

New Dry Goods Store In Philadelphia,

No. 253 NORTH 2d STREET.

Thomas Y. Landes, takes great pleasure to inform his circle of friends and former customers, that he has taken the well known Store, No. 253, North Second Street, formerly occupied by Simon R. Snyder, opposite the Black Horse Tavern, Philadelphia. He is prepared with a well selected and entire new and fashionable Stock of Dry Goods, consisting in part of French and American Cloths, French Casimers, and a large Stock of other Goods for Gentlemen's wear.

He also invites his Lady customers when they visit the city to give him a call and examine his beautiful stock of Silks, Delaines, Berage Delaines, &c., in short he keeps a full assortment of every kind of goods belonging to the retail Dry Goods business.

He trusts that by strict attention to business he will be able to gain a liberal share of public patronage.

Don't forget the place, call at No. 253, North Street, directly opposite the Black Horse Tavern, and you will find your obedient friend.

Hope's Express,

Among the various Expresses that have recently extended their operations, and entered upon a new field of enterprise, we know none which is more hopeful than Hope's New-Jersey and Pennsylvania Express, via Central Rail Road of New Jersey. This road extends from New York to Easton, Pa., and runs through a splendid country—affording an avenue to the interior of Pennsylvania hitherto closed up. The superiority of this market for buying and selling goods is bringing a large amount of trade here, which formerly went to Philadelphia. The advantage of Hope's Express, by which merchandise of all descriptions can be forwarded promptly, when fully realized on the above route, will insure a complete success and prosperity. A. D. Hope has made arrangements with the Central R. R. Co. and various Stage proprietors to sell Tickets through to Wilkesbarre, Mauch Chunk, Reading, &c., at reduced fares.

Office of Hope's Express, in Allentown, at the Variety Store of AARON WINT, who will attend to the forwarding of all packages.

EAGLE HOTEL.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the newly erected three story brick tavern of Jesse Grim, at the north west corner of Market Square, in the Borough of Allentown, called

THE EAGLE HOTEL.
The House is known as one of the most spacious and convenient in the State—none more so out of Philadelphia—and contains 44 rooms. He therefore feels assured that he can accommodate satisfactorily all who may favor him with a call.

His TABLE shall at all times be supplied with the best of the season and the market afford, and the Bar with the choicest Wines and Liquors.

The Beds and Bedding, together with all his furniture being entirely new, the patrons of this house may rely upon finding those two great essentials—cleanliness and comfort.

The Stabling is large and commodious, and as he will have none but kind and attentive Ostlers a due regard will be had to the proper entertainment of the House as well as his master.

In short, the subscriber intends to spare neither pains nor expense to keep his house in the best manner, and he therefore respectfully invites the public to give him a liberal share of patronage.

BOARDERS will be taken on reasonable terms, and as the rooms are spacious and well adapted to their wants, they can be accommodated in a satisfactory manner. Families from town or county accommodated with Boarding.

What can be got for Five Dollars!

The undersigned have entered into an arrangement by which they agree to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, (monthly,) the Home Journal, (weekly,) and the Musical World and Times, (weekly,) to new subscribers, at the very moderate price of five dollars a year for the three publications; all orders, enclosing that amount to Dyer & Willis, will be promptly attended to.

SAMUEL HUESTON,
Published of the Knickerbocker, MORRIS & WILLIS.
Publishers of the Home Journal, DYER & WILLIS.

Publishers of the Musical World & Times, No. 257 Broadway, New York.

GRAND LITERARY and ARTISTIC COMBINATION.
Arrangements have been made to furnish the KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE, the HOME JOURNAL, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year! This is cheap literature with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age, which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by LEWIS GAYLORD CLARK, it is unnecessary to speak. For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which proceeded it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris, and N. P. Willis, is well known as the best family newspaper in America; and the Musical World and Times, edited by Richard Storrs Willis, with Lowell Mason, Geo. H. Curtis, Thomas Hastings, Wm. B. Bradbury, Geo. F. Root, and other musical writers contributing; and which gives, among other things over $25 worth of music and a full course of instruction in harmony annually, is the very best musical Journal, ever published. These three publications will post a family up in regard to nearly everything worth knowing; Art, Science, Literature; Music, Painting, Sculpture; Inventions, Discoveries; Wit, Humor, Fancy, Sentiment; Newest Fashions and other attractions for Ladies; Choice New Music for the Sabbath, the Church and the Fireside; Reviews and Criticisms of Musical Works, Performers and Performances; in short the very pick and cream of Novelty, Incident, History, Biography, Art, Literature, and Science; including whatever can be given in periodicals to promote Healthy Amusement and Solid Instruction in the family, and help to make it Better, Wiser and Happier, may be obtained for five dollars. Address DYER & WILLIS, 257 Broadway.

Editors publishing the above three times, and sending the papers containing it to Dyer & Willis, will receive the three works named, for one year.

Good Horses and Safe Vehicles!
Allentown
Livery Establishment.
The subscribers take this method to inform their friends and the public in general, that they have entered into partnership in the Livery Business, in the stable formerly owned by George Beisel. They have an entire new stock of HORSES, CARRIAGES, &c. Their Horses are gentle and all good travellers; their vehicles mostly new and of the latest style, and such as have been used are repaired and repainted in the best manner. They continue the business at the old stand in William street, in the Borough of Allentown.

They will always be prepared to furnish their customers at the shortest possible notice with safe and gentle horses, good carriages and careful drivers if requested. Families can be suited at all times with vehicles to their particular taste. Their charges are reasonable, and in order to continue their high credit they heretofore gained by being the "best livery establishment in Allentown," they will leave nothing undone to keep on hand the best and safest horses, the neatest and most splendid carriages, and sober and careful drivers. Their charges are very reasonable and hope by strict attention to business to satisfy all those who may favor them with their custom.

The People's Store Revived!
A General Removal.
J. W. GRUBB, would respectfully inform the citizens of Allentown and vicinity, that he has removed his store into the house latterly occupied by C. H. Samson, as a Store, opposite Hagenbuch's Hotel, and so extensively known as

The People's Store, where he will be pleased as ever to accommodate all who will please favor him with a call. His stock consists as ever, of a great variety of the most desirable goods.
Ladies Dress Goods,
Of every quality and price, such as De laines, Cashmires, Cobergs, Thibet Cloths, French Morinos, Alpaccas both plain, black and fancy colored, Dress Silks of every variety, together with a general assortment in that line of goods. Also mourning goods of every description.
Men and boy's wears such as Cloths, Casimers, Sattinets, Jeans and Youth Plaids. Also a general assortment of Flannels, both wool and cotton, apron and bed checks, Manchester Ginghams, Muslins, Drillings, Cambrics, Calicoes, &c., &c., all of which will be sold at reduced prices. So please give him a call and see for yourselves at the well known corner of

The People's Store.
He also returns his most sincere thanks to the public for the liberal share of patronage bestowed upon him heretofore, and hopes by strict attention to business, and studying to please each and every one, both old and young, grave and gay, to merit a continuance of the same.
