The steamer Oregon, due from Panama, had not then reached San Francisco.

At the recent election, Peter . Bernett was elected Governor, and John Mc Dougall, Lieu't Governor. The members elect to the U. S. House of Representatives, are George W. Wright and Edward Gilbert. The number of votes polled was about 5000, and all the persons elected are Democrats. There is nothing new as to the complexion of the Legislature, or the probabilities as to who will be chosen Senutor.

The following is the remainder of this interesting summary: Labor is becoming constantly cheaper at San Francisco, on account of the great number of people coming down from the mines to spend the winter, and seeking occupation in every department of industry.

The prices of vegetables here are enor mous, owing to their scarcity, and, in fact, the necessaries of life are much higher, than they were about this time last year.

Heavy boots are now selling at San Francisco at the rate, almost unimaginable to any one but a Californian, of ninety-six dollars a pair.

The growth of this city is still without a parrallel even in the records of magic. It now numbers twenty thousand regular inhabitants, to say nothing of the vast number of its transient | opulation.

Commerce with other ports is growing more and more active, and the bay no longer presents the spectacle of a desert of inactive shipping. The departures of vessels during the month of November, equaled the arrivals in number; and the trade with all parts of the Pacific is not only becoming active but regular, and is steadily undergoing a vast increase. The last of the overland emigration that is to be expected this year, has crossed the Sierra Nevada, Those emigrants who came by the Trucker river and Salmon River routes, have reached the settlements. About seventy teams who came by the way of Sumson's Pass, were caught by the snows on the mountains, and at the last accounts were in the head waters of Deer Creek. Major Rucker, with a sufficient party and all needful supplies, left Sacramento city for their relief.

The rainy season has set in, and has made the ground among the mines, as well as the roads thither, impassable in many places. A great number of the miners are without their usual supplies, and have no means of obtaining necessaries. There will be much suffering if the roads do not become better.

Freight from Stockton to the diggings is 75 cents per pound.

Fleur it Stockton is $1 per pound and other articles in the same proportion.

The quantity of gold dust still continues to increase. The yield of the River Bars is great; they are as rich as ever. Com-Janies are now being formed to work the strata of quartz, which are very rich in gold. Tests which have been made in San Francisco, give from one dollar and a half to three dollars of pure gold from every pound of per month.

The telegraph is no doubt wrong here, but we give the figures as it reports them. The Senator is more probably clearing $10 000 a month .- Eds. Trib.

The carpenters at Sacremento city made a strike for higher wages, as they were only paid $12 per day; whereupon the con-tractors settled the difficulty by raising their wages to $16. The weather here is delightful. The air is bland and balmy as an Italian summer, and the hills around the bay, are already covered with a fresh crop of grass.

The Wrongs of the South.

We have carefully weighed and attentively considered the complaints of our brethern in the South, with a strong desifte to rethress the numerous wrongs which they allego they have suffered at the hands of the North and West. The Union commenced with seven States north, and six States south of Mason's and Dixon's line; The Northern containing 1,914 584 free inhabitants, and only 40,370 slaves, whilst the free persons, and 657,326 slaves. In the short course of six years, by the addition of Varmont | Kantucky and 11,307,046 | Short course of six years, by the addition of Varmont | Kantucky and 11,307,046 | Short course of six years, by the addition of Varmont | Kantucky and 11,307,046 | Short course of six years, by the addition of the state Vermont, Kentucky, and Tennessee, the Jouth stood equally divided, in number of states. The States north of Masons and Dixon's line became free States, to which was added Ohio, in 1802, which was balanced by Louisiana in 1812. Indiana, Illinois, Mississippi, and Alabama, admitted in 1816, 1817, 1818, and 1819, preserved the balance of power, and Maine was refused admission until accompanied by Missouri in 1820. Michigan was kept out of the Union until little Arkansas could throw off its swaddling clothes in 1836. The infantile Florida was tacked to vigorous Iowa. Texas was annexed in 1845, from foreign territory to please the south, and at the certain risk of war with Mexico; and Wisconsin came bolting in to balance here The fifteen slave states have about five millions and one half of inhabitants, and 3, 000,000 of slaves; thirty votes in the Senate, and ninety one in the House; of which twenty one stand on the slave basis, and three on free negroes; leaving only sixty-seven members representing the free white population of the south; whilst the fifteen free States with upwards of twelve millions of free inhabitants have only thirty votes in the Senute, and one litindred and forty Representatives in the House, standing on an dilirely free population.

representatives in the lower House representing not free men, but what they call slave property, and this advantage they have enjoyed to a greater or less extent since the foundation of the government to the present moment. This wrong should be sis of representation, but by increasing the number of free States, and this is the true the Union, as the only effective remedy.

The Secretary of State under President Tyler, and the Senator from Mississippi it; but it brought war, and that brought what both did not want, an inevhable acquisition of free territory, which could never be subjected to slavery, except by the direct action of Congress. This is another grieveous wrong to the South. There is no more slave territory out of which to coin cure one for an American who should deslave states and Slave Votes in the Senate, but there are hundreds of thousands of square miles of free territory which can never be blasted by the corse of slavery, tecming with a growing and enterprising free population, which, in the course of twenty ears, will add fifteen more free States to this glorious confederacy.
This is the great wrong done to the South.

-Their power in the Senate, as a branch of the Executive, as well as of the Legislative is to pass away under the influence of freedom and the celebrated proviso by Jefferson and baptised by the Old Dominion. Phil. Spirit of the Times.

Consolation for Poverty.

The Home Journal gives atterance to some true philosophy; when speaking of riches, it says: "Aggrandize as you may, the limits of our senses check miserably, at every moment.

You call yourself 'proprietor !' Houses and pictures outlive you, and after taking your will of them for a short time, you are carried out of your own door feet foremost, and never again to enter it. Proprietor you were, perhaps, of farms and castles, estates and mountains; but now you own nothing but a hole in the ground, six feet by two. The artist who visits your gallery while you live and own it, enjoys it more than you. You are rich enough to dine twenty-four times a day, but you must eat sparingly to enjoy cating once. Your cellar is full of exquisite wines, but you only drink one bottle yourself, and to help you use your store, you are obliged to call around you friends, relatives, parasites -a little world would live upon your substance, and who, instead of gratitude, are likelier to make you a reshould have stomachs in proportion to the number of dinners he can afford; senses excluded according to stock in bank ; sextuole vigor, and sensibility to concentrate and return all the love he could propitiate with gifts. At the close of his life the rich man hus hardly spent more upon his own enjoyment than the poor man. He has eaten twice a day, slept in bed alone or with one wife, and the poor man can do as much, and the proprietor scarcely more."

Young Ludy put up at Lottery. -A young girl, warranted to be well educated, well-born and virtuous, and with a dowry of 200,000 francs ($40,000) has been offered as the principal prize in a recent lottery at Paris. The Prospectus announces that the money, payable on her marriage to the fortunate drawer, is deposited and registered at a certain public office where its cartification is open to those interested. Responsible persons give warranty, for as much as can be reasonably warrantable in a young lady's beauty, et cetera; and, when all the tickets are sold, she will be inroduced to subscribers, at a ball given pro-
