Sanders' School Books.

The subscribers who are largely engaged in the publication of School and other Books, have lately made arrangements for the Publication of one of the best Series of School Books,—being seven in number,—ever published in this State. They are calculated for the gradual progression of the pupil in the ordinary branches of popular education. The illustrations are admirably adopted and cannot fail to fix the mind upon sound moral principles which is ever the foundation of a good education.

On the whole they believe Sanders' series of School Books by far the most complete, that has ever been published and would respectfully recommend them for adoption in all the free schools in the State.

Spring and Summer Goods.

The undersigned, residing in Mechanicsboro, South Whitehall township, Lehigh county, respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has purchased the entire

and has done business since the 21st of April last in his own name. He will be happy to see his old friends and acquaintances give him a call, as he has just returned from Philadelphia, with a large and well selected stock, consisting in part of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queens-ware, Hardware, Fish, Salt, in short, every article that is found in a well fitted country store, and which with his stock on hand, makes a large assortment of Goods, such as is but seldom found in country Stores, and which will be sold under the adopted motto of "small profits and quick sales."

All kinds of country produce will be taken in exchange at the highest market price. He returns his sincere thanks for the favors heretofore received and will strive to merit a continuance of the same hereafter. All those who know themselves indebted in the Storebooks of Miller and Minnich, will please call at the store for settlement of their accounts.

Livery Establishment.

THE subscribers take this method to inform their friends and the public in general, that they have entered into partnership in the Livery Business, in the stable formerly owned by George Beisel. They have an entire new stock of HORSES, CARRIAGES, &c.

Their Horses are gentle and all good travellers; their vehicles mostly new and of the latest style, and such as have been used are repaired and repainted in the best manner. They continue the business at the old stand in William street, in the Borough of Allentown.

They will always be prepared to furnish their customers at the shortest possible notice with safe and gentle horses, good carriages and careful drivers if requested. Families can be suited at all times with vehicles to their particular taste.

Their charges are reasonable, and in order to continue their high credit they heretofore gained of being the "best livery establishment in Allentown," they will leave nothing undone to keep on hand the best and safest horses, the neatest and most splendid carriages, and sober and careful drivers.

Their charges are very reasonable and hope by strict attention to business to satisfy all those who may favor them with their custom.

An Ordinance

For the preservation of the Health of the Borough of Catasauqua.

Whereas experience hath shown that it is necessary in all populous communities to enforce by law an observance of those sanitary regulations without which diseases of the most dangerous character are either generated, or their virulence greatly aggravated.— Therefore

Be it ordained and enacted by the authority of the corporation of the Borough of Catasauqua, in Town Council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same.

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the occupant of every house within the limits of the Borough in the month of May, in each and every year to cleanse the cellars thereof of all dirt, decayed vegetable or other impure matter, calculated to generate disease and to cause them to be thoroughly whitewashed with fresh lime; and also to cause the privy vaults attached to such houses to be purified by putting therein at least one bushel of quick lime, during the month of June in each and every year; and every such person neglecting or refusing to comply with and observe the provisions of this section, shall, on conviction thereof pay a fine of five dollars for the use of the Borough with full costs.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the occupant of every house fronting on or adjoining any street or alley, that has been graded, curbed and guttered, in accordance with the Borough regulations to keep the gutter in front of his or her house, or lot, free from all stagnant water or other impurities, under the penalty of one dollar for each and every day that the same shall be allowed to remain uncleansed, to be recovered for the use of the Borough as fines of like amount are recoverable.

SEC. 3. No person or persons shall cast, carry, draw out or lay the carcass or dead body of any fowl, or any filth from privy, vaults &c. on any part of the commons of this Borough, or on or near any of the streets, lanes or alleys within the Borough, without burying the same at least four feet below the level surface of the ground, under the penalty of one dollar, in addition to the costs of removing or burying the same, to be recovered as herein provided for the use of the Borough, with full costs.

SEC. 4. No person shall erect any hog pen or permit any manure or filth of any kind to accumulate on that part of any lot within the Borough adjoining any street or alley thereof (the side walk of which have been graded and paved for the use of the public) without inclosing and separating the same from the street, by a close fence of boards or other suitable material, at least seven feet high, and so constructed as to prevent the escape of any filth or impure water therefrom into the street, under the penalty of three dollars, to be recovered as herein provided for the use of the Borough with costs, and on a second or other conviction for the same offence the additional sum of one dollar per day, for each day, that has elapsed since his or her conviction.

