The Virginia Convention.

The Virginia Convention has at length agreed upon a form of constitution for that State, and brought its labors to a close. The constitution has not yet been submitted to a vote of the peor ple. It was ordered to be engrossed by a vote ments of the government, in the abandonment of the principal of the representation of proper. ty, and in requiring the Legislature to provide for the payment of the present and every future public debt.

Nearly al! State and county officers are to be plected by the people, including the Governor and Lieut. Governor, Judges of the Supreme, District and Circuit Courts, and Justices of Peace, Commonwealth's Attorneys, Clerks and Sheriffs. The Legislature is to be apportioned, the House over twelve years of age are not to pay more pieces. than the tax on $300 worth of land, and licenses, incomes and salaries may be taxed at the discretion of the Legislature. Seven per cent, of the of the interest and principal.

An Escape.

Shark Caught .- The Apalachicola (Fla.) Advertiser, of July 23.1, contains the following :

We are informed by Capt. Perkins, of the ship Constantine, loading in this port for Brest, that a lad named Charles Mullen, who had taken an giry berth in the maintop, fell to the deck, a distance of fifty six feet, sustaining no farther injucy than a slight contusion on the forehead, for which a strip of adhesive plaster was the only surgery requisite. His fall was broken by an I-land is also stated. The chief of this parawning; his weight, by the momentum of gravitation, breaking an oaken stanchion three inches in diameter. The boy was asleep, and the sail. ors say he was not awakened by the fall, but this -knowing Jack's proclivity for yara spinningwe receive cum grano salis."

The log of the Constantine records the capture of a shark seventeen feet long, a post mortem examination of which disclosed portions of the body of a white man, viz; an entire thigh, leg and foot, part of the other thigh, the knee, a portion of the leg, and one of the shoulders. The undigested state of the limbs gave evidence that the unfortunate man had been a recent victim to the monster's i gracity.

Late from France.

The question on the revision of the Constitu. tion has after a most animated and, in some instances, angry debate, been rejected. The debate was brought to a close on Saturday, by M. Odillon Barrett, who occupied the whole day in a speech in favor of the measure. He considered that the revision was necessary to preserve the public peace, and ward off the dangers that were to Trinidad and other points.

The vote being taken, there appeared for the revision 446, against 86-the three fourths re. 2,030 men into the Cenoral Department, quired by the constitution not being obtained, the motion was lost, and cannot be renewed for three
