J. S. P. FAUST,
 TEACHER OF VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

Inform the public that he is prepared to give lessons in music to choirs, singing societies, glee associations and in private.
Also Lessons on the Violin.

The attention of the public is called particularly to his system of teaching upon the violin, which is designed especially to beginners. The course consists of 100 lessons with 28 extra lessons in the rudiments of music. The lessons are progressively arranged so as to gradually develop the talent of the pupil and are sure in their operation, as no pupil is dismissed until he can perform independently all the exercises embraced in the first course of lessons. The object of these lessons is not merely to learn the pupil to play a few tunes, but to give him a correct knowledge of the instrument, Bowing, Fingering, Tuning, after which he will be able to find his way through more difficult composition. Those persons wishing to take lessons, are assured that no music of a light or frivolous character will be introduced, but such as is calculated to elevate the taste and lay a correct foundation. Terms $5 00 for the course, 4 lessons can be given each day at alternate hours, and a lesson in the evening on the rudiments of music, or one lesson each day. But in no case will less than three lessons be given per week, nor to a less number than 5 persons at a time for the term above mentioned. Further information can be had by applying to the subscriber on the main street, near the Homeopathic building. June 10.
