Voice of Lehigh!
Democratic-Whig County Meeting.

In pursuance of public notice given by the Democratic Whig standing committee, a very large number of the citizens of Lehigh county assembled at the public house of Aaron Guth, in Guthsville, South Whitehall township, to consult together concerning the next election and the condition of the country in general. On motion the meeting was organized by appointing

C. W. WIEAND, Esq., President,
L. P. Unger, Samuel Horn, David Gold, Daniel Guth, Daniel Gross, Mij. Solomon Klein, William Getz, Henry Jarrett, Benjamin Hainse, Mij. Samuel Christ, Paul Bleiler, Michael Hausman, William Wucher, John Treichler and Aaron Butterweck, Vice Presidents.

OWEN L. SCHREIBER and LEVY HAAS officiated as Secretaries.

After the assemblage had been called to order and the object of the same had been stated, on motion a committee of thirty persons was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The following named persons constituted said committee: Reuben Guth, Thomas R. Brown, E. J. Balliet, Tilghman Good, Charles H. Reinhold, Charles Sell, Solomon R. Klein, Sol. B. Ritter, Isaac E. Chandler, William Yaeger, John Culbertson, Daniel Beisel, Edwin Keiper, William Wetherhold, Benjamin Ricker, Nathan Gehry, David Oswald, James Werly, Peter Weida, Stephen Kioz, Jacob Klaus, Gottfried Peter, John Custor, John Peter, Charles Seip, Solomon Butz, jr. James Singmaster, Gideon Klein, Sol. Kuder and Gid. on Yoder.

During the absence of the committee and after their return the meeting was addressed by CHARLES M. RUNK, Esq., in a talented speech, in which he clearly and in a lucid manner explained the origin of party names and party measures at the adoption of our National constitution, down to the present time, which called forth the loud applause of every hearer.

Preamble and Resolutions:

WHEREAS we in this free Republic enjoy the right to meet together in public meeting, whenever we consider it proper or necessary, not alone do we enjoy the right, but it is likewise our duty so to assemble, for the purpose of deliberating upon the general welfare of our country, as well as concerning the principles which separate the great political parties from each other, and concerning the selection of candidates for the different offices—we here therefore met, in accordance with our annual custom, in county meeting, thereby to assert our right and faithfully discharge that duty. Be it therefore

Resolved, that we are convinced that that sacred and most important charter, the Constitution of the United States, if properly and wisely carried into effect, is capable of protecting every part of the country, of securing the interests of all classes and of maintaining a National brotherhood among the respective States.

Resolved, that we here again declare our ardent, faithful, zealous and firm attachment to the Constitution of our country, and the Union of the States, which it has so beautifully associated and so long and prosperously maintained; and we also hereby cordially approve of the compromise measures passed by Congress, believing as we do, that through them alone a separation of this fair Confederacy was prevented.

Resolved, that now as ever, as a fundamental principle, we are in favor of the protection of American Agriculture, home Manufactures, and especially of all industrial interests of our country, by the imposition of a wise and equally adjusted tariff upon imports with incidental protection in favor of our own productions, whereby the farmer, the mechanic, and the laborer shall be assured a healthy and permanent market for his labor and his productions.

Resolved, that to obtain this protection we deem it the duty of the next Congress to repeal the Tariff act of 1816, which as experience has well taught us, our sorrow, does not afford just protection, but on the contrary favors free trade—and, as far as the necessity of the times demand, to restore the act of 1812, which operated so prosperously upon our country. And we consider it a duty to ourselves as well as to our fellow citizens to instruct our Representatives in Congress to use every legal and honorable exertion to effect such a change.

Resolved, that we view the Administration of President Fillmore with perfect satisfaction. He has safely guided the ship of state—he has faithfully guarded our interests—he has safely conducted our affairs through a fearful threatening of a dissolution of the Union—he has done every thing in his power to procure us the necessary and forgoing protection, but has been prevented from securing it, by the opposition members of Congress.

Resolved, that we are entirely satisfied with the Platform, which the Whig party of the United States erected in their National Convention at Baltimore in June last, because the same contains within itself principles for the preservation of the Union, and a predilection for a protective tariff. It is in our opinion a genuine American Democratic Republican, and not a British platform.

Resolved, that we receive with fervent pleasure the nomination of General Winfield Scott, as the candidate for the Presidency by that Convention, which has established the foregoing platform for its principles. In him we have a candidate, who for 40 years has performed innumerable services in the battle field and in every post of danger. Not alone because in this respect he has served his country, not alone because he has poured out his blood for us, for our country and for our interests do we desire to honor him with an election, but because in the capacity of a statesman, surrounded by the most delicate circumstances, he has given us proof of the highest talent, these together make every true heart warmly beat for him. And hence he shall receive our undivided support.

