A FAMILY NEWSPAPER. Devoted to News, Literature, Poetry, Science, Mechanics, Agriculture, the Villusion of Useful Information, General Intelligence, Amusement, Markets, &c.

VOLUME IV.

ALLENTOWN, LEHIGH COUNTY, PA., MARCH 7, 1850.

NUMBER 22

THE LEHIGH REGISTER. published in the Borough of Allentown Lehigh County, Pa., every Thursday

MY AUGUSTUS L. RUME, At$1 5. per annum, payable in advance, and 5$2 00 if not paid until the end of the year. No paper discontinued, until all arrearages are paid except at the option of the proprietor. Adventisements, making not more than one 'square, will be inserted three time 3 for one dollar who advertise by the year.

Toffice in Hamilton St., one door East of the German Reformed Church, nearly opposite the "Friedensbothe Office."

BIVAD LAM ADRARY.

The largest, cheapest, best and most elegant assortment of

Piano Fories.

in the the United States, can always be found at the warehouse of the subscriber, 171 Chestnut street, above Fifth, At the Old Stand occupied more than a third of a century by Mr. GEORGE WILLIG, music publisher. PIANOS, HARPS, ORGANS, SERA-PHINES, ÆOLIANS, &c., &c. fresh from the most celebrated Manufactu- i ries in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Philiman, as well as English.

and retail, at the maker's cash crices OSCAR C. B. CARTER. 171 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. February 11.

Fruit and Orn ununtal Trees.

trusted to his care in the way of:

Fruit and Ornamenan Ecorgreens, Flowering Thereis, Herbate-Box Edwing, Sec.

Feb. 14

Of sinking Springs. Berks County. Board of Managers, elected for this year, met agreeably to notice given, at Housann's Swan Hotel, Reading, to organise and appoint officers for the year.

On motion, D. II. Hottenstein, Esq., was pointments unanimously made, viz: President .- John R. Van Reed, Cumru township. Secretary and Treasurer .- Aaron Mull, Sinking Springs.

Agent,-John P. Ball, Reading.

Persons having business to transact with the Company, may call on either of the above named officers, or any of the members, of the Board, resident as follows:

Dr. Wm. Palm. Sinking Springs. Berks bernville, do. John L. Fisher, U. Heidelburg near Womelsdorf, do, George K.Haak Esq., Centre, near Mohrsville, do. Solomon Kerby, Maidencreek, near Moselem, ness in spring, which is the reason why he David II. Hottenstein, Maxatawny, others these great advantages. near Kutztown. John B. Reber, Bern. D. Housum, Reading corner of fourth and Penn. Isaac N. Gehret, Lebanon county, near Neumanstown. Dr. D. O. Moser, Brein- will save cost. igsville, Lehigh county. John Weida, Esq. Lowhill, Lehigh county.

Resolved, That the Board will continue their stated meetings at Housum's Swan Hotel, Reading, on the first Monday of January, April, August and November, as before, where all matters requiring the action of the Board, are brought up and decided. Published by order of the Board.

AARON MULL, Secretary. Feb. 14.

Beware of Impostors

Patent has been issued by the United States to Stephen Crane for a Wash Mix- Upper Saucon, Jan. 31. ture, and the undersigned is a joint inventor. and holds the Patent Right for Pennsylvania. A certain person who has been selling rights is neither the inventor nor proprietor, and will be prosecuted, with all others violating the patent.

WANTED-Good Agents, to canvass the State. D. M'VOY, Baltimore, Md. Every Editor in the State who will copy the above notice three times, and send a copy to me, shall have a family right for-D. M. warded to him, valued at $5.

Feb. 28.

Selling off at First Cost! Great Bargains? .

Great bargains are now offered to the public at the store of Wm. S. Weil, consisting of all kinds of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, as he is desirous of selling out his stock of goods and confine himself to wholesaling exclusively. He offers all his cart goods at cost which are all new and seasonable, and consists of Cloths, Cassimeres, at the northwest corner of Market Square. and for every subsequent insertion twenty-five Sattinets, at d Vetings. Also all kinds of in the borough of Allentown, called cents. Larger advertisements charged in the Cashmeres, Alpacas, Coburg Cleths, Moussame proportion. Those not exceeding ten lines, lin de laines, Mohair Cloths, Merinos, Caliwift be charged seventy-five cents, and those cons. &c., &c., he also has on hand a st lenmaking six lines or less, three insertions for 50 did assortment of shawls and a large lot of jewelry, Violins, Accordians, &c., &c. Per-LV A liberal deduction will be made to those; sons in want of goods are requested to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere, as these goods must be sold out before the 1st

He intends making large additions to his wholsaleing goods and will sup; ly the counry Merchants as heretofore with all kinds of Yankee Notions. He has just received a large lot of Red Ends Violin strings and should be happy to fill any orders that may be sent to him WM. S. WEHL. be sent to him

January, 10.

