Know Nothings.

Whatever may have been the motives of the writer in sending forth the letter of which we here make some extracts, he has told many wholesome truths in few words. Mr. Lynch is the editor of the "Irish American" published in New York and his letter is addressed to his countrymen in New York and elsewhere.

EXTRACT FROM P. LYNCH'S LETTER.

Fellow Countrymen and Friends: I desire to point your special and emphatic attention to the approaching elections. You have at present opposed to you a bitterly inimical and nowerful secret society called the "Know No.nings" -opposed to you-to us Irishmen particularly -on the grounds that we are impudent and voracious cormorants of petty places under Government; that we are ignorant, turbulent and brutal; that we are led by the nose and entirely controlled by our clergy; that we are willing subjects of a "foreign prince," the Pope; that we are only lip Republicans; that we are anot worthy of the franchise; that by the largeness of our vote and the clanishness of our habits and dispositions, we rule or aspire to rule in America; that we are drunkards and crimi. nals; that we fill the work-houses and prisons; that we heap up taxes on industrious and sober and thrifty citizens; and that for these and other reasons we should be deposed from our citizenship, and, in fact, rooted out of this American nation, as a body, by every fair and foul means. And I can tell you that outside the secret organization of the Know Nothings, outside and beyond its influence and power, an antidrish and anti-Catholic sentiment prevails.

It is as idle as it would be criminal to deny this fact. There it remains, palpable and tangible before us; -and if we have one particle of common sense left, we must look at it strait

Now fellow countrymen, from my seven years' experience in this country, and especially in this country, and especially in this city, I am called on to say that some misguided parties among you do act improperly, riotously and turbulently at elections. I tell you they do. They act improperly, by making parties, factions, knots, cabals, coteries, about the polling places and ballot boxes. And I tell you that it must go to the heart of a sober, quiet, and respectable American, or German, of Frenchman, or Irishman, to find a parcel of clamorous, rictous, noisy, intoxicated rowdies actually blocking up the way, and preventing the free and honest and quiet use of the noblest earthly gift of man-the Elective Franchise .-I repeat I have seen these things, and as far as I could judge, I was obliged to admit and conclude, that these turbulent party and faction men were, in many instances, Irishmen born.

Let me add, that to quiet and order loving, and respectable, and educated Americans, scenes of this kind must be very disgusting, and must plant in the minds of men, otherwise friendly and sympathetic, a feeling of aversion to our name and race not eaily eradicated. I am aware that American and Irish politicians form an unholy compact, to win a party battle and carry a particular point; and that taking into account the money they advance, the promises of employment and situations they hold out, the liquor "order" showered about, it is hard for poor and hardworked and jaded laborers to resist the temptations thrown in their in their hearts. And so too, with whatever of case "the office has hunted the man, and not way. And I am free to admit that between the professed politician and his dupe the profligate balance inclines heavily against the for- ness and acts of friendship, which were said of capacities, and the vote that he will receive mer. But fellow countrymen—my poorest and humblest fellow countrymen—you will always forever. suffer, you will invariably stop the bullet or feel the stab of the unfuriated and disappointed enemy. The really guilty party will be sure to be at a safe distance from riot and bloodshed, smoking his eigar and sipping his brandy and water; while you will be spilling your own and others' blood for a wretched bribe, and without the chadow of a virtuous or noble cause to engage your attention and support.

Believe me, the crises has come. Believe me, the Know Nothings will leave no stone unturned to destroy your clannish influence at the ballot-box. No matter what violent or outrageous turn their passions may take, there is an excuse for it in your turbulent and riotous demeanor on election day. Look at the riot and loss of life in St. Louis. In that case the editor of a German paper, the Avenger, an able, but highly intemperate man, was the cause of the Native American or Know Nothing excitement; and yet with the feeling and spirit of anti-Catholic Irishism rankling in their breasts, the Know Nothings made a descent on the "Irish quarter" in St. Louis, demolishing forty houses, and caused ten or fifteen deaths by the bullet and the bowie knife. Remember, my friends, the Germans are, generally speaking, reputed to be infidels; and you know, or ought know, that the Know Nothings would sooner go to perdition with even an infidel, than-I was about to say without irreverence-to Heav. en with an Irish Roman Cutholic. The feeling or sentiment, or prejudice is unmanly, ungen. erous, un-American and un-republican; but there it is, a gangrenous spot on the otherwise noble American character.

