

Illegal Fees.

The Bulletin calls the attention of all receivers as well as payers of illegal fees, to the following section of an act passed in 1831, which seems generally to have been overlooked.

2. Sect. 1. If any officer, whose fees are expressed and limited in and by an act of assembly of this commonwealth, passed the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, entitled, "An act establishing a fee bill," or in and by an act passed the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, entitled, "An act to alter and amend the fee bill," or in and by any other act or acts of assembly of this commonwealth, at any time hereafter, shall wilfully, fraudulently, and corruptly charge or demand, or take any of the fees, in and by any of the said acts, limited and ascertained, where the business for which such fees are chargeable, shall not have been done and performed, or if any officer shall wilfully, fraudulently and corruptly charge or demand and take any fee for any service or services other than those expressly provided for by the said acts, such officer, in addition to any penalty or penalties to which by the existing laws he may now be subject, shall be liable to prosecution and punishment, by indictment, as for a misdemeanor in office any law or usage heretofore, to the contrary notwithstanding.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Mr. Fuchs, Mr. Joseph Wendel, to Miss Sarah, daughter of Israel Trexler, both of Hanover.

With the above notice, we received a liberal share of the delicacies attendant upon the uniting of the "silken chord" in the shape of an excellent Pound Cake. We certainly should be wanting in gratitude did we not at this time tender the happy pair our sincere wishes for their health, happiness and prosperity through life.

On the 21st of December, by the Rev. E. H. Helfrich, Mr. David Rice, to Miss Elizabeth Koch, both of Lehigh township, Northampton county.

On the 13th of January, by the Rev. Mr. Swidel, Mr. E. Warner, of N. J., to Miss Catharine Burk, of Bethlehem.

On the 14th of January, by the Rev. Joseph Duhs, Mr. William Meyer, to Miss Mary George, both of Washington tsp.

On the 13th of January, by the Rev. Mr. Reuben Hensinger, of Heidelberg, to Miss Susan Hausman, of North Whitehall.

On the 2th of January, Mr. Joseph Peter, of Washington, to Miss Emeline Adams, of North Whitehall.

DIED.

On the 3d of November last, in Millersburg, Rock Island county, Ill., Mrs. Mary Swander, widow of Daniel Swander, formerly of Easton, Pa., aged 58 years.

On the same day, in Allentown, Mary Harman, consort of Henry Worman, aged 68 years, 10 months and 23 days.

Orphans Court Sale Of Valuable Farm and Mill PROPERTY.

By virtue and in pursuance of an Order issued by the Orphan's Court of Lehigh county, there will be exposed to Public Sale, on Wednesday the 26th of February next, at 12 o'clock at noon, on the premises, the following highly valuable and well described Real Estate, to wit:

No. 1. A VALUABLE FARM, situate on the public road leading from Allentown to Reading, about two miles from the first named place, in South Whitehall township, Lehigh county, adjoining lands of Charles Mertz, John Biery, Henry Lores, and others, containing 66 acres and 34 perches, clear land of the best quality, in a high state of cultivation, divided in suitable fields, under good fencing, and otherwise in the best condition.

There are four acres of the best meadow land, through which the beautiful Cedar creek stream flows. The improvements consist in a large double

TWO STORY

STONE HOUSE, a large Swiss Barn, of stone, besides a large frame building adjoining the Barn, in which is placed a stationary wooden Horse Power, Wagon-house, Cattle-crib and Hog-stable, besides all other necessary outbuildings.

There is also a never failing well with excellent water, in the rear of the house, two Cisterns, one at the House and one at the Barn, are on the premises.

It is also necessary to mention, that the cattle can be driven through a by-road to water at the Cedar creek.

There are also on the premises TWO EXCELLENT APPLE ORCHARDS, in a bearing condition.

ALSO—At the same time and place, No. 2. A LOT OF GROUND, situate in the aforesaid township and county, adjoining lands of Henry Lores, lands of No. 1, and on the Reading road, containing 12 acres, more or less, good arable land, in an excellent condition.

On Thursday the 27th of January, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Public House of George Meyer, in the Borough of Allentown, Lehigh county.

No. 3. THE VERY VALUABLE And Beautiful REAL ESTATE, situate in Northampton township, county aforesaid, adjoining the Borough limits, on the Reading road, directly opposite the well known Hotel, formerly kept by Solomon Weaver, the improvements consist in a new and well built three story brick Store and Dwelling containing in front 44 feet, and in depth 80 feet, the Store room is shelved and counter-ered ready to commence the store business, and is one of the best locations in the Borough, to purchase and store Grain. The lot on which these buildings are located is 62 feet front by 210 feet deep, and thereon is erected also a large frame Barn, besides other outbuildings.

A large cistern is on the property, and the Hydrant water can be tapped at several places. The Lot adjoins the Borough line on the east, Hamilton street on the south, another lot of the deceased on the west, the north by a public alley. It is one of the best properties in the Borough.

FURTHER, At the same time and place, No. 4. A LOT OF GROUND, situate in the aforesaid township and county, adjoining lot No. 3, on the east, Reading road on the south, a lot of Abraham Hensinger on the west, and on the north by a public alley, containing in front 46 feet, and in depth 210 feet.

FURTHER, On the same day and place, No. 5. A TRACT OF LAND, situate in Northampton township, Lehigh county, bounded by lands of John J. Krause, Solomon Weaver, on the road leading from Allentown to Millerstown, and on the lower road leading from Allentown to Reading, containing 12 acres and several perches of the best land, under good fences, and in a high state of cultivation.

FURTHER, On Friday the 28th of February, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Public House of George Meyer, in Allentown, No. 6. AN EXCELLENT Mill Property, with the best Water Power in the county of Lehigh, situate in Salisbury township, Lehigh county, near the Borough of Allentown, the power is supplied by the never failing "Little Lehigh" stream. The power is one of the best in a circle of 50 miles—the Mill has lately undergone a thorough repair, and will compare with any in the neighborhood in conveniences. There are three pair of Stones in the Mill, and it is admitted, that better Stones were never laid in any Mill before. A new Saut Machine, a new Corn Braker, and one of the most convenient Flour Packing Machine is in the building; a full supply of Alligators and other conveniences, besides the gearing are such as will convince any one at all acquainted with milling, to be one of the best establishments of the kind in the county.

The mill is prepared to do custom or merchant work, and at present enjoys a large share of the former.

This property should receive the particular attention of purchasers, as it is without question one of the best stands for business, either for merchant or custom work that can be found in the State.

To the mill belongs about 2 acres of land, part of which is meadow, and on part of the balance is erected a two story

STONE Dwelling House, with kitchen attached to it, a large barn, and other outbuildings, besides two large gardens, with valuable fruit trees thereon.

FURTHER, On the same day and place, No. 7. A TRACT OF WOODLAND, situate on the Lehigh Mountain, in Salisbury township, Lehigh county, adjoining lands of Conrad Heimbach, John Ulrich, David Spinner and others, containing 6 acres, more or less. The same is of the in the County, being grown over with handsome young Chestnut.

BEST TIMBER LAND

It is a part of the real estate of Daniel Ludwig, deceased, late of the Borough of Allentown, Lehigh county.

The conditions will be made known on the day of sale and due attendance given by SOLOMON WEAVER, Acting Administrator.

By Order of the Court, J. D. LAWALL, Clerk. February 6. 4-4v
