Notice to Travelers!

DAILY LINE Between ALLENTOWN and POTTSVILLE.

The traveling public are hereby respectfully informed, that from to day, June 1st, 1853, a daily line of stages will commence running between Allentown and Pottsville, and in connection with the Reading Railroad convey passengers to Philadelphia. The Stages will leave J. Y. Bichel's, American Hotel, Allentown, every morning (Sundays excepted) at 2 o'clock A. M. and the passengers will arrive in Philadelphia at half past 11 o'clock A. M. and in time to take the Western Railroad train for Pittsburgh. They will arrive in Pottsville in time to take the morning up-train to Reading and Pottsville, and arrive at the former place at 10, and at the latter, at 12 o'clock P. M.

The undersigned will spare neither time, expense or trouble to make this line one of the best to travel to either of the above named places. He has engaged sober and careful drivers, fast horses and good coaches, and being that the route passes through a delightful country, many will choose to travel it on this account.

Sanders' School Books.

The subscribers who are largely engaged in the publication of School and other Books, have lately made arrangements for the Publication of one of the best Series of School Books,—being seven in number,—ever published in this state. They are calculated for the gradual progression of the pupil in the ordinary branches of popular education. The illustrations are admirably adapted and cannot fail to fix the mind upon sound moral principles which is ever the foundation of a good education.

On the whole they believe Sanders' series of School Books by far the most complete, that has ever been published and would respectfully recommend them for adoption in all the free schools in the State.