With these prefatory remarks, I arrive at the point from which I am anxious to address you and field, of the dairy, the mechanics' shops, the urged by many of his neighbors and acquainon the course you should pursue at the approaching elections.

Vote for the man your conscience approves, and for the principles your judgment sanctions and endorses. Go to the polls quietly, peace ably, without estentation, without discussion with anydody. Deposit your ballot without remark, answering any question of a legal and constitutional character put to you. This done, go without delay to your places of business or to your homes. Make no crowd. Encourage no street or bar-room hareanguing. Bring on no discussions. If you are assailed in any way, appeal to the authorities for protection, and you will be protected. If you act as I do, and now point out to you, no riots will occur, and no blood will be spilt.

The Cchigh Register.

Allentown, Pa.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1854.

JAMES POLLOCK.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER: GEORGE DARSIE. Of Allegheny County.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT. DANIEL M. SMYSER. Of Montgomery County.

Patrons of the Register. The present number completes the Eighth Year, and also my connection as Editor and Proprietor of "The Lehigh Register." In withdrawing from the position which I so long occupied, and bidding Farcwell, as it were, to the readers of the Register, I follow the promptings of my own heart, when I say, that I am fully mindful of the many acts of kindness and regard which they have manifested for me personally, and for the confidence and generous support, which they have shown for, and given to the paper, to the publication of which, eight long years of my life and toil has been devoted, and that I will ever cherish a recollection of their regard and confidence as testimonials of which I may and do feel justly proud. When I commenced the publication of the Register, it was under very discouraging circumstances, as our population is mostly german, so that I had to depend principally upon my own perseverance and industry, and a few faithful and confiding friends. But that it has surmounted all obstacles, and gained a permanent foothold, in a circulation nearly double that of any English paper, ever published in the county, is a fact, no less gratifying to its friends than true.

The years which have passed since my editorial life began, have been marked by events and scenes, by political changes and convolsions, that now belong to the history of the. country. I refer to them only to say, that it will happen, in the feeling and excitement, which such great political contests beget, that something should be said, by those whose position made them the organ of their party, which leaves a bitter recollection on the minds of those whose political association included them in fortune of those, who are placed in a prominent position-as are the editors of papers-in political and public discussions, to have opportunities of serving good men, and so serving the public by an earnest support of them, of de. fending those who are unjustly abused-of say. ing words of kindness of those who deserve and appreciate them-and of being thrown into assweeten life and lighten all its cares and troudered a bitter feeling towards me, but believe of it remains. It lives now, I hope and trust, the Candidate for the office of Prothonotary. me, it is entirely obliterated, and no thought had business with him. me, and done for me, will lie in my memory

The REGISTER passes into the hands of C. F. Haines, and D. K. Diefenderfer, both are practical printers, and both are known to many of you personally. They are fully possessed of talent, energy and perseverance, to rank the Register among the best country papers in the state, so that I feel confident, that its patrons can only gain by the change. In this closing address, there is yet one duty that I must perform, and that is, to return my grateful acknowledgments to many noble hearted men-many faithful and confiding friends—who stood by me, and aided me in my enterprize, who in thus sus, taining me, have been prompted by generosity and patriotism.

For the generous support I have received, I feel profoundly grateful, and will be permitted the hope, that the encouraging smiles of the community may be as freely bestowed upon my successors. That they will prove them. selves worthy of the confidence of the people of Lehigh County, no further assurance is need. ed from me. Farewell! A. L. Ruhe. Allentown, Sept. 27, 1854.

