Eagle Hotel,

No. 139, North Third Street, BETWEEN RACE AND VINE, PHILADELPHIA.

CHARLES ALLMOND, Proprietor, DAVID STEIN,

These gentlemen take great pleasure to inform their friends and the public in general, that they have taken the above named well-known and deservedly popular situate in the most business part of the city, which they have fitted up with entirely new Furniture and Building of a superior quality.

EAGLE HOTEL,

The house has also been renovated and improved in a manner, which will compare favorably with the first class Hotels in the city, and cannot fail to give satisfaction to those who may patronize the establishment.

Their Table will always be supplied with the choicest and most wholesome provisions the market affords, and their Bar, with the purest and best liquors. The stabling belonging to their house, is good and extensive, and will be supplied with the best provender, and attended by careful hostlers.

Nothing in short, shall be left undone to make their Guests comfortable, and they flatter themselves, that by strict attention to business, they will merit and receive a liberal share of public encouragement.

Good Horses and Safe Vehicles!

Allentown Livery Establishment.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately purchased the "Livery Establishment" formerly owned by George Beisel. He has completely replenished the large stock of HORSES, CARRIAGES, &c.

His Horses are gentle and all good travellers; his vehicles mostly new and of the latest style, and such as have been used and repaired in the best manner. He continues the business at the old stand in William street, in the Borough of Allentown.

He will always be prepared to furnish his customers at the shortest possible notice with sure and gentle horses, good carriages and careful drivers if requested. Families can be suited at all times with vehicles to their particular taste.

His charges are reasonable, and in order to continue the high credit he has heretofore gained of being the "best livery establishment in Allentown," he will leave nothing undone to keep on hand the best and safest horses, the neatest and most splendid carriages, and sober and careful drivers.

His charges are very reasonable and hopes by strict attention to business to satisfy all those who may favor him with their custom.

Fort Allen House,

WEISSPORT, CARBON COUNTY, PA. BY GEO. MOYER.

THIS is a new, elegant and commodious house, erected on the site of old Fort Allen, with which are associated so many remembrances interesting to the antiquarian. It was opened for the accommodation of the public on the first of May, and affords means of entertainment for travellers and families, surpassed by none.

The rooms are large and airy, the adjacent walks and scenery spacious and delightful, and no pains will be spared to provide the guests with such rarities and delicacies as are come-at-able and render their stay agreeable.

The Stabling attached is large and convenient, and an attentive and faithful hostler will always be found at his post.
