agest Ellisabile. Linkage Brands Artenantes Linkaging et al.

ON CORPORATE WHILE FOR STREET

Mickell's Candidate.

Sorthe Free and Independent Electors of Lehigh County. TELLOW CITIZENS!

Through the recommen dation of my large circle of triends I hereby ffer myself to your consideration as a candidnie for the Office of the ensuing October election, subject to We decision of the Democratic county convention. Should I be so fortunate as to recieve a majority of your votes. I will faithfully endeaver to discharge the duties appertaining to my office.

SHERIFF,

NATHAN WEILER.

SUBBIDD'S GANDIDATE.

To the Electors of Lehigh County. Fillow Citizens!

By the solicitation of a large number of my friends and fellow citizons, b hereby offer myself as a candidate vfor the Office of ht the next October election, subject to the Democratic county convention. Should you Tayor me with a majority of your votes, I there. with hithfulness and limpartality: Joseph Fanewhard.

SHERIFE

Major Ery in the Field! ZZUBBOPRZZ OBPIEŁ

The Office of Sheriff,

high county. Should I be so fortunate it repeated, and a law substituted making receive a majority of your votes I will the credit system a penal offence, punishation to fulfill the fluties of the office ble by fine and imprisonment.

of John Clader Daniel Clader and seekers and old bachelors. Owen Clader, Administrators of 8. Lshall studiously oppose all attempts Joseph Glader, deceased, late of of the Legislature to remain in session over Joseph Clader, deceased, late of of the Legislature to remain in session over Hanover township, Lebigh co. 365 days in any one year, unless it be leap Afril now May the 1850; the court year, and shall advocate a law making it appoints a cobs Dillinger, Levi Fa Frank and "highly respectable" for Legislatures to vote the machine Reichard Laudiors, to audit and the machine a higher "per diem" allowance sergettle said account, and make distribution than the present rates.

According to day, and report to the mext 40 With these declarations, I submit my

The Adjutors above maned will meet for the purpose of the forenous and reports to thouse the purpose of the forenous and the ormerly of Philadelphia, now a dention Allentown:

ENRY LAURENCE

meideling plotting gentlemen resignation of artistic properties of the control of

The application of the properties.

The application of the properties of the control of the c

The assets of the company, on sentency the company, on sentency though his to the downward tend (1848) as published agreeably to an Act. of Aistan of the Sejiche is about to take this sembly were as follows, viz:

only and the showledge of the Real Estate, 788,368 00 und) orry that the thowledge of the love of cot umber of the sace with the prowantings of order to keep, and duced him gressive of the age, have ...

to law aside all selflish considerations. It is therefore only necessary, fellow citizens, togive me vous enough, to enable me to carry out my designs; and I trust to your wisdom for a full appreciation of the sacri-fices I make in humbling myself to become a candidate. In order to chable my friends and fellow citizens to judge correctly, I have creeted a plutform (a necessary matter now a days for affice seekers,) and majorides code of principles, which cannot fail to meet the approbation of the free and independent voters of the counties of Lettigh and Carbon. They nre os follows:

1. It shall; be my aim to act as a man -hence all my doings will be rigidly Republican. 2. I shall not in harmony with the Democratic party, so far as Corporations are concerned, and oppose all Banking institutions, because Banks (and in fact all monied Corporations) are Anti-Deinocratic. and at variunce with the wishes of a large majority of the people-yet, at the same time, however. I should like to see a Bank at Allentown, the place of my birth, and could not conscientiously oppose an effort to establish one

3. With the Whigs I shall advocate and vote for a high protective Tariff, especially on all such articles as cannot be produced in this country, under the full conviction hat Dame Nature never intended these things for us -vide the History of the Abor-

gines, the real natives of this country. 4. I am opposed to and shall advocate the repeal of that odious law, which appropri-fates such a large sum to the completion of the North Branch Canal, because it is of no Encouringed by a large carthly use to my constituency—in perspec-

5. I am apposed to the so-called $300 Exemption Law," and will endeavor to have

The fide it is the best of the office of the opposed to the present militia law, for various reasons, and especially as it robs are the first of the command of the "bone and sinew" of our beautiful Borough, besides rendering of our beautiful Borough, besides rendering iny arms and equipments totally useless.

MUDITOR 3 10 MIRE in y arms and equipments totally uscless.
7. I will endeavor to reduce taxation; at least will not go in favor of any increase, un-In the matter of the Account less a very heavy one on all hungry office

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLIOR AT LAW.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLIOR AT LAW.

ACTORNEY & COUNSELLIOR AT LAW.