The County Fair.

A great crowd will doubtless be in attendance at the Exhibition of the Agricultural Society, which commences on Wednesday morning, the 4th of October next. Great efforts are being mide handsomest in the county, and will afford a fine view of the numerous articles to be exhibited on the occasion. From all points of the com. fine stock of our farms, &c .-- all of which we trust will be well represented in this exhibition. Come one and all! The exhibition will open at 8 o'clock on Wednesday and continue until Fri.

Political Arithmetic. There are tables which politics, to which public attention may now be called. The first of them is LOCOFOCO MEASURE. I good catholic makes l soft. 2 softs 1 hard. 4 hardes 1 clique. 8 cliques 1 party. 1 party makes 3 platforms 1 platform 0 principles. 0 principles make

ROTATION CAUDIDATES.

Assembly:

James S. Reese. Oliver Musselman. Prothonotary:

Thom. C. Breinig. Recorder:

Harrison Miller. Clerk:

J. W. Mickley. Register:

Samuel Colver.

Commissioner: Samuel Sieger.

Poor Director: Solomon Kline.

Auditor: Samuel J. Kistler.

Trustees: Charles M. Runk. Reuben Reiss.

Volunteer and Rotation Ticket. We take pleasure in presenting above, with the exception of a Candidate for Congress, a full Volunteer and Rotation Ticket to the free and independent voters of Lehigh county.-One, equal if not superior in talent, experience and business qualifications, to any that has eve er been brought before the freeman for their suffrages. Of the whole ticket we have heard but a single expression of opinion, and that is, that it is the best ever offered in the county. It is composed throughout, from top to bottom, of unexceptionable men, of men who will command the votes of Whige, Democrats, Know Nothings and Natives. Of the nominations it may be necessary to speak somewhat in detail.

JAMES S. REESE, of Allentown, is the first on the list as a Candidate for the Assembly. He is a young lawyer, of marked abilities, active the sensure. And then again, it is the good and energetic, with a good business turn, fully able to take his part in debate with any member in the halls of the Legislature. In him the tax payers of the rich mineral and agricult tural counties of Lehigh and Carbon, will be ably and fearlessly defended and their interests properly guarded. For his collegue we have

Oliver Musselman, of Carbon county. This genileman is represented to us as a man of splen. sociations, where friendships are formed that did talents, self-taught, and as a public speaker, both in the English as well as the German lan. bles. So that it may have happened, that there | guage ranks among the foremost in the county.has been that said in the Register, while I He is a very popular citizen and well known, was connected with it, which may have engen. having held the office of Register and Recorder for several years to the satisfaction of all who unkind words that were applied to me. I re- the man the office." He is a first rate penman, not only in the whole county, but in his immediately district, will, testify as to the estimation in which he is held by this neighbors and those who best know him.

Harrison Miller, is the Candidate for Recorder. He is a resident of Lower Macungy, and is known and respected by all who know him. He has held the office of Justice of the Peace for many years with honor to himself and full satisfaction to the public, which is the best or dence that he will not only make a competent, but an officer, beloved and respected by all who may happen to have business with him.

James W. Mickley, of South Whitehall, is the Candidate for Clerk of the Courts. Everybody knows or ought to know Jimmy. He was brought up as a business man, writes a beaut tilul hand, and will make a good officer .-He deserves the particular sympathy of the public, having been laid up for several years with an affection of the knee joint, and after suffering excruciating pain, in going through various medical treatments both here Moses Bush. and in Philadelphia, he finally was forced to have his leg taken off immediately above the knee joint. Being thus deprived of making a Thomas W. Lynn. livelihood by hard labor, a kind public urgently solicited him to suffer his name to be brought before the voters of Lehigh county for their suffrages for the Clerks Office, an office for which he has all the capabilities requisite to by the managers to make this exhibition one of fulfill the duties required, and we think a generinterest to visitors. The locality is one of the ous public will not forget him on the second Tuesday in October.

