During the past summer the undersigned—directly opposite the German Reformed Church in Allentown—has materially enlarged and beautifully finished his Store room, and in order to make his assortment of

He flatters himself to believe that in beauty and assortment his establishment cannot be surpassed in any country town in the state. The public is invited to call and then to judge for themselves.

He continues to repair Watches and Clocks, and since he keeps none but the very best of workmen, he can afford to warrant them for one year.
