

The Weather.
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 6.—This is the coldest morning this winter. At 7 o'clock the mercury stood at 9 degrees below zero.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 6.—The weather is intensely cold, the thermometer, this morning, being 6 degrees below zero.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The thermometers about town have been varying from zero to 10 degrees above. Despatches from all parts of the State indicate that this is the coldest day of the season. In many places, the thermometer has not been so low for twenty years. It has ranged from 20 to nearly 40 degrees below zero.

In the Eastern States the weather is more moderate.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 6.—The weather has been mild to-day, the thermometer being 30 degrees above zero.

St. Louis, Feb. 6.—The weather is very mild, and it is thawing rapidly. The surge of ice above the city gave way this afternoon, and there is now every prospect of a speedy resumption of navigation.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7, 3 P. M.—It is snowing very rapidly to-day. The storm commenced about daylight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The cold continues here most intense.—There are now indications of snow. The thermometer during the night stood 10 degrees below zero.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The despatches from the Eastern States mention the thermometer as varying from 10 to 30 degrees below zero early this morning.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 7.—The snow has been falling all night, and the storm continues without abatement. The cold is excessive.

SARASOTA, N. J., Feb. 7.—The weather is intensely cold, with a heavy, drifting snow all day. At 6 o'clock this morning the thermometer was 6 degrees below zero.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 7.—The weather was cold and cloudy, and some snow fell during the day. This afternoon the snow turned to hail, and this evening the weather moderated, and there are indications of rain. The thermometer is about 20 degrees above zero.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Last night was the coldest night we have had for many years. It has been snowing all day, but is moderating this evening. The thermometer at 7 this evening was 15 degrees above zero.

BOSTON, 9 A. M.—A snow storm commenced during the night, and still falls thick. At present it is on the ground to a depth of about fourteen inches. It is drifting considerably, but so far has not seriously interfered with railroad travel.

MONTREAL, Feb. 9.—Weather has greatly changed. Thermometer which has ranged for the last 3 days at more than 20 degrees below zero, now marks 22 degrees above. Snowing slightly.

TONONKO, Feb. 8.—The weather here is dull and cloudy. There was a slight snow to-day. The thermometer stands at 15 degrees above zero.

HAMILTON, (Canada), Feb. 8.—It has been snowing slightly here to-day, with an easterly wind.—The thermometer stands at 20 degrees above zero.

Yesterday, on the Great Western Railway, a brakeman, name unknown, was frozen to death while at his post, on the platform of a car. When the train stopped, he fell from it, dead.

SINGULAR PRESENTIMENT OF DEATH.—A most singular presentiment of death occurred a few days ago in the family of Mr. George Fisher, in Reisterstown, Baltimore county. His little son, Fillmore, aged about four years, awoke in the night and called to his mother to know if she was awake. He then asked if his father was awake, and afterwards told his mother that he was going to die. He told his father the same thing, and when told that he was dreaming, replied that he was awake, and knew he was going to die. The parents thought nothing more about it, and the child slept comfortably until morning. When he awoke in the morning he repeated his presentiment to his parents; and as soon as breakfast was over insisted on being allowed to go and tell Mrs. Walters, a neighbor, that he was going to die. His mother told him that he had better go and see his grandmother, if he was going to die. He made a visit to his grandmother, and also to Mrs. Walters, after which he returned to his home. During the afternoon of the same day his mother was called out of the house for a few minutes, and when she returned she found the little fellow awfully turned by his clothes having taken fire. As soon as the fire was extinguished he said to his mother, "I told you I was going to die." A physician was called in, who dressed his injuries, telling him that he would soon be well. He said, "No, Fillmore is going to die;" and during the night the little boy breathed his last. This was a most extraordinary presentiment, and during the whole day he spoke of dying, though he had enjoyed excellent health. The boy is said to have been a very sprightly and interesting child, and was beloved by all who knew him.—Dalt. American.

A LUCKY RUNAWAY SLAVE.—The Rochester (New York) Democrat says that a runaway slave named Grandson Boyd, who had taken refuge some years since in Rochester, left the country, as many others did, at time of the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law, from fear his owner might reclaim him. He went to Australia and commenced work in the gold mines.—When he left he was indebted $200 to a crockery merchant, in Rochester, who had no very strong hopes the debt would ever be cancelled. A few weeks since, however, he received a letter from Boyd, stating that he had just arrived at Liverpool from Australia, where he had made $8,000, and enclosing a draft $40, ($200) the amount of the debt.

A YANKEE has invented a machine for extracting the lies from quack advertisements. Some of them are never seen after entering the machine, as only the truth comes out.

ANOTHER MURDER IN PHILADELPHIA.—A young devil by the name of Smith, loafing in company with others in the Warren House in Baker street, Phila., got into a quarrel with one Roundtree. John Hunter and James McCarty, interfered to separate the combatants and succeeded. Smith withdrew to another part of the room, opened a knife, deterred and unexpectedly attacked Hunter and McCarty, giving each a stab, fatally wounding the former, and seriously the latter, Smith, pointing the forefinger of his right hand, said, "I gave them that—God d—n them—there was no fun about that for I meant to kill them," and such like expressions. Hang him up, there's no use in his living.

AN EARTHQUAKE.—An earthquake was felt in Virginia on Friday last. At Clarksville, a little before three o'clock, A. M., there was a rumbling, rattling sound, which resembled somewhat the noise made by a four horse coach in rapid motion, or a wagon with an empty body, running rapidly down a rough hill.—Crockery standing on the table was visibly shaken. At Wythesburg, houses were shaken, and one gentleman was waked up by the severe jar and noise. Alarmed by the cracking sound of his house, he jumped out of bed, considerably frightened, and ran out to see if his house was not on fire at the top. In Prince Edward, we learn, the shock was still greater. In Halifax it was sufficient to wake persons from sound sleep.

COSTLY ENTERTAINMENTS.—A Philadelphia letter writer says:—The principal topic of conversation here now is the magnificent party given here last week by Mrs. Rush of the well known millionaire. About 2,000 invitations were issued, and the entire cost of the entertainment, I am informed, was in the vicinity of twenty thousand dollars, the bare item of bouquets alone costing $1,000, which were distributed in elegant profusion around her splendid mansion. It was nothing but one incessant revelling in luxury from beginning to end. At half past four o'clock in the morning green tea, sweet bread and terrapins, as the closing feast preparatory to the departure of the remaining guests, were served up.

FOREIGNERS IN THE UNITED STATES.—According to the census of 1850, there were living in the United States, 2,244,648 of this class, and they were distributed as follows, viz:—Eastern section, 306,240, against 2,421,867 native born; Middle, 1,080,674, against 5,447,733; Southern, 43,531, against 2,342,255; South-western, 105,335, against 1,973,501; North-western and Territories, 709,806, against 5,657,320; total of foreign birth, 2,244,648, against 17,742,815 native born. The largest per cent. is in the Middle section, being 19.84; the smallest in the Southern, being 1.86.

THE FEBRUARY INTEREST.—The State Treasurer, Gen. Joseph Bailey, commenced the payment of the semi-annual interest on the State debt, on Thursday, at the Bank of Pennsylvania. The amount to be paid is about $900,000, all of which is on hand.

HOMONY CAKES.—Take a pint of boiled homony, and add a small piece of butter, and some salt. Make it into little cakes, and fry them in lard until well browned.