Samuel Colver, of Catacauqua, is the Candidate for Register. He is a mechanic, who by pass the farmers and mechanics of Lehigh count energy and perseverance has raised himself to ty, their wives, sons and daughters will pour in. be respected as a man of knowledge and busto Allentown, to see the products of the garden | mess tact. He is no office ceeker, but being tances to suffer his name as a candidate for said station, and if elected he will no doubt make a competent and obliging officer.

Samuel Sieger, of North Whitehall, is presented as the Candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. Sieger is a man of excellent turn of mind. have not yet been compiled in the statistics of brought up as a farmer, manages his farming and mining business upon a judicious and economical manner, is beloved and respected as an honorable upright citizen, and is just the it may be and you will never regret it. man for this very important post, in fact the most important in our view, of all the officers vote from the tax-payers of the county.

Solomon Kline, is the Candidate for Director of the Poor, and is a resident of Salisburg .-1000 demagogues. He is a very worthy citizen, of good honest men take the matter in had?

principles, benevolent in his feelings, and conse- The Coming Election-The Issues. quently a good provider, one that will do honor to the county in the office for which the people have determined to elect him.

Samuel J. Kistler, of Heidelburg township, is named as the Candidate for the office of County Auditor. For this office no man should be elected who is not a thorough accountant! as upon the auditing of the County accounts depend in a great measure the interest of the tax. payers. Mr. Kistler is one of the best account tants in the County, writes a beautiful business hand, is a ready mathematician, and above all, beloved by all who know him.

Charles M. Runk, and Reuben Reiss, citizens of this Borough are the Candidates for Trustees of the Allentown Academy. Both these gentlemen have taken and continue to take a great interest in a well regulated school system. They are friends of education, and will do all in their power to rank the Allentown Academy, with the assistance of its eminent Principal, one of the arst Institutions in the county.

Such is the material of which the Volunteer and Rotation ticket of Lehigh County is formed. It is one of the best ever brought before the voters of the county. It is composed of good men, and selected from every part of the county. Organize then, without further delay, Whigs Democrats, Know Nothings walk up to the polls in solid phalanx and give it your hearty support. -Party men-lay aside you prejudices, that you may have and rally in its behalf. Give the Ticket a pull, a long pull and a pull all together, and its election will most surely follow.

Proving Bigler a False Prophet. - Three years ago, Gov. Bigler made a speech here in which he demonstrated to the satisfaction of all good locofocos, that Johnston's Sinking Fund was of no benefit at all ; and now the papers supporting Bigler are publishing a statement that this same worthless sinking fund has paid nine hundred and three thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars and fifteen cents of the public debt! Yet with all this, the State debt has been increased, the canal tolls lessened, the North Branch unfinished, and a field still open for spending millions more on the Portage Railroad, unless the people rise in their might and defeat Bigler & Co.

New Post Master .- A. H. Gilbert, E.q., has been appointed Post Master of Catasauqua, in place of Nathan Frederick, E.q., resigned.

Bigler is Destined to Defeat - Many democrats will not vote for him because he is opposed to a sale of the public works.

Many democrats will not vote for him because he basely bowed the knee to religious pigotry, and made Campbell Attorney General, after he had been repudiated by the people. Many democrats will not vote for him because he pardoned the notorious Alberti and other gallows birds in large numbers. Many democrats will not vote for him because they are in favor of cleansing the Au-

Allentown Seminary. This Institution will commence its fourteenth session on the 1st of November. Its popularity is so wide spread, that it became necessary to enlarge the buildings greatly in order to meet the popular favors bestowed upon it. The new buildings are now completed, and the next sesthe minds of all who cherish the recollection! He is a man fresh from the people, and in this sion will open under the most savorable auspices. Several additional teachers have been en. gaged, so that parents and others, at a distance can rely upon the strickest rules and regulations being carried into practice with the education of vouth and its moral tendencies. For further in formation see Rev. C. R. Kessier card in another column.

