

Eshbach's Eagle Hotel
In Allentown.

The proprietor of this popular House returns his most sincere thanks for past favors, and would inform his patrons and the public in general, that considerable improvements have been made in the building, so that he is enabled better to accommodate strangers and travellers than heretofore and that he will be pleased to meet with many new customers during the winter season.

The "Eagle" is located on the north west corner of the square, being the most convenient house for business men or persons who come to attend court.

The House has gained a reputation of being one of the best in town, and every attention will be paid to strangers who visit the place, and witnesses, Jurors and others who may attend court during the next term, to whom he extends a hearty welcome.

Notice to Travelers!

DAILY LIVE
BETWEEN
ALLENTOWN AND POTTSTOWN.

The traveling public are hereby respectfully informed, that from to day, June 1st, 1853, a daily line of stages will commence running between Allentown and Pottstown, and in connection with the Reading Railroad convey passengers to Philadelphia. The Stages will leave J. Y. Bechtel's, American Hotel, Allentown, every morning (Sundays excepted) at 2 o'clock A. M. and the passengers will arrive in Philadelphia at half past 11 o'clock A. M., and in time to take the Western Railroad train for Pittsburgh. They will arrive in Pottstown in time to take the morning up-train to Reading and Pottsville, and arrive at the former place at 10, and at the latter, at 12 o'clock P. M.

The undersigned will spare neither time, expense or trouble to make this line one of the best to travel to either of the above named places. He has engaged sober and careful drivers, fast horses and good coaches, and being that the route passes through a delightful country, many will choose to travel it on this account.
