Wholesale Commission Merchants.

WENNER, BEREIRER & Co. No. 246 Washington St. New York.

The Undersigned hereby respectfully inform their friends and merchants generally, that they have established themselves as "Wholesale Commission Merchants and Produce Dealers," at No. 216, Washington Street, in the city of New York.

They have facilities to render every inducement to Pennsylvania, as well as other State merchants to trade in this market, with their various articles of merchandise, wherein they can at all times realize a price, superior to any other in the United States.

It is an acknowledged fact, that the great trade heretofore wending its way to other sion in Allentown. markets, is now rapidly finding avenues through the various additional Rail Roads, to the Great Emporium of New York City, and why is this? Because merchants find upon trial a profitable result.

They begin to open their eyes, and see how long they have suffered by other marhow long they have suffered by other mar-kets, whereas had they had a market like the lentown, adopts this method to intheir welfare in business.

There are upwards of thirty Steamships now running, and others in progress, and will soon be added to the various lines, making regular trips to and from this port to the various ports of our Southern States, Cuba, South America, California, Australia, England, Iroland, France and some of the German States, and numireds of ships are constantly sailing to and coming from ali ports of the World.

All then come here to procure a share of our countrys production, and New York city being the greatest commercial city in America, and the most convenient port of access by ships and steamships, it is therefore constantly flooded by them, carrying a way an enormous amount of merchandise. The Undersigned, therefore solicit consignments of all merchants, that may feel disposed to give the market a trial and they hope by prompt attention thereto, and persevering efforts to procure the highest market prices, to gain a liberal share of patronage. N. B .- Any further information can be had, by addressing the above firm.