> Suicide .- On Sunday last, the wife of Mr. Jo. seph Rickert, near Coopersburg, after the family had partaken of their breakfast, went in the back-house, and cut her throat from ear to ear .--No cause is assigned for the rech act. Ob caves a family of children and a bereaved husband to moura her untimely loss. Herage may be about 40 years.

In last week's Register we stated that Charles Ritter, Esq., had resigned the nomination as Candidate for Auditor on the Democratic County ticket, we are now informed that such is not the case. We cheerfully correct the error.

Tickets in Northampton County. Democratic Ticket. Volunteer Ticket. Congress, Edward F. Stewart. Assembly, Ernst F. Bleck.

Thomas Barr.

Prothonotary, Reuben P. Micke.

Recorder, Michael Weaver.

Commissione Conrad Kichline.

Reuben L. Seip.

A. J. Cressman.

Auditor

Assembly, Col. Philip Johnson. Henry F. Steckel.

Recorde George Schlabach. Clerk of the Orphuns Abraham Sigman. Clerks of Quar. Session John F. Bachman. County Commissione Jacob J. Deemer.

Director of the Poor, Robert Levers. Leslie Miller.

Secure a Permanent Home. In these days of high rents and high every permanent residence for themselves and children. The "moving" is ruinously costly, alike destructive of property and pleasure. It cripples husbandry-prevents planting trees and vines, and obliges tenants to frequent the grocery with money in hand for a thousand little things, which if land owners they would raise. None can dur ly appreciate home, till once having owned and by every possible means, the interests and the lost one. Reader, whoever, wherever you are, prosperity of the great State of Pennsylvania.heed this advice, provide a home no matter how small, how uncomfortable or how unfashionable

So says a cotempoary. We endorse every word of it. A very excellent aid to the poor in the county. He should be elected by a strong | man in saving money towards this end is to organize building and loan associations, and take shares to the amount of his monthly abilities to pay. Why do not our mechanics and working

The election in this State is less than two. weeks in fututity. Many important issues are involved, and although the excitement thus far has been comparatively moderate, a very large, vote is likely to be polled. Heretofore, it has been deemed necessary to have many popular demonstrations in relation to a great political contest. Town and County meetings have been held, much money has been expended, and much energy has been exhausted on such occasions .-Of late years, however, the Press has been so widely diffused throughout the length and breadth of the State, in every city, town and village, that it is regarded as far more reliable than any oth. er means of disseminating information. And so indeed it is. The opinions, moreover, that are expressed in the midst of excitement are not con. sidered as so reliable as those which are committed to print. The former may be misunderstood or misconstrued, but not the latter. Every citizen of Pennsylvania should, however, take an interest in the general election. At the coming hoose the following officers: A Governon, to serve for three years. A CANAL COMMISSIONER, to serve for a simil

ing contest the voters will be called upon to

A Jungs of the Sunreme Court MEMBERS OF CONGRESS in the various Dis.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE SENATE AND HOUSE

OF REPRESENTATIVES. AND CITY AND COUNTY OFFICERS.

The various parties are in the field, and the hope." candidates, in a great majority of cases, have been chosen. The Whig candidate for Govern not is the Hon. JAMES POLLOCK, of Northumber, land county. He is a true hearted Pennsylvani. an and is presessed of every quality calculated to make an efficient Chief Magistrate. He is clear-headed, strong-minded, and eminently patriotic. As a writer, he is vigorous and forcible, as a speaker, he is practical and eloquent, and as a statesman, he is reliable and experienced. Our political friends may vote for him with the utmost confidence-confidence in his intelligence his fidelity, his availability, and his devotion to the best interests of Pennsylvania.

The candidate for Canal Commissioner is the Hon. Gronge Dansie, of Allegheny county. He has been a member of the State Senate for years and in that capacity he has deservedly won much distinction. Mr. Darste is one of the ablest men in Pennsylvania.

The candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, is DANIEL M. SMYSER, of Monigomery county. In this case also, the Whigs have been eminently happy in their choice. A polished mind, great legal attainments, an unsulfied reputation and uniform dignity and courtesy of deportment are characteristics every way suited to the highest tribunal of the Commonwealth, and all these may be found in Judge Smyser.

But what are the issues, so far as the State at large is concerned? In the first place, the indebtedness of Pennsylvania is immense, and amounts to something like forty millions of dole lars. This indebtedness has not decreased in any manner worth speaking of, since the inauguration of Governor Bigler, and it is not likely to to diminish, should that gentleman be re-elected. The State taxation, already oppressive, will probably become more so, and the system of imprulence and extravagance that has been in progress for years, will only be continued and perpetrated. Are the people perpared for this condition of affairs? Are they willing to confirm and extend the Bigler dynasty, and thus to increase the indebtedness of the State and the exhausting taxa. tion on their property? Are they not satisfied that in this matter at least, Governor Bigler has shown himself to be ineflicient.

In the second place, the question of the Sale of the Public Works will be renewed at the next ses. sion of the State Legislature. The bill that was so marred and crippled, chiefly at the instance of friends of the Governor, that it was found an utter mockery. The object of those who introluced the obnoxious amendments was to prevent the sale: and in this they succeeded. They desire to retain the public works as a source of field in that city. corruption to political partisans, as a means of ewarding friends and favorites. This, they new, had been the effect heretofore, and they vere apprehensive that a more righteous policy vould lead to their political disadvantage. And hence it was, that an absurd bill was adopted, that an enormous price was fixed, and that the measure was deseated. And hence, too, the tax be on one, two, and perhaps three tickets. In Are they willing to have the public works in Democrat; Mr. Thomas S. Smith, the Prohibito. the hands of profligate partisans, to be employed | ry Liquor Law; and two other candidates will whenever they may deem proper, to bolster up yet be brought forward. this candidate or that, without regard to the industry of the people, and already featful rates of taxation ?

These, then, are among the issues of the secand Tuesday of October. A few weeks longer, and the freeman of the Commonwealth will be called upon to attend the polls, and to speak through the ballot boxes. It is well known that a deep feeling pervades the public mind, and that a strong determination everywhere exists to Magistrate, but with reference to many of the Representatives in Congress. The tax payers thing, every man ought to endcavor to procure a affairs, and they have no confidence in our pres- there is a sign of a speedy ending of the world, election of the Whig candidates, who are known to be opposed to the present profligate system, and who if successful, will go into office, pledged to reduce the debt of the Commonwealth, to diminish the taxes of the people, and to promote Penna, Inquirer.

> Murder at Chicago,-Chiago, Sept. 19 -- Patrick Cunningham Irishman, stabbed a policeman named Caspar Hansal, last night, while the latter was in the act of arresting him. The blow proved fatal, killing him instantly.

The New Yorkers spend $10,000 per, night

Who is Beaten.

Even the most incredulous of the Democratic. papers are forced to admit that there has been a Democratic defeat in Maine, but they insist with, great pertinacity that it is not a Whig victory. Very well; suppose this were granted, as a modicum of relief in their present libulation, will they tell us whence came the hosts who have overthrown both Whigs and Democrats ? The latter have had for years a large majority in Maine. Ever since their memorable rout in 1840, they have been regaining the ground then lost. The Whige, therefore, could not have furnished materials enough to produce such a Waterloo, defeat. There must have been, as one of our worthy contemporaries says, "a stampede among. the Buffaloes." The "sound National Democracy of the North," upon whom our Southern. friends always rely in the hour of need, have, certainly faltered in their faith, and have suffer. ed themselves to the fused in the Abolition crucible. This is all the consolation we can offer them at present. Perhaps, when the smoke passes off, all parties may see something upon which to "hang a hope." We " never despair of the Republic, but feel confident that whenever our institutions are seriously threatened there will always be found in both parties enough of cousers. vatism to save the country. The late overthrow. of the Democracy is but an evidence of the powa er of the "popular sovereignty." Surely the friends of so great a "principle" will not continue to complain if it should work a little 'cranky' at first. Let them not "abate a jot of heart or Importation of Paupers.