C. . H. E. V. M.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Has taken the Office of the late Samuel Runk, Esq., and will promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care in this and the adjoining counties.

adelphia, and claewhere. Sold, who esale Refer to Hon, J. M. Porter, Easton, Pa. lu lin

Old V how Salt II Saloon; STETTLER & GEORGE

Take cas method of informing the pubthe, that they are now in the obligancy of The subscriber intends visiting the nut-base Saloen of the O41 Felio vs Hatt, Alienmerous nurseries in the vicinity of New clown, and having fitted it up in a superior York immediately on the opening of Spring manner, are prepared to serve up all kinds and will be happy to execute all orders en- of Retreshments, in a style stray equal to the lest City Resourants. The reputation Fruit and Ornamental Trees, they have hitherto acquired in the Erguden B. Care Roses, Vines, Creepera, Herbate- is regarded as a sufficient guarrante to the our Pants, Bulbous and Tuberour Roted pulse, that everything prepared by them are particularly invited to call at pulse, that everything prepared by them are particularly invited to call at Flowers, Esculent Roots, Hedge Plants, will near with the approbation of their cus-

Catalogues can be seen at his residence, the Countered twith this Establishment is a All articles will be selected personally by a covery L IDIE to IL to V, selected years him and brought on immediately. Orders fired a where partic of fadies and gentles and a large variety of Paney Goods, all of should be sent in before the 1st of March ameniatone, can be recommodated with all which will be sold at the lowest CASH

H. W. CROSDY. The delicacity of the grason.

Near Easton, Penn F. Give us a call. By studious by exer-Near Easton, Penn | F. Give us a call. Dv student.

| The ling to the wants of our customers, by use denous attention to business, and with a de-Mutual Fire Insurance Co., termination to reader general surface, o. we hape to merit a continuance of the ab reall justionings with which we have here tolore of tasider been favored. FRANKLIN STRTLER. Jonas George

Now in your Fine? On motion, D. II. Hottenstein, Psq., was appointed Chairman, and the following ap-

For Sale at Refueed Prices. The Undersigned has yet a v ry large and s; leadid assortment of Hats, Caps Muffs and BOAS, of every description, which headlers . ..

for sale at very reduced prices, and invites his old customers, and all others, who wish to purchase any of the above articles, to call at his store, directly opposite Moser's Apothcounty Jacob Bright, Penn township; near ecary stere, where they can find the above named articles, 30 per cent, cheaper than ever offered before. Mr. Boas is determined to close his busi-

> Le All persons indebted to him, will please call and settle their accounts, before the first of March, by doing which they ₹---6m

Allentown, Jan. 17.

O Yes! O Yes!!

The subscriber, residing at Geisingers Mill, near Coopersburg Upper Saucon town- cst the world produces. ship Lehigh county, respectfully offers his services as Vendue Crier.

He flatters himself with the fact of hav-¶-1w. ing had considerable experience in the business & assures those who may see fit to employ him, that he can make full satisfaction.

His charges will be moderate. ROBERT A. VAN COURT.

Brandreth and Wrights Pills. Country merchants and others, are hereby notified, that the for famous Fills of Brandreth, are constantly kept for sale at dozen boxes, at Wholesale prices. July 5.

"-3t Neatly executed at the "Register" Office.

. OB PRINTING.

DARLE HOURS.

A new House and a new Landlord.

The House is known as one of the most spacious and convenient in the State-none more so out of Phiadelphia-and contains 41 rooms. He therefore feels assured that he can accommodate satisfactorily all who may favor him with a call.

The TADLE shall stall times be supplied with the last the selson and the markets affind, and the Dan with the choicest Wines and Limors. The Bodo and Bedding, together with all his furniture being entirely new, the patrons of this house may rely u, on finding those two great escentials-clear lines and

The Stabling is large and commodieus, and us he will have none but kind and attentive Ostlers, a due regard will be had to the proper entertainment of the House as well as

In short, the subscriber intends to spare neither pains nor expense to keep his house in the best manner, and he therefore re-Mr. Rexx may be consulted in the Ger- spectfully invites the public to give him a call.

19 BOARDERS will be taken on reasonable terms, and as the rooms are spacir-lw ous and well adapted to their wants, they cars be accommodated in a satisfactory manner. Pamilies from town or country accommodated with Boarding. ELI STECKEL.

Allentown, May 3, 1849.

