JOSEPH WEISS,
January 18, 1851.

Eshbach's Eagle Hotel,
in Allentown.

The proprietor of this popular House returns his most sincere thanks for past favors, and would inform his patrons and the public in general, that considerable improvements have been made in the building, so that he is enabled better to accommodate strangers and travellers than heretofore and that he will be pleased to meet with many new customers during the winter season.

The "Eagle" is located on the north west corner of the square, being the most convenient house for business men or persons who come to attend court.

The House has gained a reputation of being one of the best in town, and every attention will be paid to strangers who visit the place, and witnesses, Jurors and others who may attend court during the next term, to whom he extends a hearty welcome.
