Allentown Academy.

J. N. GREGORY, A. M., Principal.
Mrs. Emily Dunbar Gregory, Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music.
Miss Jane Gregory, Principal of the Female Department.

The Fall Term of this Institution will commence on Wednesday the first day of September next. In making this announcement the trustees cannot refrain from expressing their firm conviction that the Academy is now in most efficient hands. Better advantages in all the branches of a thorough education have never been offered to this community. The satisfactory result of the Spring term which has just closed, commenced and carried on as it was under embarrassing circumstances incident to the introduction of new preceptors and a comparatively new system has convinced us that the Institution will ere long become one of the best in Pennsylvania. Parents wishing a school where their children will be well governed and correctly taught the English language, where their sons will be well prepared for College or Mercantile life, will do well to patronize this our own Institution.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.
The Academical year, commencing the first day in September, is divided into four terms of eleven weeks each. The vacations are as follows, one week at Christmas, two weeks at Easter, and five weeks preceding the first of September.

French, per term $5 00
Music, " " 8 00
Use of Piano, " 2 00
Fuel for the winter, 50

Pupils who remain less than two terms will be charged one dollar per term in addition to the above prices.

No pupil will be received for any period less than one term.

Pupils, at the commencement of each subsequent term, will be expected to give notice to the Principal, if they do not intend to remain during the whole of it, otherwise they will be charged for the whole.

Deductions for absence will be made only when caused by sickness, and extending through one-half of a term.

Tuition bills should be settled at the end of each term; no bills must remain unsettled longer than two terms.

The Opposition to Gen. Scott.

It is something for the friends of Gen. Scott to boast of, that in the ranks of his opponents, are found the extreme of the Free Soil party of the North, and Secession party of the South—the former led on by no less a personage than Martin Van Buren, and the latter by Mr. Senator Soule, of Louisiana. There is this difference, however, in their opposition:—the Free Soil faction have never ventured to attack Gen. Scott, on the ground of his opinions being even doubtful on the Compromise—they attack him and oppose him because, as the Boston Commonwealth (the leading journal of the party in the New England States) well insists, he is proven to have been more emphatically in favor of those measures than Gen. Pierce, and may more securely be relied on to uphold and support them.

The Free Soil faction are honest in this—they do Gen. Scott but simple justice in so opposing him, and their opposition ought to recommend him to the friends of the Union every where. And yet Mr. Soule, and others of his school, are uniting with these Free Soilers to defeat Gen. Scott's election, they insisting, in these words of the Free Soilers, that Gen. Scott is not sound on the Compromise!

But we do Mr. Soule injustice in thus ranking him among the friends of the Union. He is a Secessionist—an opponent of the Union as it is—and, therefore his opposition to Gen. Scott who prepared to risk his all for the perpetuation of that Union, is natural, and can only be ascribed from the motive that controls him to his unfriendliness to the Union. When, however he deceives his own mind—we must suppose that it is not a mere affectation—into the belief that Gen. Scott is not the man that the South can rely on in any emergency that may arise involving her constitutional rights he puts himself against the record of facts and undertakes to impugn the testimony of men of the South, who have shown by their whole lives that they deserve the confidence of that people and have received it.

The public mind at the South, which for a time seemed to be disturbed and unsettled by the bold face with which these imputation upon Gen. Scott were made has patiently investigated the facts for itself, and we see the result in the enthusiasm and earnestness with which Gen. Scott's election is now supported in States, where but two months ago, his opponents boasted that he had nothing to expect. How this feeling is showing itself, we have gratifying evidence in a letter from Senator Morton, of Florida, addressed to the Whigs of that State. Senator Morton, when he wrote the letter, was in Washington, and after demonstrating by argument and an array of facts that the South he doing injury to itself if it did not vote for Gen. Scott, he then speaks of the prospect before us:

It affords me much gratification to assure you that at this place, the great focus of information, we receive from all sections of the Union the most cheering news as to the prospect of the election of our ticket. The spirit of '40 and '48 animates the Whigs of all sections of the country; disensions, if any there were, have been healed; personal jealousies have been buried and forgotten; their march is onward to success in the pending canvass, with the watch-words, "the Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union!"

This is it, there is an Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union, and they will triumph as they did in 1840 and 1848.

Nebraska Territory.

Westward the Star of Empire takes its way." Another territory, is about to be added to the United States by the organization of a local government, and the election of a delegate to Congress. The people of the territory of Nebraska, feeling that their interests would be better attended to, if represented in the Congress of the United States, have determined, we understand, to elect a delegate, probably in time to take his seat in the next House of Representatives.