BRING OUTTHE BIG GUN! The Victory is Gained!

THE PEOPLE TRICMPHANT!!! Citizens of Allentown and vici dry wh are in want of the best quality of Fresh directies. Repew's Family Grocery Store.

re they will find the best selected stock of Family Graceries, Liquars,

PERFUMERY.

The Latter of Amentown and Vicinity are noticed to his new and sprendid assertment

PERFUMERY

lately received, all of which are from the ROUSELLS AND HOUELLS than they can be bought in the city. 1 √ Rem under the plade. C. I. DEPEW'S

Family Greecry and Variety Store. _-lw

The Great China Store OF PHILADELPHIA.

Thankful to the citizens of Allentown and its vicinity for their increased custom, we again request their company to view our large and splen lid assortment of CHINA, GLASS & QUEENSWARE. Diamer Sets, Tea Sets, Tollet Sets, and ingle pieces either of Glass, China or Stone he first anticipated. Ware, sold in quantities to suit purchasers. for less than they can be had elsewhere. In fact at less than Wholesale Prices.

American and English Britannia Metal Goods. In greater variety than ever before offered in the city. FANCY CHINA in a great va-ricty very chean. I & We would invite any person visiting the city to call and secus-they will at least and to view the finest China and the cheap-Very respectfully. TYNDALE & MITCHELL.

Philadelphia, Sept. 20, 9-1y-8 -Hart's Gold Paint.

cii brush for gilding, to be burnished with a municand the adventure. piece of smeath ivery or ugate. It will re- blive got him in the entry, down stairs," the office of the "Lehigh Register" by the than one half over the gold leaf gilding, mement."

9—6m

Poetical Department.

The Union's Pilet-Old Zack.

spectfully informs his Firm as the rock, 'gainst which the surf With sullen thunder breaks in vain, There stands he, on the Uxiox ship, Our pilot e'er the stormy main.

Wild roar the waves, by discord lashed To mountain height, with crests of loam, The swaying masts, with bellying sails Bode flerger temperts yet to come.

The storm grows farious-black the sky-Reefs, brookers, showly, are on the Ice. God help the ship and mariners! Can they ride out such sloringsea

All is not lost! a chance is left; Still Freedom's star breaks through the ni The Constitution-compass points Through Decord's darkness, to the high!

On all the shore what finitions wait, . While the grade strend slope for a distribution  $\hat{\rho}$ she shows the next the should what should Go an in hold ber brochtening from.

Hol safe she rides at length-and shall-In Freedom's waters, calm and clear; Our Union ship, with pilot brave, And freight of Horn and Groay dear!

Miscellaneous Selections.

A Cure for Sparking.

Some months since, a joyous, courageous woman, residing in this city, the daughter of highly respectable parents, found herseif unintentionally detained at the house of a neighbor one evening; and before she was aware of the fact, scarcely, night had set in The distance to her own home was but a few blocks, however, and as the ex-, ceted a little pathering of ladies and genthemen that eventing at her father's, she deterained upon returning home unattended, and histion her friends good night, she hurned along upon the walk towards her resisshare, in a which her family had quite re-A personed from another part of the city.

- the first corner, she was as hollows in a by the approach of a welldiesed young man, who accosted her wight a good evening," and offer d his services to excert her home! Being alarmed. for an instant, she would have avoided the stran or, but us he advanced to her side, she ventured to turn toward him, and a glance sa isted her -- she recognised the young pla C. I. DECEW. - gratieman as a familiar acquintance. Dison he has voice, and replying in a timid there, sto percepted the professed gainary, decembed at once to administer a lesson to her young triend which he should not for-The conversation which passed was Frief, the bean suspecting nothing, as he we not aware that the family had changed their quaters, tripped along at the voring lacongration. In a few minutes they half of Our U. lon.

In the form a modest brick hours, ip a redired street, at the west and minutes. dy's rife, a, parently well-pleased with his in Philadelphia, and will be sold cheaper street, at the west end and the Laly reinguished her attendant's arm,

"Will you come in?" whispered the lady sottly

"Thank you," was the rep'y; and his sing it carefully, they found themselves in the entry, in total darkness.

"Wait a moment," said the young lady. and be perfectly quiet. I will return instantly;" and with these words she ascended the stairs which led to the parlors of the house.

The first thought of the young man, as she retired, was to open the front door, and "varnotse" -- for he suspected all was not as He returned to the door it was fast. He fumbled for the latch, or lock, or whatever secured it, it was het to be found; and an instant afterwards he heard footsteps approaching in the dark. His heart thumped against his ribs, and he began to wish himseif safely out of door again; he was quickly re-assured by the encouraging whisperof the new made acquaintance, who apbe pleased to walk around our beautiful store pronched him, apparently with the greatest caution.

et now a moment-remove your boots from your feet-1 will return in an instant."