Resolved, that his opposers themselves at their Convention on Saturday last, in this county, were compelled to admit, that he is the bravest General of the times. Notwithstanding this, they have declared he is not fit for that station, to which declaration they themselves can give no credence, without bringing into disrespect the opinion of the late Gen. Jackson, and of Gen. Cass and of many other great men of their own party.

Resolved, that we regard with shame a part of a certain resolution, passed by the opposition on last Saturday, wherein it is declared, "that General Scott in case of his election, will appoint to office, only men of a certain stripe, who will endanger the welfare of our country, and rekindle the flame of slavery between the north and the south, and thereby bring the Union into danger." Shame on the pen that wrote down these thoughts, and upon him who held it!

Resolved, That this resolution of theirs is not proved. No sensible man can think this would be the case, and the convention itself did not believe it, of a man who has battled 40 years for his native land.

Resolved, That in WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, the candidate for the Vice-Presidency, we have a good Whig, Statesman and Patriot, a true and tried friend of the Union as it is, a man who if elected will fill that high station with honor to himself and the nation.

Resolved, That we also have other interests within our State to guard—that for years we have seen the public money, to raise which the hard working man has annually to pay a heavy tax, squandered on our State works, and distributed among party favorites; and that for the future we will support for Canal Commissioner only such men as we feel assured will not prove guilty of such offences.

Resolved, That in JACOB HOFFMAN, Esq., of Berks county, we recognize exactly the man for that office. That he is personally known to a majority of us as an active business man; that we are convinced should he be chosen to the Board, all squandering and favoritism would at once be terminated; and that we will thereupon use every proper means to secure his election.

Resolved, That in the Hon. JOSEPH BRYANTON, the Whig candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, we recognize a liberal minded and intelligent jurist; that should he be elected, an excellent and correct thinking citizen will enter upon that office and will do honor to the bench; that we are proud of having an opportunity to vote for such a man, and that we will zealously strive to elevate him to that honorable office.

Resolved, That we will look upon the election of Franklin Pierce to the presidency of the United States as a national evil; because in that case we can have no hope for a protective tariff, that the platform of his party does not contain within it the protective system, which platform he has endorsed and adopted as his principles, that the British press seeks to promote his election, a thing that would not be done were not favors expected in England in case of his election; and that we will therefore oppose his election, and by every honorable means.

Resolved, That in THOMAS ROSS, our Congressman, we have an unfaithful representative, for before his election he represented himself as a protective tariff man, but by his votes he has proved himself on that measure.

Resolved, that we are surprised to see that the opposition on Saturday last, in a resolution approve his course and express regret that his term of office has nearly expired, since it is known to them that he has acted directly against the interests of his constituents, and was consequently very far from being a Democratic representative.

Resolved, that that resolution is an exact contradiction of another resolution, in which the opposition again seek to humbug the people in relation to a tariff; because they wish to be understood that they are also in favor of protecting all classes—yet applaud the course of Thomas Ross, who supported the very opposite, which proves clearly that they are at heart opposed to a protective tariff. And who will believe that they are in favor of such a tariff, for they had during the last Congress a majority in both houses, and what were they then pass such an act?

Resolved, that we believe that the voters will no longer permit themselves to be humbugged; that whoever reads those two resolutions and hath ears to hear and eyes to see, must notice that they do not agree with each other; and that consequently, as has often been the case with our opponents, some deception lurks within.

Resolved, that we will by no means support any candidate at the coming election for Congress, whom we are not perfectly convinced is in favor of a protective system.

Resolved, that we this day appoint three Conferences, to meet the Conference of Berks county, at such time as the Whig County Meeting of said county may name, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, and we hereby bind ourselves to support said nomination with all our strength, provided the person so nominated agrees to the foregoing principles. The following gentlemen are appointed said conferences, viz: Ephraim Grim, Stephen Balliet, jr. and S. H. Lazier.

Resolved, that James S. Reese, Andrew K. Witman and James W. Fuller, are appointed Senatorial conferences, to meet the conference of Northampton county, at such time and place as may hereafter be agreed upon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the State Senate, which nomination shall receive our cordial support, if the nominee be in favor of economy in the public expenditures and a reduction of our State debt and thereby also in favor of a decrease of our burthensome state taxes.

Resolved, That Reuben Guth is hereby appointed a delegate, to represent this county in the next fourth of March State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Canal Commissioner—with power to appoint a substitute in case he shall not be able to attend.

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of this county which called this meeting hereby requested again to call a county meeting in the village of Catsaunqua, on Saturday the 18th day of September, at 10 o'clock A. M., further to consult respecting the organization of the Democratic Whig party, concerning the candidates already nominated, and such as may be nominated between this and that time, or such as may volunteer, and especially to adopt such measures as may be considered proper for the advancement of our principles.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers, and be published in the "Lehigh Patriot," "Register" and "Friedensbothe."

Thereupon the assembled multitude separated with three hearty cheers for Scott, Graham, a Protective Tariff and the Union.
