Lehigh Timber Lands, Saw Mill, &c. AT PUBLIC SALE.

Will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, at the house of Lewis Billings, on Fifth-Day the 17th of October, a valuable body of Timber Lands, with the improvements, containing about 2338 acres, more or less, situated on Hickory Run, in Kitter township, Carbon County. The lands are on both sides of said creek; the timber consists of White and Yellow Pine, Spruce, Hemlock, Oak, and Chestnut; the quantity of White Pine is large, of good quality, and easy of access—logs ready being already made, extending into some of the groves.
The improvements are a new and substantial Saw Mill, now about being finished, and is expected to be ready to run before the day of sale. The water-wheel is an overshot, 28 feet in diameter; the gearing and fixtures including an edger are on the most approved plan, and the workmanship done in the best manner, under the immediate direction of John Apple, who is so favorably known as an experienced millwright. The foundations, both of the mill and dam, are upon a solid rock, and the frame of the Mill stands upon a substantial stone wall. It is located on and propelled by the waters of Hickory Run, on the slack water navigation of the Lehigh, five miles below White Haven, with sufficient room to pile 500,000 feet of lumber at one time. From the mill to the wharf there is a good wagon road, (with the exception a short distance not yet opened,) the whole distance being about two and three-fourths miles, the ground descending most of the way. There are three Dwelling Houses near the mill, a new stable, &c. Said improvements are located on the tri-weekly mail stage road from Merwinsburg to White Haven, where the said road crosses Hickory Run, and about five miles from the latter place.
On the premises, about three-fourths of a mile above said Saw Mill and improvements, up Hickory Run, is a new and well finished Dwelling House, two and a half stories high. Also, about three-fourths of a stone dam remaining, a part of which gave way last fall, and with it carried away a new Saw Mill connected therewith. The dam can be repaired at a small expense, and will afford an excellent site for either a steam or water power Mill. There are also other eligible sites for building Mills on the premises.
In the old Mill dam, and at and near the old Mill, there are about 4000 saw logs, which were stocked in the winter of 1848-9, and about 500 chopped and peeled, that remain in the woods. Also, a large quantity of wrought iron work and castings on the premises, and a part of the gearing and frame of the Mill that was carried away by the flood, which can be used again in re-building—all of which will be included in the sale of the property here advertised.
Taking into view the location of the above property, the improvements, the vast quantity of valuable timber, the convenience of roads, wharf, &c., all in order for immediate operation without any outlay or expense, it is believed that rarely, if ever such inducements have been offered on the Lehigh to persons wishing to engage in the manufacturing of lumber or the investment of capital in timber lands.
Immediate possession will be given on the payment of one-fourth of the purchase money, or satisfactorily securing it to be paid on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1851, by giving approved personal security. The remaining three-fourths to be secured on the premises by bond and mortgage, in three equal instalments, payable on the first days of April, A. D. 1852, 1853 and 1854, respectively, with interest.
For further information, apply to M. K. Taylor, Taylorsville, Bucks county; D. B. Taylor, Conover street wharf, Philadelphia; or to D. H. Taylor, White Haven, who will accompany any person who wishes to view the property.

Welch's National Circus!

RE-ORGANIZED, AND BEING A COMBINATION OF TWO COMPANIES, EQUESTRIAN AND DRAMATIC.

This novel combination and Double Troupe will perform at Allentown, on Wednesday the 16th day of October, for one day only—afternoon and evening.
Doors opening half an hour previous. Admission 25 cts to each Entertainment.
In the equestrian department one of the leading, and from their novelty the most striking feature, are the wonderful exploits of the wild rider, Eaton Stone. This extraordinary equestrian of whose skill and daring volumes have been written wherever he has performed, appears in two distinct acts of horsemanship in neither of which does he use saddle and bridle on his superb steeds, though they are both as wild and apparently untamable as when first loosed by him on the Pampas of South America. Their leaps are truly terrific, and it is impossible to describe the sensation of the beholder as he watches the motions of horse and rider, which are in perfect union, and which convey to the mind a strong picture of the Centaurs of Heathen Mythology.
Mast. T. Neville is another of the stars which form the brilliant Galaxy of Talent of which this great company is composed. He is everywhere admitted to be without a rival in his feats of equitation. Mr. Cadwalder, the graceful and daring many horse rider, the established favorite of this company. Mr. E. Derious with his highly educated and superb Lilliputian Sheldan ponies. The great and widely renowned Acrobats, the Rivers family, whose pleasing and astonishing feats have never equalled in America; the accomplished equestrian and champion vaulter, Mr. W. O. Dale, Mr. Samuel Lee, whose herculean feats are the wonder and admiration of all who witness them. The juvenile equestrian prodigies, Master G. Derious and B. Williams. Two great clowns, John Gossen, and Dan Gardner, whose unexcusable art & most approved good humor have placed them at the summit of the profession. Master of the Arena, Captain J. A. Decamp. The grand Heroic Equestrian Dramatic Spectacle, ST. GEORGE AND THE DRAGON, Or the seven Champions of Christendom, Got up with the most lavish expense with new and gorgeous dresses, properties and appointments of every sort, as performed for hundreds of nights, at the National Amphitheatre, Philadelphia, will conclude each evening's entertainment.
The above company will exhibit at Kutztown, on the 17th of October.
