An Unprecedented Display of GOODS

At the Old Corner
The People's Store

Rome had her Caesar, England her Cromwell, France her Napoleon Bonaparte, and Allentown a

STORE

where goods may be purchased at the most reasonable prices, as any one can be satisfied who will call on

C. H. SAMSON,

late of the firm of Samson, Wagner & Co. who has just received a splendid lot of

SPRING GOODS

Which are the admiration of all who have viewed them. They are cheap, too, and no mistake—not cheap just on one yard of the counter and dear all over the other, but from side to side, from front to rear, and from top to bottom, whether or anything else you'll find. His motto is:

COTTON, LINEN, SILK,

"SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK SALES"

with the Ready John Davis down—the only way to do business, "as is business."

Now he don't intend to enumerate what he has; he will not say a word about his sleek Cloths and Casimeres; nor the elegant supply he purchased for Dresses for his

Lady Friends;

nor about the Silks and Satins and Ribbons and the thousand other matters that go to make up a tip-top assortment, because he not only anticipates, but is sure, that all who expect to appear in unparalleled apparel, will come and see for themselves—judge for themselves, and buy for themselves, (just as he does when he goes to the city.)

His Groceries,

Consist of a large supply, selected with great care, and comprises all kinds of various articles in general use.

His QUEENSWARE embraces a beautiful assortment, from which a choice cannot fail to be made.

Ready Made Clothing!

A complete assortment of every description, cheaper than the cheapest.

Cloths, Casimeres, &c., made up to the shortest notice, in a style calculated to surprise the Parisians, not the "Natives" only—and still he complies with his motto, "No fit no pay." With such inducements held out to an impartial public, a Hottentot would not for a moment doubt but what he is bound to eclipse all his competitors. And now take his advice

"Buy cheap while sluggards sleep, And you will have goods to wear and keep."

So come and see all

And give me a call.

C. H. SAMSON.

Manufacturer of Improved Chain Pumps

ALLENTOWN LEHIGH COUNTY.

The undersigned takes this method to inform the public generally, that he continues to manufacture the new and Improved

Chain Pumps with Iron Curb,

for which he has just got out a new pattern and is now prepared to fill orders for same. A constantly increasing demand for these Pumps, resulting in part from the great improvements we have lately effected in their construction, affords substantial evidence of their superior adaptation to the public wants. We, therefore, have no hesitation in saying that they give better satisfaction to purchasers, are more economical, and do their work more rapidly and with less expenditure of labor than any other Pumps in use. Their operation gives motion to the water, and thus effectually prevents it from becoming stagnant and impure.

They are made so as to be readily put in operation, even by experienced hands—can be put together at the Factory or be sent away in parts, as customers prefer; and they can be easily and cheaply transported to any part of the country.

He trusts the low prices for which he offers his Pumps, will be an inducement to those who want the article to give him a call.