Our hero was content; and drawing off No. 219 Chesnut Street. this boot, he secured them togs the r, and held them in his hand to await the return of his lady friend, who again ascended the front-stairs. An entire new article, used for the pur- Entering the parlor a moment afterwards, pose of gilding Signs, reguiiding Lookings, the female rogue found some young female Glasses, writing visiting cards, &c., to be friends, with their brothers and beaux presused with a quill pen, for writing, or a pen- ent, to whom she quickly and briefly contain its color for years in being exposed to she said. "Put out the lights, keep perfect-Poeter. William A. Wright, and Berjamin weather, being nirendy sized. It can be ly stil, don't betray the slight stround, and done in a short time, and at a saving of more I will show you some very fine sport in a

The article can be had at J. B. Moser's The lights were removed, the party ar--6m Apothacary Store, who is the sole Agent for ranged themselves around the room—the R. E. HART. | bulk of the company knew the victim inti-No. 75. John Street New York, marely-and again the ludy descended the all whom malice had not made mutes, or stnirs, and approached her friend.

"Sefily, now," taking the hand which was unoccupied wan the boots, esofily .-All is quiet up stairs-all is arranged-and she led her gallant shyly along up the stairway. His boots danged against the railing ----shi" exclaimed the fair one, "for pity's sake, make no noise, or all is lost." The beau moved on, grasped the boots more firmly, by his side, nor dreamed of aught save bliss! Least of all did he expect the existence of a rent in his stocking; but he was a bachelor, and this was but a

They entered the parlor. All was sileneand darkness. The budy closed the deer. February tarm, and led her competitur into the rotate of the rotar. Not a breath was heard, and hills did the confloration suppose that he was at that moment sucrounded by a dezen of bi-acquaintances.

"Remain here one moment," said the old,

"I'll oct a light-" The gallant raised the rost hand which had conducted him thus far towards-he knew nor what-and ventured to press upen die best leinen wes devestenlig wills-denwaar die voorg nich of time." gad bly ops came in queer contact with the ewi

"Wait a monant." added his fair it maorata, leaving him quickly-and then, passing a door at the further extremity of the room, she disappeared. A minute lad scarcely claysed, but it seemed a month to the little party, who were nearly choking with suppressed merriment-it was an age; to the victim. But gentle footsteps were heard again; the beau gazed anxiously towards the direction of the door; it opened with a single movement, a blaze of light guished into the parlor, and behind he beheld the fact of an old and familiar acquain-

"Ladies and gentlemen," she said, "this

Mr. Smith! Such a "he, ha!" as went up from that coterie at that moment, was seldom heard in the neighborhood before or since! Poor Smith stood for a moment not exactly paralzed-that would be a faint term of expression; he was from n-actually statutized in his tracks, and he bagged his boots to children, and not having sufficient "slop his side, coughed, racezed, cheked, then work" to meet the pressing wants of a seand, a chastly smile !

As soon as the parexysms of laughter was over, the lady brought forward a chair, and placing it before the victim, said :

"Pray be sented Mr. Smith;"

Did you think, Cally, I did at know Another rear followed this remark, and company were soon on good terms. This was the first and last effort at picking up an arquaintance, and it proved a . The secret of her present condition may cure to esparking" with him. Within six be all sumed up in a few words. After ac-

An Interesting Scane

Signing of the California Constitution .-The tool wing scene is described by Boy- lar facts which exist in moral Boston. Is ard Taylor .- The signing of the new Constuntion, whose protecting to give covers so fair companion eponed the from door. Clos mighty an empire on the Pacinic, was an occasion of the most impressive interest.-This land of gold almost seems like the land of magic, in rapidity of changes in the brief laps of months. Two years ago, how little was Calsiornia thought of-now it is the they were lost in the distance.

is a great day for Califor ia ! Then rewhich were heard from one end of the town to the other. As the signing went on, gun followed gun from the fart, the echoes re-, heard, there was a shout-That's for California!' and every one joined in giving 3 times 3 for the new and glorious star added to our Confederation.'

tues of others, and due unto our own from them; they flow out of the deepest fountains envy struck dumb.—Sir Thomas Brown. fresh, healthy & generous national character,

The Merchant's Widow.

