

Agriculture in this Country.

It appears from a published statement, that there were at the Chircha Islands, on the first day of August last, loading with guano for the United States, forty-four vessels, with an aggregate of 31,328 tons. There had sailed from the Islands, prior to August 1st, and not yet arrived, twenty-six vessels, with 15,415 tons of guano on board. These vessels are all destined for the United States. A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury speaking of the demand for Peruvian guano for cotton, proposes that the United States government shall relieve Peru from its obligations to the British bondholders, under which the monopoly is maintained, by advancing to that government $4,000,000 or $6,000,000 on the condition that the guano trade shall be thrown open to this country; our importers paying the rates charged to the importers of other countries. The Washington Union copies the communication, with the remark that the subject is attracting attention and provoking discussion in many of the Southern States, and we are sure the administration will not fail to give due consideration to the suggestions made on the subject. It had been estimated that Upper Canada will have an amount of wheat, this year for exportation, exceeding that of any previous year, by four millions of bushels, valued at four million piasters. ($3,500,000) The first National Exhibition of imported blood and American breeds of horses is to be held at Springfield, Mass., on the 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22d, of October under the auspices of the U. S. Agricultural Society. The list of premiums to be awarded is on the most liberal scale, and will no doubt attract a very great attendance from all parts of the country. Provision is also being made to have a grand agricultural banquet on the occasion, in order to have a good exhibition of men as well as horses.

Home Politeness.

Why not be polite? How much does it cost to say, "I thank you"? Why not practice it at home? To your husband your children, your domestic? If a stranger does you some little act of courtesy, how sweet the smiling acknowledgment! If your husband—ah! it's a matter of course; no need of thanks.

Should an acquaintance tread on your dress, your very, very best, and by accident tear it, how profuse you are with your never-minds, don't think of it, I don't care at all! If a husband does it, he gets a frown; if a child, he is chastised.

Ah! these are little things, say you. They tell mightily upon the heart, let us assure you, little as they are.

A gentleman stops at a friend's house, and finds it in confusion. "He don't see anything to apologize for—never thinks of such matters. Everything is all right—cold supper, cold room, crying children; perfectly comfortable. Goes home, where the wife has been taking care of the sick ones and working her life almost out. Don't see why things can't be kept in better order; there never were such children before. No apologies accepted at home.

Why not be polite at home? Why not use freely that golden coin of courtesy?—How sweet they sound, those little words—"I thank you," or "You are very kind!" Doubly, yes thrice sweet from the lips we love, when heart-smiles make the eye sparkle with clear light of affection.

Be polite to your children. Do you expect them to be mindful of your welfare? To grow glad at your approach? but bound away to do your pleasure before the request is half-spoken? Then with all your dignity and authority, mingle politeness; give it a niche in your household temple. Only then will you have learned the true secret of sending out into the world really "finished" gentlemen and ladies.

What we say, we say unto all: Be polite.

THE FIRST FAIR.—The Chester county Agricultural Fair, took place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. There was a very large assemblage, and the display is said to have been very fine. The financial result of the Exhibition was very satisfactory. The admission fee for single tickets was 12 1/2 cents. The Record says:—"At the Horticultural Hall, 2800 tickets were sold during Saturday; many more were sold during the evening. At the Agricultural Exhibition 3300 single tickets were sold, and 800 or 900 members tickets distributed in addition."
