbands under the acts of May 15th 1826, or June 7th 1832, he will insure the same amount per annum, that their husbands received; from the time the pension is made to commence by the law under which they claimed or have been pensioned.

All pensioners having claims against the General Government, growing out of our recent difficulties with Mexico, will find the subscriber a prompt, experienced and attentive agent.

Terms moderate, where the claim is established, otherwise no charge. All communications must be post paid, and directed to the subscriber, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Pure Fresh Cod Liver Oil.

This new and valuable Medicine, now used by the Medical profession with such astonishing efficacy in the cure of pulmonary consumption, scrofula, chronic rheumatism, gout, general debility, complaints of the kidneys &c., &c., is prepared from the liver of the cod fish for medicinal use, expressly for our sales.

(Extract from the London Medical Journal.)

"C. J. B. Williams, M. D., F. R. S., Professor of Medicine in University College, London, Consulting Physicians to the Hospital for consumption, &c., says; I have prescribed the Oil in the above four hundred cases of tuberculous disease of the Lungs, in different stages, which have been under my care the last two years and a half. In the large number of cases, 200, out of 234, its use was followed by marked and unequivocal improvement, varying in degree in different cases from a temporary retardation of the progress of the disease and a mitigation of distressing symptoms, up to a more or less complete restoration to apparent health.

"The effect of Cod Liver Oil in most of these cases was very remarkable. Even in a few days the cough was mitigated, the expectoration diminished in quantity and opacity, the night sweats ceased, the pulse became slower, and of better volume, and the appetite, flesh and strength were gradually improved.

"In conclusion, I repeat, that the pure fresh oil from the Liver of the Cod is more beneficial in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption than any agent, medicinal, dietetic or regimenal, that has yet been employed."

As we have made arrangements to procure the Cod Liver Oil, fresh from headquarters, it can now be had chemically pure by the single bottle, or in boxes of one dozen each.

Its wonderful efficacy has induced numerous spurious imitations. As its success depends entirely on its purity, too much care cannot be used procuring it genuine.

Every bottle having on it our written signature, may be depended upon as genuine.

Pamphlets containing an analysis of the Oil, with notice of it from Medical Journals, will be sent to those who address us free of postage.