THE VEAMEL A SIRE A COMPANY OF PHICE IN COMPAN

Real Estate, 728,358 99 Temporary Loans, 205,459 90 Stocks, 15,669 Cash &cc 46,581 87

Sing their incoffsofallon, a period of eighteen ventage they have paid up wants of one million ventage their have paid up wants of one million ventage their wand dollars, losses by fits their two handred their and dollars, losses by fits their wants, as yell as the ability and proposition to meet with promptness, their solving.

CHARLES C. DAY ENTER BESON, Presiden CHARLES C. DAY ENTER BESON, Presiden of the above mentioned institution, and six how prepared to make insurances on every description of property, at the lowest rates.

AUGUSTUS I, RULE Allenown.

AUGUSTUS L. RUNF. Allentown Allentown, June 13, 1848.

SIDNEY W. BURGAW, Painter & Paper-hanger!

The subscriber adopts this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately removed into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Nathan Schaffer, in Hamilton Elreet, Allentown, nearly opposite the German Reformed Church, where he will always be found ready to attend to calls in the different branches of his business, which are

House and Sign Painting, Graning, Glazing, Paper-Hanging, &c.

During his travels he has made himsel naster in the above branches, particularly, Paper-Hanging, the panel work of which is now all the fashion. He will Warrant his work to be well executed, and his prices will at the same time be moderate. -

He constantly keeps on hand a large supply of Projecting Letters varying in size from 2 to 18 inches; they are used for signs, and have become very fashionable of late.

During the time he has located himself support, for which he returns his sincere thanks, and trusts that his work will further insure him a liberal share of public patron-S. W. BURCAW.

PIDR INSUBANCE.

The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Prust Company of Philadelphia, Office No. 169 Chestnut Street, Charter Perpetual, fusion of Useful Information, General Intelligence, Amusement, Markets, &c.

CAPITAL 300,000.

NEUTRAL IN POLITICS."

JNTY, PA., AUGUST 29, 1850.

BLACK BEAR HOTEL. William Fry,

Successor to Housum & Schroyer, NO. 2411 NORTH THIRD STREET. Between Callowhill and Willow Streets,

PHILADELPHIA. The undersigned respectfully informs his nany friends and the public in general, that has lately rented the Tayern Stand. No. 241 North Third Street, between Calwhill and Willow streets, well known in is section of the country, as the Black Bear Hotel which establishment he has fitted tup in a superior style, and is now ready to accommodate all those who may favor him with their custom. -. The building is large and commodicus; and is admirably arranged to suit the convenience of all persons who may favor him with a call for a long or short time. His yard is large, and his stabling comodious, and an attentive hostler will at all res be found in attendance.

By purstual attendance to his customers. nd a desire to render them comfortable, the roprictor expects a share of public patron-william FRY.

ROGER BROWN'S WINE & LIQUOR STORE. No. 323 MARKET STREET, etween Eighth and Ninth Strs, North side,

Philadelphia. All kinds of Foreign Wines and Liquors

Old Cogniac, Brandies, Dark and Pale, Holland Gin, Ja-maica Spirits, Irish and Scotch Malt Whiskey of the very nest quality.

Such as Madeira, Port, herry, Tenerille, Sweet Malaga, Muscat, laret and Champagne, very choice and

Also, Manufacturer of Domestic Distilled Brandy and Gin. Pure Spirits, Deodorized Alcohol, Peach Brandy, Lavender Brandy, Wild-Cherry Brandy, and Fine Cordials, Monongahela Whiskey on hand.

The above Liquors will be sold at the very lowest prices. Country Merchants and dersigned a call before purchasing elsewere, and examine the Liquors, which he vouches, will bear the closest scrutiny, recollect

No. 323 Market Street. ROGER BROWN. Philadelphia, Dec 6.

Stuttering and Stammering In from Five to Twenty Minutes.

IME Undersigned would respectfully anadjoining counties, that he has located himself in New York for the purpose of EFFECTUALLY CURING persons who are troubled with STUTTERING OR STAMMERING.

So confident s he of success, that no pay will be required until the utmost satisfaction

Poetical Department.

[From Holden's Dollar Magazine.]

Song of the Affection.

Twas that voice than music sweeter, Lured me on from day to day, With a step made hourly fleeter. By the Boy-God's magic sway; To hole on thee, as the only Shining beacon of my way:

That was ever dark and lonely; And untit by one bright ray. 'Till thy sweet face met my vision With its earnestness and truth,

Realizing the Elysian Fender dreamings of my youth. Had I mines of gold to squander,

I would cast it all aside; Could such lavishment make fonder Her I fain would make my bride-Bring around me angel faces,
Such as greet the poet's eye! Conjure all a painter traces

Of fair weman's witchery ! And I'll turn from all to view thee; And to hail thee as mine own, Speaking all my fond love to thee, In Love's own most gentle tone:

Let the darkest ills look, round me; Let the skies grow dark above i Fate can neither pain nor wound me While I sun me in thy love ! Not for all the nomp attendant -On a monarch's fewelled throng! With its lustre so resplendent. Would I part with thee, mine own

For, where'er my steps are turning, Julia dear, thy form I see, And my heart forgets its mourning In its dreams of love and thee.

