

The Lehigh Register.

Allentown, Pa.

THURSDAY, JULY 29, 1852.

Recollect the Agricultural meeting on Saturday next, at Trextertown. Every member should be in attendance.

Sunday School Pic Nic.

The Sunday School Pic Nic, of the Teachers and Pupils of the German Reformed and Lutheran congregations, came off on Saturday last. They turned out in large numbers to Eberhard's beautiful grove, near town.

Free Trade and Direct Taxation.

Turkey taxes all the produce of her agriculture and her shops with taxes and duties, amounting to from twenty to fifty per cent. on the cost of production.

We take the above from one of the journals of the day, desiring to call the attention of our readers to the beautiful effects of British free trade and direct taxation, a favorite subject of declamation among the Solons of our day.

A Thought for Capitalists.

The Delaware and Harlan Canal and Camden and Amboy Railroad Company have declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent, payable on and after the 17th inst., at the offices of the Company, in Philadelphia and at New York.

A Maryland Farmer.

The Eastern Star has the following account of the agricultural operations of Col. Edward Lloyd, at whose place, on the Wyo river, the trial of reaping machines came off last week.

Democratic Calculation.

The New York National Democrat says:—We will risk our small reputation for predicting future results correctly on the following table:

Includes entries for Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia, Wisconsin, and Total.

Whig Calculation.

Table with columns for State and Votes. Includes entries for Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Total.

Scott and Pierce in England.

The London Times, in an article upon the nomination of Gen. Scott, declares its preference for Gen. Pierce, and its ardent hopes for his success, in the following explicit terms:

The Tariff vs. Sugar Makers.

In reading over the Speech of the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, which by the by is pronounced by far the ablest delivered in Congress on the protective policy, the present session; we find the following new item, which accounts for the inactivity of the Tobacco business, of which we hear so much complaint of journeymen Sugar makers now a days.

Pottstown and Allentown.

Mr. Epton:—Are the citizens of Allentown content to lose the great, present, and still greater advantages ultimately by neglecting to have the terminus of the North Lehigh Railroad at your place?
