Southern Convictions.

An "occasional correspondent" of the Charleston Mercury, from Washington, in a recent letter, indiscriminately denouncing every man now figuring in the political world, except Mr. Calhoun, utters the following truth, which will be acceptible to more Southern ears than the correspondent imagined:

"No more slave States will ever be admitted. By some device or other, no more territory will over be occupied by slaves.-Cass, Webster, Clay, Benton, &c., all look to attain these results; but each goes about it in a way peculiar to himself, and to effect his own elevation to the Presidency."

This correspondent, too, expresses his fear, that the Nashville Convention will be 'nominating caucus for the next Presiden- o'clock. cy," and adds, "but for the very reasons, facts and designs I have given, it should take but the sterner and the higher course. It should insist on additional constitutional guaranties, or a separation. The first will never be given; and it must proceed at Piano. once, to the work of self-preservation."-What stronger evidence could be adduced of the treasonable designs of this much-talk. ed-of, but certain to be abortive.

From the Rio Grande.

The N. O. Picayane of the 9th has the following important news from the Rio Grantle-briefly alluded to in our Telegraphic tlespatch vesterday morning.

By the arrival here yesterday of the Steamship Globe, Capt. Bechmer, from Bruzos the fith inst., we have received the qua, the following valuable real estate: Brownsville Clay and the Sentinel to the 27th ult. inclusive. The Sentinel says that the notorious Dr. Kellogg, who some months since commanded a party of robbers on the road between this place and Point Isabel, was lately artested at Brazos by Mr. Stevens, Sheriff of the county. He was called on for bail in $5,000, and in default was

Public meetings have lately been held at Roma, Starr Co. and at Rio Grande City, on the terrible question, in which resolutions in lavor of a seperate Government were passed by overwhelming majorities.

The Flag of the 27th ult. says it is reported that the attempted revolution at Victoria had terminated in a species of treaty between Gov. Cardenas and Gen. Vital Fernandez, but that the partisons of the limiter would not respect its provision. Who we those implicated in the affair of Persanger have taken flight. Four or five person have been arrested, and Gen. Canales is said to be exercising the authority of the Executive, Cardenas being seriously ill.

The Crescent of the same date contains the following additional particulars: ,

The Rio Grande Sentinel contains a full account of the murder of three American traders, citizens of Rio Grande City-Messrs. Bowen, Cample Mexican troops on the 20th January, on the road leading to Mon-

One of the resolutions adopted at the Rema Territorial meeting, before alluded to, was ns follows:

Resolved-That it is the interest and the right of the people in the territory between the Nucces and the Rio Grande and below the line of New-Mexico, to be organized as a Territory of the United States, separate the Government of the United States be called on to extend over us, as soon as possible a Territorial Government.

It is proposed to hold a Convention at Brownsville, on the 16th inst. to adopt measures upon the subject.

The Sentinel announces that the first Protestant Church on the Rio Grande was organized at Brownsville on the 23d ult. un-

The Union in Texas .- In Harris county, Texas, at the recent election, 309 votes were posterials in reference to the Nashville convention. The____ persons suggested as delegates to the convention. received four votes, and six others were in favor of the convention, but named no delegates. The other 295 wotes were -No convention! No disunion!" The Galveston Journal of the 8th instant says that the people of that place would will at the same time be moderate. not vote upon the question at all. We have little doubt that the whole state of Texas will give an emphatic "no" to the whole question.

THE MEXICAN WAR. No adequate idea can be formed of the amount of suffering loss of life even among the wounded horses in this sanguinary war. It is believed, however, that had there been in the camp, a good supply of Merchant's Gargling Oil, which is so celebrated for its healing properties many a valuable animal might have been saved by its timely application.

And among the wounded and perhaps neglected soldiery too, in many cases immediate relief from pain and early recovery would result from the use of this almost never failing remedy.
