The Sunday Liquor Law. The following bill passed the House of Representatives last week, by a vote of 73 yeas against 6 nays. The Senate, on the 21st, also passed it by 26 yeas, nays 2:

An Act to prevent the sale of intoxicating Liquors on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the first day of April next it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell, trade or barter in any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or for the keeper or keepers of any hotel, inn, tavern, alehouse, beer-house or other public-house or place, knowingly to allow or permit any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, to be drank on or within the premises or house occupied or kept by such keeper or keepers, his, her or their agents or servants, on the said first day of the week.

Section 2. That any person or persons violating the provisions of the foregoing section, shall for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars; one-half of which shall be paid to the prosecutor, and the other half to the guardians of the poor of the city or county in which suit is brought, or in counties having no guardians of the poor, then to the overseers of the poor of the township, ward, or borough in which the offence was committed, to be recovered as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable in any action of debt brought in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as well for the use of the guardians of the poor, (or for the overseers of the poor of the township, ward, or borough, as the case may be,) as for the person suing: Provided, That when any prosecutor is himself a witness on any trial under the provisions of this section, then the whole penalty or forfeiture shall be paid to the guardians or overseers, as aforesaid.

SECTION 3. That in addition to the civil penalties imposed by the last preceding section, for a violation of the provisions of the first section of this act, every person who shall violate the provisions of that section, shall be taken and deemed to have committed a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, in any criminal Court in this Commonwealth, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars, or more than one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not less than ten days nor more than sixty days, at the discretion of he could be kept alive until the day of executhe Court: and upon being twice convicted, as aforesaid, he shall forfeit any license he may have for selling the aforesaid liquors.

THE RICHEST SELL WE EVER HEARD OF .- WO find an account in the East Brooklyn Times, of as the dead, in that city which takes down any thing in the diddling line of the season, and indicates the extent and pressure of the hard times. A female called a few days since on a lady of some influence in Brooklyn, and told a tion, and moreover, that her husband had just died, and she lacked the means of a decent burial. Her tale of woe so wrought upon the lady that she proceeded to visit her immediately to satisfy herself there was no imposture. On entering the apartment she beheld the coffin, and was satisfied all was right, and not wishing to harrow the feelings of the bereaved woman, she lef. her a considerable sum of money, and immediately departed. After passing two or three blocks from the dwelling, thinking all the way of the strange complexions to which we are liable, she missed her pocket handkerchief and returned to see if she had not dropped it in the house. The stairs were ascended hastily and the room entered without much ceremony, when what did she behold—the woman's husband sitting up in the coffin counting over the

with the anatomy and physiology of man, whether lying with the head exalted, or even with the body, be more wholesome. Most, consulting their own case on this point, argue in favor of that which they prefer. Now, although many delight in bolstering up their heads at night, and sleep soundly without injury, yet we declare it to be a dangerous habit. The vessels through which the blood passes from the heart to the head are always lessened in their cavities when the head is resting in bed higher than the body; therefore, in all diseases attended with fever, the head should be pretty nearly on a level with the body; and people ought to accustom themselves to sleep thus, to avoid danger.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE .- In the Providence (Rhode Island) court of common pleas, on Wednesday, the case of Mary A. Clark vs. Thomas M. Brown, for a breach of promise of marriage, resulted in a verdict for plaintiff for $5,000. The Providence Journal says that the proof of plaintiff consisted of visits of defendant to plaintiff, his waiting upon her to parties, to church, and other public places, calling upon her at her place of business, presents of rings, exchange of miniatures, &c., and finally, that he was the father of her child. The defendant denied any promise, alleging that they boarded in the same family, and that the attentious were ordinary civilities; also, that during all the time of the alleged intimacy, the plaintiff knew that he was engaged to marry another lady, and that, therefore, the plaintiff could not reasonably expect that he was about to marry

COLD WATER FOR DRINKING .- Dr. Marshal Hall asserts it as a clearly established fact, that a glass or more of cold water, drank habitually at meals, or soon after, is a pernicious practice, even to the most healthy. Water, or any other fluid, dilutes the gastric juice, and thus weakens its power to dissolve the food. The amount of gastric juice is not lessened, but its rower is diminished by its dilution, Indignation Meeting.

The old-line democrats of Northampton county held a meeting in the court-house in Easton, on Tuesday evening last, to express their disapprobation of the course of Maj. Fry, representative in the Senate, from our district, in absenting himself from the Democratic caucus, and refusing to support the regular nominee for United States Senator. The following, among other resolutions was adopted by the meeting. Benjamin Ihrie, Esq., presi-déd: " Resolved, That we disapprove the course taken by our Representative in the Senate, Maj. FRY, in absenting himself from the democratic caucus and refusing to support the regular nominee of the democratic party for United States Senator. We regret it on his own account, because his course is inconsistent with the views and feelings of the democratic citizens of his district, as well as from a regard for the credit and honor of the State, which can only be preserved by the election of a high minded honorable and honest man, whose public and private character are above reproach."

Mr. Fox, American Democrat, moved an amendment to the resolutions, which was rejected, and then commenced a scene which beggars description. The result was, that the American portion of the meeting drove the Old Line Democrats out, and then passed resolutions commending the course of Mr. Fry, and in structing Messrs. Bush and Johnson, of the House, also to support Gen. Cameron in the convention to re-assemble on the 27th instant.

