Good Horses and Safe Vehicles!

Allentown Livery Establishment.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately purchased the "Livery Establishment" formerly owned by George Beisel. He has completely replenished the large stock of HORSES, CARRIAGES, &c. His Horses are gentle and all good travellers; his vehicles mostly new and of the latest style, and such as have been used are repaired and repainted in the best manner. He continues the business at the old stand in William street, in the Borough of Allentown.

He will always be prepared to furnish his customers at the shortest possible notice with sure and gentle horses, good carriages and careful drivers if requested. Families can be suited at all times with vehicles to their particular taste.

His charges are reasonable, and in order to continue the high credit he has heretofore gained of being the "best livery establishment in Allentown," he will leave nothing undone to keep on hand the best and safest horses, the neatest and most splendid carriages, and sober and careful drivers.

His charges are very reasonable and hopes by strict attention to business to satisfy all those who may favor him with their custom.

Great Hat, Cap and Fur Store IN ALLENTOWN.

Wm. Keck,

Truly thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him by his friends, and a generous public, requests a continuation of that patronage from them and that they should now call, and examine the most extensive stock of HATS, CAPS AND FURS, that has ever been brought to the public, at his established and lately refitted Hat Emporium, one door East of Schnurman's Store, in west Hamilton street.

He has just returned from the City of Phila., with the latest Fall style of Hats and Caps of all kinds and varieties.

The Ladies he would particularly invite to an examination of his new and select stock of Furs; consisting of MUFFS, BOAS AND TIPPETS, of Pitch, Lynx, Genet, Stone-martin, Silver-martin and Siberian Furs, Swans-down, all splendid in quality, superb in appearance, and cheap in price.

The people of this neighborhood, have found it expensive to go to the great neighboring cities. Hereafter, to think themselves in either of them, will be very cheap. They will merely have to call into the above mentioned Hat store, observe the late improvements, and hear of the uncommonly low price, when at once, their imagination will impress them with the belief that they stand in one of the best and cheapest Hat stores of New York or Philadelphia.

Call, see, examine, judge, inspect, choose, price, and buy for yourselves. TO HUNTERS.—Highest cash prices paid for all kind of furs.

EMPORIUM OF FASHION!

Edward Stetter,

Takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has opened a new and fashionable

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, in Allentown, in the new building of Mr. Peter Weikel, corner of Market Square and Allen street, where he will be ready to receive those who may favor him with their custom, to whom he will feel grateful.

He is in the regular receipt of the Fashion Plates, after which he cuts and makes up; he superintends himself, and can therefore stand good for the work he turns out, and his prices will be cheaper than at any other establishment in town.

He returns his thanks to his old customers, and feels confident that the durability of his work and the moderate prices will induce a further continuance of their support. November 24, 1852.

BABLE HOTEL.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the newly erected three story brick tavern of Jesse Grim, at the north west corner of Market Square, in the Borough of Allentown, called

THE EAGLE HOTEL.

The House is known as one of the most spacious and convenient in the State—none more so out of Philadelphia—and contains 41 rooms. He therefore feels assured that he can accommodate satisfactorily all who may favor him with a call.

His TABLE shall at all times be supplied with the best of the season and the markets afford, and the BAR with the choicest Wines and Liquors.

The Beds and Bedding, together with all his furniture being entirely new, the patrons of this house may rely upon finding those two great essentials—cleanliness and comfort.

The Stabling is large and commodious, and as he will have none but kind and attentive Outlets a due regard will be had to the proper entertainment of the House as well as his master.

In short, the subscriber intends to spare neither pains nor expense to keep his house in the best manner, and he therefore respectfully invites the public to give him a liberal share of patronage.

BOARDERS will be taken on reasonable terms, and as the rooms are spacious and well adapted to their wants, they can be accommodated in a satisfactory manner. Families from town or county accommodated with Boarding. JAMES W. ESBACH. Allentown, Nov. 24, 1852.