We have for some time anticipated that this would be done. The settlers have been anxious that a territorial government should be extended over them.—Their population is increasing and if the Indian title to a portion of the land on our border was extinguished, or the Indians themselves were incorporated into the Union as citizens, there ought to be no difficulty in arranging the boundaries of the new territory.—But whether the Indians are embraced or not there is territory enough belonging to the United States to sustain a large population. Much of it is the finest land any where to be found and all that is necessary to secure its early settlement is to have the requisite surveys made, and the privilege of pre-emption guaranteed.

As to some of the Indian Tribes, many of those who compose them are already better prepared to exercise the rights which belong to citizenship, than the Mexicans. They are educated on a large scale, are wealthy, and understand our theory of Government quite as well as many who attempt to expound it. No one can object to their immediate admission as citizens, if they should desire to give up their primitive forms of government for one which will embrace protection to the whole population.

Precedents are not wanting for this action of the people of the new territory. The first official notice of the organization of a territory in Minnesota, was the appearance of a delegate to Congress, asking admission to a seat in the House. New Mexico and Utah elected delegates before any action of Congress was had in relation to those territories and the delegates were received. So we presume, it will be with Nebraska territory, if the people should determine upon the election of a delegate. There is no stopping this rush of people to the West and Congress will be only acting a wise part, if they should at an early day, provide for the protection of the Indian in Nebraska territory—guaranteeing to them their rights in the land owned by them, if they should determine to identify themselves as citizens of the Union, or of making provision for the purchase of so much of the soil as they desire to alienate.—St. Louis Republican.

Spirit of the Campaign.

OHIO.
MEDINA, October 14.—We have gained at this election in this county on the vote of Cass in 1845, about six or seven hundred votes; and yet there are many who voted the Loco ticket at this election who will vote for SCOTT at the next.

WADSWORTH, October 15.—Our State election is just over, and, as we expected, report says it has gone Loco by a small majority. This, however, is no indication of the result in November, as within my own personal acquaintance I know of forty-nine Democrats who will vote for SCOTT, and who could not be induced to vote for our State ticket. If this is any indication of public sentiment through the country at large, our State will go for SCOTT. Hurrah for SCOTT!

TENNESSEE.
BROWNSVILLE, October 8.—I will say that the signs are all right in Tennessee; the State will doubtless go for SCOTT by a decided majority. This preference for Mr. Fillmore was as strong here as perhaps any where in the Union; but as the contest is between Scott and Pierce, but few Whigs (and I may say none who deserve the name) find any grounds upon which to halt. You will hear a good account of us on the 2d of November.

NASHVILLE, October 8.—Whigs offer to bet freely on General Scott's carrying Tennessee; but the Democrats will not bet on this State. I know an instance on which, on the day Governor Jones spoke here, a Democratic partizan of intelligence, and one who bets much on elections, making some exciting remarks to a Whig, the Whig offered to bet $2,000 to $1,000 that Tennessee would vote for SCOTT and GRAHAM, which the Democrat accepted, but afterwards tried ineffectually to get out of it. I think we will carry the State from five to six thousand, and we may say by ten thousand majority.

The Iowa Prospect in Iowa.

The Iowa City Republican of the 29th September, says—We have just returned from a trip through the counties of Muscatine, Cedar, Scott, Clinton, Jackson, Dubuque, Jones and Linn, and we assure our readers every where that the strength of SCOTT and GRAHAM is constantly on the increase wherever we have been. The Whigs are in high spirits, and working faithfully.—Democrats are flocking to the broad and proud banner of General Scott by hundreds. We say this in no vain spirit of boasting.—Not a single township were we in, where the Whigs could not count a greater or less number of voters that have heretofore adhered to the Democratic party, who now declare their determination to go for Scott and Graham, internal improvements and protection to American industry. The Locos are frightened, and are putting forth their whole strength in order to try and save a remnant of their party to serve as a nucleus around which they can hereafter gather for future operations.

There is not a single well informed man among them but what believes that SCOTT will be elected. They are only fighting and blustering now to keep up appearances. They are whistling to keep their courage up. Poor fellows, we pity them. Their constantly accumulating batch of slanderous falsehoods against the brave old war-worn hero will not avail them. The people understand their object and only adhere the closer to the nation's favorite.

We again say to the friends of correct principles throughout the young and growing State of Iowa, to stand fast, keep your armor bright, show a firm and undaunted front, and work faithfully from now until the evening of the 2d of November next, and you will have the proud satisfaction of seeing little Iowa enrolled among the bright galaxy of States that go for General WINFIELD SCOTT.

HON. DAVID OUTLAW, M. C., from North Carolina, has come out for SCOTT!
