

Sale of the Public Works.

The following resolutions were adopted at the Democratic county meeting in Berks. They speak the honest sentiments of a people who have been only too willing to take it for granted that all was right and all was well.

Murder Case in Chester County.

We glean from the West Chester (Pa.) Jeffersonian, the following particulars of the trial of Thomas Slyder, convicted of the murder of Peter Cork. It will be seen that both parties were colored men. The murderer (who professes to have been concerned in the Christiana murders) was induced to commit this atrocious act by his attachment to the wife of the deceased.

AN EXTRAORDINARY MAN.

—David Wilson, an old revolutionary soldier, and a native of New-Jersey, died, after a short illness, in Dearborn County, Indiana, in August 1833, aged one hundred and seven years, two months, and ten days. He had, at different periods of his life, five wives, and, at the time of his death, was the father of forty-seven children!

THE NAME OF LOLA MONTEZ.

—From the following announcement of the marriage of this notorious personage, it will be seen that she is not deficient in names. If to these enemies and admirers applied to her, we think even this long list would be considerably increased:

Gold Discoveries in Oregon.

The following letter from Captain Wm. Tichenor, formerly of Newark, N. J., communicates to the Advertiser of that city, intelligence of new discoveries of gold in Oregon, which have not been stated elsewhere. The same letter mentions that J. S. Gamble, also formerly of Newark, had previously left Port Oxford:

Pour Oxford, Oregon Territory,

March 1st, 1853.

This is a beautiful country, and is settling very fast. There are a great number of men employed here in getting out timber for the San Francisco market. It is mostly white cedar, the most beautiful wood I ever saw. There is a great abundance of it in this section of Oregon, but there is very little in the other sections. It surpasses white pine, and sells, in San Francisco, in the square hewn form, for more than the ready sawed Oregon lumber. There is a very large Indian trade, and there are generally from ten to thirty in one place at a time. Outer skins are worth here from $50 to $100 per skin. A person here with a 50 horse engine, lath and planing machine, two upright and one circular saw, which would cost about $8000, could make about $100,000 a year. The price for lumber dressed per M. would not exceed $15, and the freight from here to San Francisco $15, making an expense of $31; the lumber will sell for $90, and thus a profit of $59 will be made per M. If there should be only $30 profit, a smart and industrious man could make $75,000 a year. There is no timber on this side of the continent at this time of the kind, and Eastern manufacturers cannot ship it and sell it for less than $35 per M. I am now washing out gold at the rate of ten dollars an hour. Two others by the side of me, with the assistance of a squaw, (for an Indian man is not worth his food) are making $50 a day. We will have thousands of inhabitants here in a few months, as gold is everywhere in this vicinity. All the soldiers in the garrison are at work, making from $20 a day and upwards, but none less than $16. No person would work for the gold, until my partner tried, and after two or three hours' work he was offered $35 for what was in his machine, which he took. The next day he worked about four hours, and again sold his sand for $40. On investigation it was found that he had sold $60 worth of gold for $35, and $80 worth for $40. We have taken out $80 worth in two hours and forty minutes, then let escape $10 worth. This was the first mining done here, and now it is ascertained that it will yield a rich reward, everywhere along the beach.

MURDER OF A SON BY HIS FATHER.

—Isaac Cox, of Sassafras Neck, was committed to Eilton jail, in Cecil county, Maryland, last week, charged with the murder of his own son, a lad between fifteen and sixteen years of age. It appears that the boy interfered to prevent strife between his father and mother, when the father turned upon the boy, who fled, but was overtaken, knocked lifeless by a blow with a stick, and his throat cut from ear to ear. It is the impression of some that Cox is insane.

FEARFUL DEATH.

—About four weeks since a Mr. Boyington, of Oberlin, O., was killed by a stallion. The horse was seized with a fit of madness caught the man in his mouth, and threw him into the air. When he struck the ground, the horse jumped upon him with his fore feet, seized him by the head, and broke his neck short off, severing the jugular vein with his teeth.

THE ERICSSON ENGINE.

—Silliman's Journal thus sums up its advantages and disadvantages: 1. That Ericsson's Hot Air Engine, as compared with the condensing marine steam engine, in its most economical operation, has shown the ability to do the same work with the use of from one-sixth to one-third less fuel; and that if its full estimated power should hereafter be developed the saving would be 70 per cent. 2. That for the same actual power its weight is about three times as great as that of the marine engine, and that if its estimated power should be obtained, its weight would be as much as 30 per cent. greater. 3. That in respect to the space occupied by the engines and coal, the advantage is decidedly in favor of the steam engine. 4. That the great weight of the engine, in proportion to the power developed, must prevent, for the present, the realization of a high speed in the propulsion of vessels. At the same time it is to be admitted that the full estimated power is inadequate to the production of high velocities. Time alone can decide the question, whether or not this maximum power is really attainable. 5. The great weight of the engine and space occupied by it, in its present form, will, in all probability, prevent its adoption for purposes of inland navigation and railroad locomotion, in preference to the steam engine.

COOKING EGG PLANTS.

—As we shall now in the course of a few weeks, have this excellent vegetable in season, we publish in advance the following mode of cooking the Egg plant in the South, which we find in a monthly agricultural publication, called the Soil of the South:

Are you fond of stewed oysters? If so, we will give you a dish equal to the Mobile Bay oysters. First, peel the fruit, and slice it thin, boil it in salt and water until thoroughly done. Now drain off the water, cover it with sweet milk, crumble in some toasted bread and crackers, with pepper, and such other condiments as the taste may dictate. Now break in two or three eggs, and as it simmers over the fire, stir all together; as soon as the egg begins to harden the metamorphosis is complete, the oysters are ready for the table.

To fry the Egg plant, they should be first peeled and parboiled, then dipped into batter and dropped into boiling lard—taking care to season them properly before frying. —Daily Pennsylvanian.

TOUCHING CASE OF CONJUGAL AFFECTION.

A touching case, illustrative of conjugal love occurred at Memphis, Tenn., a few days since. A man and his wife were coming up the river, when the husband took sick and was supposed to have died. When they arrived at that city, the wife had a coffin purchased, and her husband was deposited in that last home of the dead. Just before the moment of closing the coffin, however, and the final interment of the deceased the bereaved and agonised wife insisted upon once more looking upon and embracing the cold remains of the deceased partner of her bosom. Whether it was her warm embrace or returning consciousness, certain it is that the supposed corpse suddenly evinced signs of life, and the proper restoratives being applied, within twenty-four hours the invalid was enabled to proceed on his journey, with every prospect of a speedy recovery, owing his life to the untiring devotion and love of his true and faithful wife.

SENSIBLE AND PATRIOTIC.

—The Pottstown Ledger, Democratic in politics, but edited by one of nature's noblemen—an honest fearless and independent man, who has principles of his own, a mind to comprehend them, and the independence to speak out—thinks it is due to the Democratic party to make known its position on the banking question more explicitly than it has yet done. It asks: "Is it democratic or not to favor the chartering of new banks? If it is, let the anti-bank tirades cease to be a common staple in the market among Democratic papers. If it is not, let the Conventions say so in plain terms. Is the party opposed to re-chartering old banks? If it is, let the fact be asserted. If not, let it be as distinctly understood."