The wisdom of Congress ought to be exereised to the devising of means to prevent the importation of paupers, and petty criminals. We have enough demoralized uneducated Ameria cans to disturb the peace of society, steal the property of our citizens, and endanger their lives without being made the receptacle of the worst material of the kind that is born and bred in Europe. We heartly agree with the New York Mirror that, "Americans will never refuse Assylum to the oppressed of the Old World, who may voluntarily seek our shores with the intent to be. come good citizens and freemen; but they will not much longer suffer this open shipment upon us by foreign States, municipalities or land. lerds, of the convicts and paupers of Europe. -The evil, not new nor occasional, has been borne long enough, and if it can be stayed by the ener. getic remonstrance of our Government through our foreign agents, let a cord be drawn at the anchorages of our ports, and all the "shipped" convicts and paupers sent back to their European prisons and parishes. Our country is stained and shamed by imported crime and mendacity, and no other nation or people would for an instant tolerate such an outrage on their hospitality. It is not the duty or the mission of the United States to become the Bottany Bay and lazzar houses of the world." -- Mont. Ledger.

The Gubernatorial Election - In 1851, resulted in the election of William Bigler over William F. Johnson, by a majority of 8465. The vote was as follows:

For William Bigler, Democrat, 186 499 For Wm. F. Johnston, Whig, 178,034 For Kimber Cleaver, Native, For Wm. Elder, Abolition, Scattering. 366,460

Fusion and Confusion .- The fusion of all parties in an united effort to put down the high-hand. ed usurpations of the party so long dominent in our country, spreads confusion through the ranks Locofoism. The country is awaking to the knowledge of the truths of Democracy, and its errors are consequently repudiated. When the locofoco elements are expelled from the mass, and Democracy is placed upon, a broad American basis, then we shall be proud to again enroll ourselves among its members .- Phila. Sun.

Parties in Philadelphia.-The Pennsylvania nquirer gives the following as the political parwhaving tickets or parts of tickets in the

1. The regular Whig Party.

2. The Independent Whigs.

3. The Democratic Party. 4. The Native American Party.

5. The friends of a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

6. The Know Nothings. In some cases, several of the candidates will es are as onerous as ever, and are likely to constothers, they will be on but one alone. In the inue so, until some change shall take place. - city, for example, three candidates to the State Are the citizens of Pennsylvania prepared to Senate have already been nominated, namely 1 sustain and uphold this condition of affairs !-- | --- Mr. Crabb, the Whig ; Mr. George Smith, the > Sale of the Public Works .- Judge Pollock, the Whig Candidate for Governor, in his speech at Pittsburg expressed himself in favor of the sale of the Public Works. The People would like to know Gov. Bigler's views upon this highly important measure. Let him come out fairly, and act the man upon this question.

The End of the World .- A correspondent of the Boston Traveler states, that in the vicinity secure a change, not only as relates to the Chief of the burning forests in Maine, quite a number of persons, chiefly females, have become insane, in consequence of excitement, the result of a beare naturally excited at the existing condition of lief that the general conflagrations in the woods ent rulers. A reform is needed, a radical reform, in accordance with the prediction of the Millers and this can only be effected by securing the ites. Some of them have been taken to the State Assylum. This is one of the sad effects of relige ious fanaticism.

> The Drouth -A Letter from Saco, Maine, states that all the wells in that town have been dry for some time, and the inhabitants have to purchase water brought from the river. At Portland, people were in a similar, condition, and in that neighborhood the hoof of horses had become so hard and brittle that they would crack. Concord river, which was unusually high in the spring, is now lower than at any time since 1825, and a, trifle lower than it was then,

A candidate for Representative in one of the towns in Maine, who received three votes out of a poll of 237, says he has concluded to bo neutral in politics hereafter.