We cut the following from the Boston Daily Bee. This is but one; out of perhaps a thousand similar cases of destitution which are never recorded. The facts are so significant that comment is needless :-One bitter cold night last week between the hours of 11 and 12, as one of the night guardians of our city was taking, his accusmed round, he heard a noise, and in turning to learn whence it came, observed an object which proved, as he drew nearer to be a temple in a lumber yard, in the get of an't gring stray laths and pieces of board and only evering to hide them under her apron. The officer took her into custody. He was about conv. ying her to prison, when he begin to plead for her little children, . wifer that he would take them to prison two, that they might not heeze, and promising if he would that she would not murmur at her own fate. She stated that within an hour he had not them to bed by the scanty warmth of the last burning ember which she ownel; that she left them sleeping qu'etiv, not real, ing the poverty which suri midd them; that her name was Pand that the resided in Co-strect.

At the someonecoment of her name, the cilizer by 'ed at her intently, and by the light of the street lamp, which shone through the cold night full upon her face, he was almost herror struck to recognize in his prisoner the widow of his deceased partner in business! Without divulging nis name or speaking a word, he turned with her toward her dwelling, and found her domestic affairs as she has stated. On the floor lay three pretty children, the oldest about seven years of age, and the youngest, a golden haired boy, aged one year. The hearth stone was fireless. On the table a lamp burned brightly, as if to exhibit with more truthfulness how scantily the lonely cabin was furnished. The woman and her children were in a wretched conduion, not having sufficient clothing, food or fael to sustain life another day. She and her little ones were very soon provided with the comforts of life

The mother, a New England born woman, was too proud to beg for Boston born vere winter, resolved to buffet the chilly midnight blast, and steal for them. Accordingly, after wrapping them in a few garments, she left her loved ones at home and sailed forth. She passed through several He turned upon his torrmentor a look of well crowded streets where the merriments comical recognition, and like . Falstad, his which flows from the wine cup seemed rife wits coming quickly to his relief he res and from whose splendid parlors the rich glare of costly chandeliers gleamed forth as if to defy the darkness of the night, and walked until she reached the spot where she was found, fortunately by one who I knew she was an honest woman, and the widow of a Boston merchant.

The secret of her present condition may months he made and le apology for his error quiring between two and three thousand by making Miss Carly—Mrs. Radia.—Ilag dollars, her husband ventured, like too many, to include in what he termed "a harms less glass of wine," he soon became dissipatal, and died a drunkard!--leaving his w destinate. The family is now doing well. Readers, this is but one of the many simiit a hard matter to conceive what preventive to the ruin of this family was most needed ! We think not.

Personal Independence.

The man who stands upon his own soil, who feels that by the Tiws of the land in which he lives by the law of civilized napromised but of the world. Its Constitutions - Le is the rightful and exclusive ownion, fortunately, too, is worthy of its miga- er of the land which he tills, is by the conty de tiny, and California is clearly destin-, stitution of our nature, under a wholesome ed to exercise not less influence on Asia, influence, not easily imbided from any oththan the Atlantic Scates of our Union, have er source. He feels, other things being equal, more strongly than another the char-The members proceeded to adjy their age of a new as the lord of the inanimate names to the completed Constitution. At world of this great and wonderful sphere this moment a signal was given - The Amer- which, fashioned by the hand of God, and ican colors run up the flag-stail in front of upheld by his power, is rolling through the the Government buildings, streamed out on heavens, all is his, from the centre to the the air. A second afterwards the first gun sky. It is the space on which the generabouned from the fort, and in sterring echoes tion before him moved in its round of duties came back from one hill after another, till and he feels himself connected by a visible link with those who preceded him, as he All the native enthusiasm of Capt. Sut- is, also, to those who will follow him, and to ter's Swiss blood was aroused—he was the whom he is to transmita home. Perhaps his "Hush!" she said, wall is safe. De qui- the old soldier again. He sprang from his farm has come down to him from his fathsent and, waving his hand around his head ers. They have gone to their last home: as if swinging a sword, exclaimed :-- (1-n-) he can trace their footsteps over the scenes themen, this is the happiest day of my life, of his daily labors. The roof which shell to makes the glad to hear those cannon; this ters him was reared by those of whom he owes his being. Some interesting domestic collecting himself, he sat down, the tears tradition is connected with every inclosure. streaming from his eyes. The members with The favorite fruit tree was planted by one accord, gave three tumultuous cheers, his father's hand. He sported in his boyhood besides the brook, which still winds through the meadow. Through that field lies the path to the villiage school of earliest days. He still hears from his window the finally, as the loud ring of the thirty-first was voice of the Sabbath-bell which called his father and his forefathers to the house of God and nearer at hand is the spot where his parents laid down to rest, and where when his time comes, he shall be laid by his children.

These are the feelings of the owner of the soil. Words cannot paint them-gold cannot buy of the hearth, they are the life-springs of a