At Shell's Tavern—Harper, Rank and Kinzler.
At Linglestown—A. O. Meister, Esq., Jacob Shell and Thomas Birnet.
At Harrisburg—A. O. Meister, Esq., William Ayres, Gov. Porter and Daniel W. Gross.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the President and Directors of this company, after their organization, to pay interest to the several stockholders entitled to receive the same, in the months of January and July in each year, at the rate of six per cent. per annum on all installments paid by them on their several shares of stock.

Resolved, That all expenses incurred for printing and publishing notices, &c., for opening of the books, and meetings of the Commissioners to receive subscriptions of stock, be paid out of the general fund.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published successively for three weeks in two papers in Harrisburg, Lehighon, Reading, Hamburg and Allentown, and also in handbills to be distributed along the line of the contemplated road.

The following resolution was offered by Adam Shoener, Esq.:

Resolved, That Gen. William Ayres be requested to attend the several meetings for the opening of books, and address the citizens, giving them the information as to the benefits and advantages to be derived from the contemplated improvement about to be made.

On motion of Dr. Schizer, Gen. Ayres was requested to address the meeting; to which he responded in his usual happy style, exhibiting that he was booked up on railroads, together with the general interests of the country; after which the meeting adjourned.