Miscellancous Selections.

A Story of Human Nature.

There was once ting small town in Massachusetts, an old Indian woman. Somehow or other, the old woman had accumulated quite a desirable little property. Yet Raspberry Brandy, New England Rum, she was an Indian, and was treated with Co., &c., also a large supply of fine Old cool contempt by her neighbors. She had no seat in the social circle, received no attention from those around her, occupied a back pew in the church; and down towards Tavern-keepers, will do well to give the un-

Old Nance had but one relative living that she knew of, and he a wild graceless son. He was the terror of the village, and spent his time in anything but a respectable way.

At last the vagabond son, so worried the forbearance of his old mother, that in a hasand leave her money to the church-

Accordingly she started for the house of one of the deacons, and made a clean breast nounce to the citizens of Lehigh and the of troubles, and acquainted him with her determination. The dearon drew from a cool to a very amiable mood as she proceeded, and at last became profuse in his expressions of gratitude.

The will, through the agency of the dea-con, was drawn; but the old woman, feeling is given. His method is so easy, that any which should make it void, provided the child five years old may understand it, and son should totally reform his habits. Sec-

CAPPTAL 300,000.
Continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the first continue to make Insurances on Lives on the Insurance on Lives of the Insurance on Lives on Lives on Lives on the Insurance on Lives on the Insurance on Lives on Lives arose and drawing a piece of paper from his pocket; inquired the date of "that ar will.".

The date was stated, and handling the Squire his paper, the portionless asked him to read it.

NUMBER 47.

Alas I it was a will one day younger than. the other. The fond mother in her weakness, had told the son what she had done and he had managed to have a will drawn. twenty-four hours after the precious one, if which he was the sole legatee.

The assembled wisdom and disinterested. ness of the village, went home thinking, and the son had the pleasant satisfaction of knowing that his mother's last days were her best days.

Reader, this is not a fiction. It is but an instance of the weakness in our common natures which, in similar developments. comes before us with the humiliating frequen-cy, alike in the highest, and lowest walks of life.

The Church and the Tavern.

In the year seventeen hundred and nine-. ty-three, when Louis the Sixteenth was be-headed, and the French revolution was in full blast; I was a thorough-going radical:— With seventeen more of our blob, I was With seventeen more of our clab, I was murched, under a guard of the king's off cors, and lodged in Edinburgh jail. And a summary hearing, I got fiberty to have myselfs and accordingly I took passed the good ship Providence, and his out New York in June, 1794. I was he him my twenty second year. When lies and cost off from the wharf, in Scotland and swung round with the breeze, my dalles stood upon the shore. He waved a his stood upon the shore. He waved a his allest, and exclaimed, "Remember the state bath day." I arrived at New York on bath day,". I arrived at New York on a Saturday, and, the next day being the Saturday, armine o'clock," A M. three young." men of our company called at my lodgings. Where are you going to day ?? they inquired.

"To the church," I replied.
"We have been ton weeks at sea? out.
health requires exercise. Let us wilk out? to-day, and go to church next Sabbath," they replied.

replied.

"Said I, "you can go where you please; a but I'll go in church; the last words I heard from my father were, "He member the Sabbath day;" and had no respect for the Fourth Commandment, I have not yet for gotten his last advice."

otten his jast ad vide."
They went to the church athey, spent forty or fifty cents in the taxern; I put a one penny bill in the plate in the morning, afternoon and night service;—total three-pence. They continued going into the country, and in process of time the laidlady's daughter, and the landlady's niece; would join their company. Then each couple hired a gig, at two dollars; n day; wine, cake and ice cream on the y moment she resolved to disinherit him road, fifty cents each; dine at Jamaica one; P. M., half drunk, and, having been caughts in a thunder shower, their coats; hats, and mantles, were damaged fifty per cent. They rose the next morning at nine o'clock, A. M. with sore heads, sore hearts, muddy boots. and an angry conscience, besides twelver dollars lighter than when they started. went to church, rose at five o'clock; A.M.r. head sound, heart light, bones refreshed; a little compunction, had a clause inserted conscience quiet, and commenced the lapore of the week in peace and plenty. They