Cause of Pain.—Pain is the consequence of the exertion of the organ or part where it is present to throw of morbid or corruption mors, for no pain can exist but from the pre-sence of those matters which are of an and healthy character. When we have pain in the head, in the bowels, or in any other part of the body, it only proves the presence of matters which the blood is trying to remove, and it is this struggle which is the oc-casion of pain. To be bled, only removes the anguish in proportion as the amount of life is reduced, and the same may be said of all lulling or soothing remedies. Not so with Brandreth's Pills ; they at once go to

This may certify that I have had for many years the care of from 100 to 200 Horses and having made, use of Merchant's Gargling Oil for 2 years past and can safely say, that for all the dis eases that horses are liable to, I never saw its equal.
