RESOLUTION Relative to nn Amendment of the Constitution.

Resolved by the Scnate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Common wealth be amended in the second section of the fifth article so that it shall read as follows : The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit : The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large ; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges ; and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of lifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well. (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first Leonard, Jaines J. Lewis, Henry Little, election ;) the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well ; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of twothirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of this Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday, of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years, the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term, and thereafter each Judge whose commissions shall first expire, shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies, happening by death, resignation or otherwise, in any of the said courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succceding the next general election. Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the several Courts of Common Pleas shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office ; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office nor hold any other office of profit under this Commonwealth, or under the government of the United States, or any other State of this Union. The Judges of the Supreme Court, during their continuance in office, thin this common wealth; and of the members elected to each House of the last Legislature-after having been duly considered and discussed, was this day agreed to by a majority of the members elected to and serving in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, at its present session, as will appear by their votes, given on the final passage of the resolution, as follows, viz :

Resolved-That the respective Collectors of the County, State and Militia taxes, levied and assessed on the property and things in the different townships and boroughs in the county of Lehigh, be and they are hereby respectively authorized and directed to make an abatement of 5 per cent. on the amount of State tax to each and every person named in their respective Duplicates, who, on or before the 26th day of July next, pays the whole amount of County, State and Militia Taxes to them respectively, charged for the year A. D. 1850. The Collectors of the borough of Allentown and the townships of South Whitehall, North Whitehall, Upper Macungy, Lower Macungy, Upper Saucon, Salisbury, Hano ver and Northampton, are directed to pay over to Charles H. Martin, Treasurer, a his office in Hamilton street, all monies so collected, on or before the 26th day of July next; and those of the townships of Upper Milford, Weisenburg, Lynn, Heidelberg, Washington and Lowhill, to make their pay ments on or before the 27th day of July

By several communications from the State Preusurer, the attention of the Commissioners and Treasurer is especially drawn to the fact that the circulation of any Bank note of a less denomination than five dollars. (except notes issued by the banks of this State, under the act of 4th of May, 1841, commonly called Relief notes) is prohibited by law, and punishable by civil and criminal prosecution. We therefore wish to direct the attention of the Collectors to the fact that no note of any description, except as five aforesaid, of less denomination than dollars, which must be par in Philadelphia, will be received for taxes .- Such notes as the Erie bank, Farmers and Drovers' bank. Washington, and Honesdale bank, are not considered par, and will therefore not be received. It is hoped the Collectors will strictly adhere to the above in the discharge of their duties. JOHN LICHTENWALLNER, BENJAMIN BREINIG, SAMUEL KNAUSS
