Allentown Seminary.

Rev. C. R. Kessler, A. M. Principal.

This Institution will commence its 14th session on the 1st of November next. On the same day the dedication of the new house will take place; at which occasion Professors Porter, of Lancaster and Muhlenburg of Gettysburg, will deliver Addresses in English, and some gentlemen from the neighborhood in German. We trust that a large number of the friends of the Institution and Education in general will favour us with their presence. A considerable number of applicants for admission into the school and boarding establishment, could not be received during the past school year, because there was no room for them. This fact, as well as their own commendable zeal in the cause of Education, induced the proprietors of the school property to accede to the Principal's wish of having the school and boarding accommodations enlarged .-Consequently a large additional building has been crected during the past summer, standing between the Principal's residence and the late school house. connecting with both: And now we venture to say, that both the situation and accommodations of the Allentown Seminary are of such a superior order, that but few, if any, similar Institutions in the State surpass it either in beauty of scenery, or in comfort and convenience of the buildings, both for bord is and day scholars. Of the former we can conveniently, accom modate 100 and of the latter more than that Pupils of all ages are received, are thoroughly instructed in all the branches of a solid English Education; and, in the Latin, Greek, German and French languages, Music and Drawing. French, Instrumental Music and Drawing are the only branches, which must be paid extra. Young men and boys are prepared for advanced Classes in College, or for the various pursuits of practical life.

The health, morals and manners of the boarders will be carefully attended to; and all the pupils, will be required to obey strict-

The Rev. J. S. Kessfer, D.
