

Pennsylvania Clothing Hall.

Breinig, Neligh and Breinig,
South East corner of Hamilton and Seventh Street, Allentown.

Inform their friends and the public in general, that they have entered into Partnership in the Merchant Tailoring Business, lately followed by Neligh and Breinig, and intend to continue the same more extensive than ever. They therefore adopt this measure to inform their old customers, and "hundreds of new ones," that they will at their new establishment, present the Newest and Fashionable Goods, ever brought to this place, and having purchased in Philadelphia and New York

For Cash, it enables them to sell lower than any other establishment of the kind in Allentown. They have selected their Goods with an eye to durability and fancy, and have none but the latest styles in the market. Their stock of Goods among other articles, consist of Cloths of all colors and prices, Cassimers, Vestings, Silk Velvets, Satins, Silks, Worsted and other descriptions, figured and plain, Shirts and Shirt-collars, Socks, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, Hose, Suspenders, &c., besides many other articles coming in their line of business, and all will be sold at the lowest prices. Their stock of Readymade Clothing, comprises every thing in the clothing line, from an over-coat down to an under-shirt, made up after the latest and most fashionable styles. There stock being so extensive, that none will leave it, unless fitted from the "bottom to the top"

Customer Work, will be done up as usual, and for their work they are willing to be held responsible, two of the firm being practical workmen in the "art of cutting," and all the work is made up under their own supervision.

Thankful for past favors they trust that attention to business, "small profits and quick sales" will be the means of bringing new customers to their establishment.

Fall Fashions! KECK'S HAT EMPORIUM IN ALLENTOWN.

The undersigned takes this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately received from New York and Philadelphia a splendid assortment of Hats, Caps, Muffs, Boas, Cuffs, Furs, &c. all of which he will sell at the lowest prices.

He also manufactures all the above mentioned articles to order, upon the latest styles, and understands the business practically as well as any manufacturer in town. He also employs none but the most finished workmen that can be got. This then is the secret that "Keck's Hats" take and wear so well, and are now "all the go."

He holds forth one door west of Schurman's Store on the north side of Hamilton street, Allentown, where he will be happy to see those who may favor him with their custom.

He returns his sincere thanks for the many favors he has thus far received and trusts that his goods and their extreme low prices, will induce not only his old customers but lots of new ones, to purchase of him.

Sanders' School Books.

The subscribers who are largely engaged in the publication of School and other Books, have lately made arrangements for the Publication of one of the best Series of School Books,—being seven in number,—ever published in this state. They are calculated for the gradual progression of the pupil in the ordinary branches of popular education. The illustrations are admirably adapted and cannot fail to fix the mind upon sound moral principles which is ever the foundation of a good education.

On the whole they believe Sanders' series of School Books by far the most complete, that has ever been published and would respectfully recommend them for adoption in all the free schools in the State.
