Order of Exhibition.

1. All articles for competition must be on the ground on Wednesday October 4th, at 10 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock A. M. on Thursday, the Judges—excepting those on horses and mules—will enter upon the performance of their duties of awarding premiums.
 2. On Thursday the 5th, at 8 o'clock A. M. the gates to the Fair ground will be opened for admittance.
 At 10 o'clock in the forenoon the horses of all classes, and mules contending for premiums, will be brought upon the track in the arena, for inspection and judgement, according to the arrangement of the committee on horses.
 3. On Friday the 6th, the gates of the Fair ground will again be open at 8 o'clock. The Ploughing will commence at 10 o'clock in a field near the fair ground.

Regulations.

1. All members of the Society, and all who shall become members previous to or at the Fair, will be furnished with tickets, which will admit the person and all members of his family under 21 years of age to the exhibition. Tickets to admit a single person 12 cents.
 2. All exhibitors at the Fair must become members of the Society, and have their animals or articles entered at the Secretary's office, before taking them into the enclosure. Fee of membership one dollar.
 3. All articles exhibited must remain on the ground until 3 o'clock on Friday the 6th, and on all occasions will be returned to the exhibitors unless otherwise directed.

4. This regulation must be strictly adhered to, otherwise the Society will not be responsible for the omission of any animals or articles on the list.
 5. No animals or articles entered for exhibition can be taken away before the close of the Fair, except by permission of the executive committee—and no premium will be paid on animals or articles removed in violation of this rule.
 6. Animals and articles intended for exhibition, will have cards attached with the Nos. as entered at the Secretary's office, and exhibitors should in all cases obtain their cards previous to placing their stock or articles on the Fair ground.
 7. All persons who intend to exhibit horses, cattle, swine, or sheep, or who intend to offer stock for sale, should notify the Secretary A. L. Ruhe, Esq., of such intention, on or before the 4th of October next, and leave with him a list and a full description of such stock in order that proper arrangements may be made for their accommodation.
 8. Caution.—All articles exhibited, whether rabbits or not, must be respected as private property; and any person detected purloining or injuring them, will be dealt with according to law.
 9. All articles offered for competition must be owned by the competitors, and all fruits, vegetables and flowers, must be the growth of the competitors.
 10. Any article which receives a distinct premium, cannot compete in a general display, nor shall any one article receive two premiums.
 11. For all stock exhibited, hay and water will be supplied on the ground without charge.
 12. Notice.—All monies awarded as premiums shall revert to the Society unless called for within 60 days.

Instructions to Committees.

1. The Committee of Agricultural Products will give a preference to such varieties as are adapted to the interest of the farmer, regard being had to the yield and market value thereof.
 2. The Committee on Agricultural Implements, are instructed to keep in view thefulness of the implements to the farmer rather than the workmanship thereof.
 3. The Committee on the various kinds of Cattle, Sheep and Swine, are requested to be particular in ascertaining the blood of the different animals.
 4. The various Committees will be careful not to award two premiums on the same article.
 5. If they award a distinct premium on any article, they will not take the same article into consideration in a general display.
 6. If they find articles deserving a premium, for which none is offered, they will please report it to the Committee on Discretionary Premiums.
 7. The Committee on Discretionary Premiums, will award such premiums as they may think proper, on articles of merit which have not been provided for in the general Schedule.
 8. The various Committees are requested to be careful to notice all articles exhibited in their respective classes whether entitled to premiums or not.
 9. The members of the various Committees, on the first day of Exhibition, will please get together at the Society's Hall, at near 10 o'clock A. M. as possible, in order to proceed to business. And it will prevent much confusion if they will provide themselves, before leaving home with a list of the different articles and the premiums offered, under the heads for which they are respectively appointed.
 10. The Chairman of the different Committees are instructed to make their Reports to the Revising Committee, as soon as possible, by whom the premiums will be announced at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the last day of the fair.

ED. KOHLER, President.

A. L. RUHE, Secretary.

Indians are Coming!

Washburn's Unique

Interesting Entertainment.

Manners and Customs of the Uncivilized Indians of the far West.