SHOCKING SCENE AT AN EXECUTION AT NEW ORLEANS .- Wilhelm Jung, was hung at New Orleans on the 2d inst., for the murder of an orphan boy, of whom he was the guardian .-We gather from the papers of that city the following account of the revolting scenes that preceded the execution:

Three days previous he attempted to commit suicide with a knife, which he had in some mysterious manner procured, and which he had sharpened on the brick walls of his solitary cell. His windpipe had been cut, and his throat from ear to ear, had been hacked with a desperate, but misdirected energy, which left it a complete mass of mangled flesh. He had also stabbed himself in the side, and attempted to butt his brains out against his dungeon walls, but without avail. The wounds were bound up with linen, but it was with great difficulty tion. It appears, however, he walked to the gallows, with a firm step. As soon as the drop fell, the wounds in his neck were opened afresh, presenting a horrible sight. The knot of the rope caught him directly under the chin, throwing his head back, and he lived for some time a new method of "raising the wind" as well struggling most desperately. The windpipe was entirely severed-the blood flowed copiously from his mouth, staining his white neckerchief and cap-and the wind rushed through the bleeding opening, with a frightful, most unearthly loud report, which caused every spectator in the yard to shudder, and turn away his face in horror. The agony of the sufferer must have been intense. His legs and arms, although firmly tied behind his back, writhed about for at least ten minutes. The veins in his face increased in size. After hanging about twenty ninutes, Dr. Sabastier pronounced him dead, and his body was cut down and placed in a rough coffin, and soon the ghastly form of the child slayer, was forever bid him mortal gaze.

How to Tell the Age of Oysters .- Every oody who has handled an oyster shell must have observed that it seemed as if composed of sucessive layers or plates overlaping each other. These are technically termed "shoots," and each of them marks a year's growth; so that, by counting them, we can determine at a glance the year when the creature came into the world. Up to the time of its maturity, the shoots are regular and successive: but after DANGERS OF A HIGH PILLOW.—It is often a that time they become irregular, and are piled uestion among people who are unacquainted one over the other, so that the shell becomes more and more thickened and bulky. Judging from the great thickness to which some oyster shells have attained, this bivalve is capable, if eft to its natural changes unmolested, of attaining a patriarchal longevity.

> MINT OPERATIONS FOR 1854.—There was deposited at the U.S. Mint and several branch Mints throughout the United States, during the year ending Nov. 20, 1854, $49,989,220 23, in gold, and $5,771,853 82 in silver. The total coinage during the same year, was, $60,-756,503 82; making $54,645,000. The amount of silver coin struck and nut into circulation in 1853-4, was $17,273,451. The amount of domestic gold was $49,217,021; of which the mount from California was $47,892,794. The amount received from Australia was $432,000.

CURE FOR THE FOOT ROT IN SHEEP .- The Country Gentleman says the following has been used with great success :-Mix flour of sulphur with the salt given to the sheep, in a proportion just sufficient to discolor perceptibly the the salt, or about one eighth part. Sulphur may be had at a wholesale price at a cost of not over two cents. Where local applications are necessary, we should much prefer a solution of chloride of lime to any other application.

THE POPE'S LAST BULL .- His Holiness, the Pope, in his last "bull," says to the Bishops and Priests of the United States: "General education promotes infidelity, and checks the progress of Catholicism; bible societies are engines of mischief; the freedom of the Press is a most foul plague; liberty of conscience a prolific source of heresy and crime. Demolish these, and Catholicism has nothing to fear in the United States." There is a man down East so tall that he is obliged to get up a ladder to put his hat on; and when he goes to bed he is obliged to shu up his legs like a pair of pen-knife blades.

The Prince of Wales, but 13 years of age, is about to enter the British Navy, with the rank of Lieutenant.

AN ICE CAKE MARRIAGE.—The Laurenceburg Express records the marriage, on the 30th of January, of Rev. James H. Brooking to Miss Sallie Craig, all of Boone county, Kentucky, married in the Ohio river, opposite the Rising Sun, on a cake of floating ice! Surely that was taking a cold start in matrimonial life."

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW. How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhibitanting influence incident to the enjoyment of health.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE!

THE BLOOMING BRIDE, BLOOMING BRIDE, and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently in-explicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sallow, debilitated wife, with frame emneined, nerves unstrangspirits depressed, countenance bearing the impressed suffering, and an uttor physical and mental prestration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN "UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION."

Transmitting CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, HYPOCHONDRIA, INSANITY, GOUT, KING'S EVIL, and other and worse Diseases, as 2

DREADFUL INHERITANCE FROM THE PARENTS. "And must this continue? Must this be? Is there no remedy? No relief? No hope?"
The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the renicules, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION, BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU.

PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN,
One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 230. [ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]

A standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and office cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a re-BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to formles, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Hero every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as alf the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which underning the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are In constant agony for many months preceding confinement Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or s mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of ago and the proper education of

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extrnordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellers as on the public, by imitations of title page, spurious editions, and entreptitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary, therefore.