SEC. 5. If any distiller, chandler, soap-maker, butcher or other person within this Borough, or their workmen or servants shall at any time hereafter discharge or permit any impure, nauseous or offensive liquid to flow into any street, lane or alley, within this Borough, or to collect, any stale, putrid fat, oil, garbage or filth whatsoever, in or near his, or her distillery, workshop, or slaughter house, between the first day of April and the last day of October, he or she, so offending, shall forfeit and pay on conviction thereof the sum of five dollars, to be recovered for the use of the Borough with full costs.

SEC. 6. If any person shall sell or offer for sale within the limits of the Borough the flesh of any animal that has come to its death by disease or accident or that has been sick or diseased, at the time of its being slaughtered, or within one month previous thereto, or the flesh of any calf that has been killed under the age of twenty-eight days, any blown meat, or other impure or unhealthy article of provisions, he or she, so offending, shall forfeit and pay for the use of the Borough the sum of ten dollars with full costs.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of every adult, and every parent, guardian or master of every minor, residing within the limits of the Borough, who has not had the small pox, or been vaccinated so as to have taken the cow pox regularly, to be, if not vaccinated, or in the case of a minor, to cause such minor to be vaccinated between the first day of April and the last day of May, under the penalty of one dollar to be recovered for the use of the Borough, with full costs, unless unable to do so by reason of poverty, and it shall be lawful for any regular physician residing in the Borough on application of such resident, adult, or the parent, master or guardian of such resident minor as are unable by reason of poverty to pay the vaccination fee, to vaccinate such adult or minor, at any time during the months above mentioned, and present his bills therefor, properly authenticated for an amount not exceeding the fee usually charged for such services, and recover the same of and from the corporation.

SEC. 8. It shall hereafter be the duty of every practising physician within this Borough, to report to the Burgess forthwith, the existence of any case of small pox, scarletina, or other contagious or malignant disease, within the school limits of the Borough, on receipt of which report the Burgess shall immediately notify the teacher or principal of every school, academy and seminary, in the Borough, requesting said Teacher or Principal to dispense with the attendance of all pupils residing in the family in which such disease exists. And any Physician teacher or principal of any school, academy or seminary within this Borough neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this enactment, or who shall after such notice receive into his or her institution any pupil from or out of any family in which such disease has been so as aforesaid reported to exist, until notified by the attending Physician that the same has disappeared or caused to be dangerous, shall on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay for the use of the Borough the sum of ten dollars with full costs.

SEC. 9. No privy shall hereafter be erected within the limits of the Borough unless the vault or cellar thereof has been dug or sunk to the depth of at least eight feet from the surface of the ground, nor any now erected, continued in use (without being cleansed) after the contents thereof shall have reached two feet from the surface, under the penalty of five dollars, to be recovered for the use of the Borough with full costs.

SEC. 10. On complaint made to the Burgess, that any inhabitant permit any offensive or unhealthy nuisance to be and remain on his or her lands or possession, the said Burgess is hereby authorized and empowered to direct the street commissioners and high constable to enter peaceably and view the matter or cause of complaint and make true report thereof in writing to the Burgess, who after hearing the same shall order and direct the high Constable to give at least twenty-four hours notice to the possessor of the said lands to remove or abate the said nuisance, and if the said possessor does not within that time begin to abate or remove the said nuisance, and to continue on until the same is done, it shall and may be lawful for the Burgess to issue his precept to the high Constable, directing him to take with him one or more of the street commissioners of the Borough, and as many other persons as may be necessary, with implements, and enter into the said land peaceably to remove or abate the same.

SEC. 11. The high Constable shall keep a just and true amount of the expenses of removing or abating the said nuisance, which expenses, provided they shall appear just and reasonable, he shall be entitled to recover from the possessor of the said land, in an action in his own name before the Burgess, with costs of suit.

SEC. 12. If any person or persons shall think themselves aggrieved by the report of the high Constable, he, she, or they may appeal to the council, a majority of whom are hereby authorized to bear and determine the same, provided notice of the said appeal be given either in person or by writing to the chairman of the council within twelve hours after notice given to remove or abate the said nuisance, and the chairman of the council is hereby required to summon the council, for the purpose of hearing and determining the said appeal.

Enacted into an ordinance at Catasauqua, July 25, 1853.

DAVID THOMAS, Burgess.
ATTEST—Owen Rice, Sec.