The celebrated chief KAWSHAWGAN, NE, from the Waitutu Nation of the Indian tribes west of the Rocky Mountains; and the young chiefs AHWANETUNK AND KIMMEWEAN, from the great Sioux Nation together with OKATEWOULA, from the Callapooya tribe; with their large troupe of warriors and females, from the plains, and from West of the Rocky Mountains, will give a true exhibition of the manners and customs of the untutored red man of the forest.

AT ALLENTOWN ON FRIDAY JULY 7th.

At each Entertainment Kawshawgan, the most eloquent Indian Orator now living will give a brief description of his country, the condition of his nation at the present time—showing the great immoral influence exerted among his people, by the large class of Fur Traders now residing in their midst. Also, THEIR RELIGIOUS BELIEF, &c., &c.

The following interesting Dances, Ceremonies, Games, &c.,

Will be represented by his large Troupe of Natives, as enacted by their people at the present day. Their solemn and impressive Burial Ceremonies, Chanting to the Spirit of a departed Chieftain, &c. Indian Council—Council speeches, smoking the War Pipe, &c. The Indian Merry Making, or the first day of Kadusama. Indian Courtship, Marriage Ceremony, Marriage Songs, &c. Indian Rainmaker calling upon the Great Spirit for Rain. The Indian Prophet, or Medicine man, who places great confidence in the efficacy of his Medicine Bag, casting out disease from a sick Indian by Enchantment. From the many Indian Dances the following will be represented by the Chiefs and attendants: Mattaway, or Sacred Dance, Harvest Dance, Discovery or Spy Dance, Buffalo Dance imitating the buffalo, Courting Dance, Snake Dance, Green corn Dance, War Dance, Death Dance, Bear Dance, Dance of a Hunter in a Canoe, &c. The whole will be accompanied with the best pieces of WILD INDIAN MUSIC, AND SONGS.

Each ceremony as represented will be explained by the Chief Kawshawgan, to the understanding of all present.

From the LARGE COLLECTION OF CURIOSITIES, the Chief will exhibit and explain the uses of the following articles of Dress, Warfare, etc., brought from the uncivilized Tribes of the West, expressly for this Great Exhibition: War Knives made of Shark's Teeth, War Clubs of every description made with nothing but the Flint and Shell, showing the great ingenuity of the red man; Blankets manufactured from bark of trees; Knick-knack sack used by the Indian in carrying his Tobacco; Stone Battle Axes, War Spears, Wampum Beads, War Pipes shaped from solid stone, Calumet of Peace, Tomahawks, Scalping Knives, &c., together with the largest variety of Beard, Moose Hair, and Porcupine Quill Work ever exhibited.

In the afternoon may be witnessed the exciting sport of SHOOTING AT TARGETS WITH BOWS AND ARROWS, showing the wonderful expertness acquired by the Indian in the use of this simple weapon.

At each Entertainment will be represented in three parts the great historical scene of POCAHONTAS SAVING THE LIFE OF CAPTAIN SMITH. Also the Scalping Scene, Rescue from the Burning Stake, &c.

At the close of the Evening Exhibition will be presented the celebrated revolutionary scene of the MURDER OF MISS JANE MC'REA, who left her home to join her lover in the British Army, and was killed by a party of Indians sent to conduct her. The Chiefs, accompanied by their attendants will make a grand entry into town, mounted on their Indian Ponies dressed in full Indian Costume, painted and fully equipped for war, between 10 and 11 o'clock A. M. preceded by KIMMEWEAN'S CELEBRATED BRASS BAND, composed entirely of native Indians, the only Indian Brass Band in the world, and for harmony and execution of music, have no equal among the travelling bands of the day. The whole combination forms the greatest attraction ever presented to the American people.

Admission 25 cents. Children under 12 years of age half price. Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock P. M.—Exhibition commences at 2 1/2 and 7 1/2 o'clock P. M. Good order will be preserved; seats reserved for the ladies. Courteous and obliging ushers will always be found in attendance. The public may rest assured that no effort will be spared to render this the most attractive entertainment of the present day, and will find it an exhibition well worthy the attention and sympathies of those interested in the manners and customs of a nation fast passing away.
