Captain Nagle Is in the Field Again!

Captain HENRY F. NAGLE, respectfully announces that by the encouragement of his friends he has leased the large and commodious house formerly occupied by his father, on Hamilton street, (continued) in East Allentown, as a Saloon and which he has now fitted up in a style consistent with a design of affording his friends the best accommodations to be found in these diggings. He has also fitted up and furnished a Ladies saloon, and rooms for private parties, where visitors can enjoy themselves apart from the bustle of the main saloon, and where they can be accommodated with a variety of choice refreshments. He will spare no expense to render his house worthy the patronage he solicits. His bill of fare will consist as follows:

Ale, Porter and Beer, of the best manufacture; Oysters, raw, stewed and spiced; Lobsters, Crabs, Clams, and all other kinds of seahell fish in their season; Pigs-foot, Tripe, smoked Tongue and French Baloines, Sardines, and in fact every thing the markets of Philadelphia, New York and our own vicinity affords.

His ICE CREAMS are too well known and celebrated to need encomium, and he will only say that he will be found as heretofore the ne plus ultra of Restaurateurs.
